Gregory Paul Rogness

March 10, 1953 ~ November 21, 2023

Greg was the first born son of Donna (Christopherson) and Paul (Elvin) Rogness. Greg was an adventurous boy and excelled at track and wrestling. Greg graduated from Veron (WI) High School and continued his studies at UM Platteville. In 1976 Greg moved to Montana making it his new home. Greg loved to hunt, fish and enjoyed all Montana had to offer.

Greg was a resident of Dillon, Montana and lived as a resident at Pioneer Care and Rehab. Greg was well known and loved by many. This was Greg's home where he received excellent care from all the health care professionals. Greg formed many relationships with volunteers and other residents. One very special relationship was with Julie who was at his side and brought him great joy for many years. Greg's kindness, humor, and shenanigans will be missed by many.

Greg is survived by his mother Donna, sister Vicky, brother Randy. Greg has 3 daughters, Julie, Kristy, and Candice. Greg is also survived by grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.

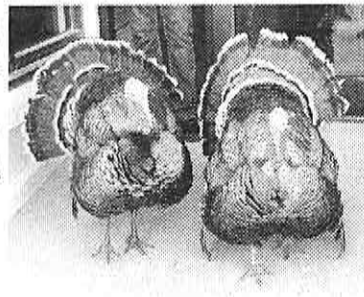

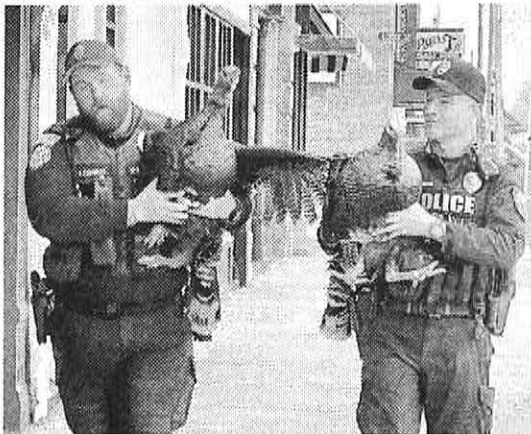

At Greg's request, cremation has taken place and there will be no services.

Shop Local

Two turkeys were shopping local downtown Dillon when they caused a disturbance.

Officers soon arrived and moved the wild animals to a safe location with charges of disturbing the peace.

Thank you officers for taking life saving measures when needed.

Apparently the wild animals had spent the night at the Bicentennial Apartments before coming to town for haircuts and tattoos.

Bulldog Volleyball Closes Historic Season With Final Loss at NAIA National Championships

The Montana Western volleyball team caps off a historic season with a 3-1 loss to no. 13 Midland University by scores of 25-20, 23-25, 22-25, and 16-25.

The Bulldogs recorded their first appearance and win in NAIA postseason play and finish out the season at 22-8 overall.

"Super proud of everything that this team accomplished. Getting here was a huge feat for us to do and was one of our goals and they accomplished that goal," Head Coach Katie Lovett said. "We didn't know what this experience was going to entail so getting to come here and see what it was all about and see what things we need to focus on. Super excited for the future of this program and where we are going. Thank you to the seniors and alumni who have come in the past to help up get to where we are now."

Final Season Notes

The Bulldogs cap off the historic season after posting their highest win percentage since the 1996 season when the Bulldogs went 25-8 overall. They also made their first ever appearance in the NAIA Women's Volleyball National Tournament and went 1-2 overall.

Multiple Bulldogs hit career milestones across the season. Peyton Vogl totaled over 500 kills and 200 blocks. Both KayLee Kopp and Danyel Martin broke the 500-kill threshold. Martin also broke UMW's total career block record and finished the season with 279 total career blocks.

Seasonal Road Closures

The Beaverhead County Road Department will be closing Lemhi Pass and the Pioneer Mountain Scenic Byway on Monday, December 4th for the winter season.

Thank you!

The Cantabileers Present Winter Choral Concert at Montana Western

The Cantabileers, the University of Montana Western's select choral ensemble, will host a free performance on Tuesday, December 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium.

Embark on a harmonious holiday journey with the Cantabileers! This year's winter concert performance will feature a variety of musical selections and student-led ensembles that showcase this talented and creative group.

"It's such a pleasure to watch the Cantabileers continue to build this very unique musical community. The group has worked together to share ideas and utilize each person's strengths and talents, which are showcased in this holiday concert," said the group's Director, Dr. Debbie Seacrest.

Please join us and be part of an evening filled with the beauty and power of choral music including ensemble pieces, duets, and solos. Accompanying the Cantabileers in their performance will be accomplished pianist, Susie Steadman.

Judge's order halts wolf trapping and snaring season in most of Montana

Wolf trapping and snaring in Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks administrative regions 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, and in Hill, Blaine, and Phillips counties won't start until Jan. 1 and will run through Feb. 15, according to a federal court injunction issued Tuesday evening. In areas in eastern Montana outside FWP administrative regions 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, and Hill, Blaine, and Phillips counties the order does not apply, and the wolf trapping and snaring season will start November 27 and run through March 15 as described in the 2023 wolf regulations.

The wolf hunting season, separate from trapping and snaring, remains in place and is open through March 15 as described in the 2023 wolf regulations. Wolf harvest quotas are still in place for FWP regions and can be tracked via the Wolf Harvest Dashboard.

Upcoming BCHS Band Concert

The Beaverhead County High School Band will be presenting their winter concert in the BW Lodge Gymnasium this coming Wednesday, Dec. 6th at 7:30 p.m. Both the Jazz and Symphonic Bands will be featured playing some classic holiday tunes! We'd love to have you join us!

Secretary Christi Jacobsen warns of misleading solicitations addressed to Montana businesses
 Montana's business community notified the Secretary of State's Office of a mailing titled "Montana Certificate of Status Instruction Form" and another titled "2023 Certificate of Existence Request Form." Neither mailing is associated with the Secretary of State's Office.

The Certificate of Existence mailing attempts to charge businesses a fee of $77.50, urging the businesses to respond by a certain date. The Certificate of Status mailing attempts to charge businesses $65, while also urging the business to take action by a posted date.

While not required, a business may request a Certificate of Existence from the Secretary of State's Office to document that they are properly registered to do business in Montana. Depending on the type of entity, a Certificate of Existence is available for only $5 through the Secretary of State's online filing portal, while a Certificate of Fact is $15.

Official communication from the Montana Secretary of State's Office will only direct businesses to the online business filing portal at biz.sosmt.gov. If Montana businesses have questions or concerns regarding a solicitation related to the business, they are encouraged to contact the Secretary of State's Business Services Division by emailing sosbusiness@mt.gov.

Tendoy Fine Art

The artists at Tendoy Fine Art are busily preparing for the holiday season. New items are being displayed and decorations are going up. Hours for the gallery have been adjusted to stay open on December 1st until 8:00 pm. to participate in the Christmas Stroll. Drinks and goodies will be available in the gallery that night.

Jewelry artist, Mary Cerise, has new silver and turquoise jewelry on display and Trudy Gilliam has new additions to her collection of metal ornaments. Painters have small as well as larger pieces to provide shoppers with a multitude of choices.
