Maurice Wolfe

December 23, 1943 — November 6, 2023

Maurice Edwin Wolfe, 79, of Dell, Montana, passed away Monday, November 6th, 2023, at Barrett Hospital. Ed was born December 23, 1943, to Maurice and Lucille (Anderson) Wolfe in Dillon, MT. He was raised in that area and graduated from Dillon High School. Shortly after graduating he joined the National Guard. When he returned home to the ranch he would drive back and forth to Bozeman to attend business school. Ed's life was dedicated to working the family ranch and making the most of the life. In 1980, he met Marsha Mueller who at the time was herding sheep. Marsha offered to come to work on the ranch for him and of course he accepted because the couple hit it off and have been together for the last 43 years. When there was free time on the ranch Ed enjoyed fishing, hunting, watching football, and the rodeo. He also enjoyed dancing with Marsha at the Dell Hotel. The couple shared many memories, sunrises, and sunsets on the ranch.

Ed was preceded in death by both parents, brother Harve Wolfe, and sister Margaret Ann Wolfe. His trusted horse "Powder", his loyal dog "Hitch", and his favorite steer "Elmer" (a gift Scottish Highlander from Ed's friend Al Decker).

He is survived by his sister Angela Wolfe

Ed will forever be remembered for his saying, "It is what it is".

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be directed to the Lima Fire Department in Ed's name.

There are no services scheduled at this time.

Celebrating Native American Heritage Month 2023

With the conclusion of Native American Heritage Month, we'd like to share stories and accomplishments of members of the Montana Western Community that were shared on our Instagram account throughout the month of November.

Native American Heritage Month, observed annually in November, is a time dedicated to honoring and celebrating the rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and contributions of Native American and Indigenous peoples.

Joelnell (Nelly) and Kyla Momberg

Growing up in a small town, sisters Joelnell (Nelly) and Kyla Momberg grew up appreciating the love and support provided by a tight-knit community. Enrolled in the Blackfeet Tribe and hailing from the Chippewa-Cree Reservation in Box Elder, MT, and members of the women's basketball team, Joelnell and Kyla are true inspirations to their community. These incredible sisters are not only dominating the basketball court but are also proudly representing their heritage during their time on campus.

As dedicated student-athletes, Nelly and Kyla exemplify their commitment to their studies, their community, and their sport. Nelly, a senior studying business, and Kyla, a sophomore studying early childhood education, have demonstrated their passion on and off the court. The sister's embodiment of strength and resilience serves as an inspiration to those around them.

Brandon Aimsback

Brandon Aimsback is a senior pursuing a degree in kinesiology. Originating from Heart Butte, MT, Brandon is not only a dedicated student but also a proud member of the Navajo tribe and a descendant of the Blackfeet Nation.

Brandon's unique narrative highlights the depth of his cultural heritage and the distinctive perspectives he brings to the campus community. While hours away from his family, Brandon discovered a sense of connection and identity through his involvement in football. As a vital member of the team, the camaraderie on the field has played a pivotal role in building bridges and fostering a sense of community, even when far away from his hometown.

By bringing his culture and traditions to the forefront, Brandon has created a unique and enriching learning experience for himself and those around him.

Tana Campbell

Senior Tana Campbell, a Confederated Salish and Kootenai and Blackfeet descendant, will leave an indelible mark at Montana Western. Through her work as President of the Multicultural Club, she has encouraged and promoted the Indigenous presence on campus by hosting events including Rock Your Mocs and organizing student trips to nearby powwows. Tana was also influential in restarting the American Indian Scholars Program on campus with the American Indian and Minority Achievement (AIMA) Committee and worked with campus leadership to increase recognition of Indigenous Peoples' Day.

"As someone that didn't have the chance to grow up connected to my culture in the way I would've wanted, I try to make up for that. My mom, who is not Native, did her best to teach me about my heritage. I want others, that didn't have that strong connection to know that there are resources and people out there who are willing to help build that connection with you," she said.

In a short amount of time, Tana has built remarkable and inspiring connections. Her work with raising visibility and planning events for Indigenous peoples will positively impact campus and Native students for years to come. Tana will participate in Commencement this spring as as an English major with professional writing minor degree candidate.

Franky Werk

Franky Werk is a junior studying business with a focus on farm and ranch management. Franky is originally from Hays, MT, located on the Fort Belknap Indian Reservation near Malta.

For Franky, honoring his culture and heritage is a key aspect of his identity. When asked why these components were important to him, he responded, "It's how I represent who I am and how we as Native people keep our different cultures alive and thriving."

Hailing from a small Eastern Montana town, Franky has made sure to share his heritage with those he encounters.

An enrolled member of the Gros Ventre Tribe on the Fort Belknap Indian Reservation, Franky values both sides of his heritage stating, "I am definitely not the most Native-looking person there is because my mom is Irish, but I still tightly embrace both sides."

Having enrolled at Montana Western as a transfer student, Franky appreciates the community presence on campus.

UMW Announces Sprint Degree Partnership with Great Falls College & Public Schools

The University of Montana Western was recently awarded nearly $400,000 dollars by the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education (OCHE) to implement a Sprint Degree in partnership with Great Falls College (GFC) and Great Falls Public Schools (GFPS).

The newly designed program will maintain all the courses currently required for a BS: Elementary Education but will compact the traditionally 4-year program into a 9-semester sequence, which includes summers. Students will be able to take their general education courses through GFC/UMW and will complete their teaching program through UMW.

The Sprint Degree cohort will be housed at Morningside Elementary in Great Falls, which will be the site for the new CORE School that GFPS will open in the fall of 2024. Through this innovative school, UMW students will be able to work as paraprofessionals at the school where they will also take their UMW classes, which will be taught by K-6 classroom teachers who will serve as UMW adjunct instructors. This unique model will allow UMW students to see connections between their coursework and real classrooms, as they gain valuable experience in the field.

Students in the program will spend their third and final year participating in the OPI Residency Project, which UMW has participated in for the last two years. This culminating experience will provide students with an immersive, full-year experience in a single classroom. It is the hope of the Sprint Degree program that students will be well prepared for their own classrooms after spending three years learning about and practicing their skills in elementary classrooms.

For more information about scholarship support and the Sprint Degree program, contact Dr. Laura Straus (laura.straus@umwestern.edu), and for information about the CORE School, contact Jackie Mainwaring (jackie_mainwaring@gfps.k12.mt.us).

Bulldog Football's Tanner Harrell Receives Montana Athletes in Service Award

Montana Campus Compact (MTCC) has recognized thirteen student-athletes for the Montana Athletes in Service Award (MAIS), including Montana Western's Tanner Harrell.

Each year, Montana Campus Compact recognizes one student-athlete from each MTCC Affiliate Campus across the state who has dedicated their efforts to serving the community while also pursuing their college degrees and certificates while participating in college sports. MTCC is excited to announce the following MAIS award winners for 2023:

Montana Western recipient Tanner Harrell, current Association of Student-Athletes President (2023-24) and former Association of Student-Athletes representative (2021-23), actively contributes to the community by volunteering at a local elementary school and as a volunteer for freshmen move-in day. He is also a generous volunteer with Engine 18—an organization established in memory of Bulldog football team member, M.J. Simkins. Recognized as an excellent community member, Tanner lends a helping hand by assisting with moving people into homes, supporting the local elderly, and painting benches at the local special needs home. Additionally, he plays a significant role in community holiday events as Santa Claus. In the sports community, Tanner runs a podcast for Bulldog Athletics titled "Barkin' With The Dawgs" and volunteers as a PA announcer at home events.

"These student-athletes have all taken on serious volunteer commitments in addition to their studies and athletics, and those selfless acts should inspire us to be our best selves and to give back to our communities," said Josh Vanek, Montana Campus Compact's Executive Director.

Dillon Middle School News December 4-8, 2023

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: today, Monday, we will have breakfast for lunch with pancakes, sausage and hashbrowns. Tuesday, we will enjoy Philly cheese sandwiches. Wednesday, chicken filet sandwiches will be served.

Thursday, we will have another taste test day with Reuben sandwiches. And on Friday, we will have beef nachos served with Spanish rice.

The Annual Food drive is underway. Here locally there is a great need within our community for food during the Christmas season. This is a great opportunity for everyone to participate in a cause that will benefit members of our community.

Catch the Christmas spirit and the gift of giving. There is a great feeling that you will experience as you find opportunities to serve others. Let's all participate. The incentive this week is dodgeball Thursday for the class by the most donations by Wednesday. Good Luck to everyone and enjoy.

This is the last week for girls' cross-training. Both 7th and 8th grade will participate together doing plyometrics. There will be no cross-training on Tuesday. On Thursday, eighth grade will participate in cardio and weight training, followed by seventh grade on Friday doing the same thing.

In boys' basketball last week, the "B" teams played Deer Lodge. The 7B team won handily while the 8B came up short. Then, last Tuesday, all the teams traveled to Butte East. The teams played well and all of the teams pulled off a win. Great job guys.

This is the last week for boys' basketball. The teams travel today, Monday, December 4th, to Anaconda. The bus leaves at 2:15. The seventh-grade teams play at the Lincoln Elementary gym, and the eighth grade teams play at the Fred Moodry Middle School gym. The "B" team games begin at 4 PM, followed by the "A" team games at 5 PM.

Did you know childhood experiences, both positive and negative, have a tremendous impact on lifelong health and opportunity? The Beaverhead ACEs Task Force works to prevent childhood trauma in southwest Montana. Join us as we work to build strong families in our community.
