UMW Reports Increase in Overall and Montana Resident Enrollment for Fall 2023

Officials at the University of Montana Western said current headcount for the fall semester shows the university's total enrollment is 1,406 students with a full-time equivalency of 1,220. 73% of Montana Western's total fall enrollment is comprised of Montana residents, with a 2% increase in overall headcount compared to last fall.

Montana Western Director of Institutional Research, Charity Walters, said this year's incoming class increased in Montana residents by 11% in comparison with last fall (and grew 2% overall). This year's incoming class included 299 freshmen, 123 transfer students, and 17 readmits for a total of 439 incoming students.

"We are excited to see the continued growth of our overall enrollment and this fall's increase in Montana resident students. We are proud to serve students from Montana and across the country at Montana Western. Our top priority is providing them with immersive experiences in their fields of study. The combination of experiential learning and the ability to focus on one course at a time with the block scheduling model at UMW opens so many doors for our students as they graduate and pursue careers or graduate school," said University of Montana Western Chancellor, Michael Reid.

Montana Western is the only U.S. public four-year institution offering Experience One where students take a single course at a time. This innovative program of teaching and learning has realized great success and stability over the past two decades in several student outcomes including retention, class completion, graduation rates, career placement, and graduate, law, medical, and veterinary school acceptance rates.

The University of Montana Western was recently ranked as the best college in Montana by Bestcolleges.com and was ranked #7 in Top Public Schools and #8 in Best Value Schools in the Western region by U.S. News & World Report in their 2023-24 rankings. Nasdaq.com has also named Montana Western as the most affordable college in Montana.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks hiring game wardens

Do you like to be in the Montana outdoors working with hunters, anglers and boaters? Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking applicants to fill nine game warden positions.

"It's one of those jobs where It's not even a job," said Region 6 Sergeant FWP Game Warden Andy Matakis. "It's a way of life. It's being that person in your community that people can rely on. No two days in this job are the same."

To become a game warden in Montana, applicants must successfully complete the Montana Law Enforcement Academy Basic Course or have equivalent training.

Typically, a game warden is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week to support field staff, respond to the public and address wildlife issues. Job demands are heaviest during weekends and holidays.

Wardens must be in excellent physical health. The position requires frequent climbing, bending, pushing, pulling, dragging and lifting. Duties include working with sick or injured wildlife; removing illegal kills; trapping and relocating animals; backpacking; horseback patrols; and operating boats, snowmobiles and OHVs. Good communication skills are also necessary as use of force incidents can occur. Wardens must be in excellent mental condition as they must deal with all types of personalities and stress levels.

Game wardens can experience potentially dangerous interactions with criminals while enforcing the law and can be subject to assault and encounter hazardous substances. Because of these potential situations, good communication skills and strong mental health are necessary.

"I like to say you earn your badge every day," Matakis said. "It's not something I take lightly."

Women and minorities are under-represented in this job category and are strongly encouraged to apply. Successful applicants will be subject to a full background investigation.

For more information, go to fwp.mt.gov/aboutfwp/enforcement/warden-hiring.

Applications will be accepted through Jan. 1, 2024.

Las Vegas Events And Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Announce Cancellation Of First Rodeo Performance Scheduled For Thursday, Dec. 7

In respect for those who lost their lives on December 6, the NFR will take a day of mourning

Due to the tragic event that took place on the UNLV Campus today, the Las Vegas Events Board of Trustees and the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Board of Directors announced that the first performance of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo®, scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 7, has been cancelled.

"All of us are saddened by the events that occurred today," said LVE President Tim Keener. "Our thoughts and prayers go out to all who have been affected. We are grateful to all of the first responders, police, security and the UNLV community for their actions today."

"Today's shooting on the UNLV campus was alarming and deeply troubling," said PRCA CEO Tom Glaue. "The PRCA is grateful for the rapid, professional response from law enforcement and first responders. Our thoughts right now are focused on the victims of this senseless act of violence."

The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas at the Las Vegas Convention Center, South and Central Halls, will continue as planned. It will open on Thursday, Dec. 7 and run through Saturday, Dec. 16. It is open to the public.

Wrangler National Finals Rodeo To Start On Friday, Dec. 8 With Additional Round Held On The Morning Of Wednesday, Dec. 13

Opening performance on Dec. 8 to include Moment of Silence; make-up round to be held on the morning of Wednesday, Dec. 13 at 10 a.m. without public access

The Las Vegas Events Board of Trustees and the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Board of Directors announced today that the first round of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® will now be held on Friday, Dec. 8 at 5:45 p.m. at the Thomas & Mack Center. To maintain the tradition of the ten rounds of the NFR, an additional make up-round has been added on the morning of Wednesday, Dec. 13 at 10 a.m. There will be no public access to this round.

Wednesday, Dec. 6, the original starting date was cancelled. The Wrangler NFR will now run through Saturday, Dec. 16 with the ten full rounds set to determine the PRCA World Champions. The original $11.5 million purse will remain in place and be paid out in full over the nine days of competition and ten rounds.

For NFR season ticket holders, full refunds for the cancelled performance will be issued by Las Vegas Events. If tickets were purchased through StubHub, a refund will be issued directly to the buyer by StubHub.

A moment of silence will be held on Friday, Dec. 8 at the start of the rodeo performance.

"We all have heavy hearts over the tragic events that occurred on Wednesday," said LVE President Tim Keener. "The National Finals Rodeo has brought the Las Vegas community together since 1985, and we will honor those that we have lost through our rodeo – an event that celebrates unity, togetherness and bringing friends and families together. We will do this in solidarity with our fans, as well as our partners at the PRCA, UNLV and the community."

"The PRCA is saddened by the tragedy that happened yesterday and our thoughts and prayers are with the victims and their friends and families," said PRCA CEO Tom Glaue. "We have worked closely with our partners in Las Vegas and the Thomas & Mack Center to work through the NFR schedule, while maintaining sensitivity to the events that took place. We will bring our fans together on Friday evening to share our support for this community."

The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas at the Las Vegas Convention Center, South and Central Halls, got underway today and will continue through Saturday, Dec. 16. It is free and open to the public.

Cash reward increased to $21K for information on wolverine killed illegally in southwestern Montana

Several organizations have offered to contribute additional funding to raise the cash reward for information on a wolverine killed illegally northwest of Wisdom in November.

Donating organizations include the Animal Defense Fund, Trap Free Montana, Skyline Sportsmen in Butte, the Center for Biological Diversity, and FWP's TIP-MONT program. The combined reward offered from these organizations is $21,500.

Game wardens received a report on Nov. 10 of a wolverine carcass found on U.S. Forest Service Road 7377 near Schultz Saddle and the Continental Divide, northwest of Wisdom. A game warden located the carcass and confirmed the animal had been shot, skinned and abandoned.

Wolverine harvest is not legal currently in Montana.

Anyone with possible information about the illegal harvest is encouraged to visit <https://myfwp.mt.gov/fwpPub/tipmont> to provide details or call the FWP violation reporting hot line at 1-800-TIP-MONT.
