to the unit. Their names are Keri Carson and Aaron Beard. Welcome aboard. When you see them out and about, please take the time to thank them for their service.

Next on the agenda was the critique of two searches/rescues the unit had in the last month. The first being the search for a 15 year old young man in the Warm Springs drainage outside Jackson, MT. The second one was a rescue of two gentlemen in the Gibbons Pass area west of Wisdom.

After discussion of the incidents, training officer Alex Dunn presented training opportunities for members that will be happening this month and next month. On December 9th there will be rope training put on by member Steve Mock and others. The next training will take place on the 12th of January. This is an Aerie Wilderness Medicine training sponsored by the UM Western School of Outreach. Then on January 27th there will be an Avalanche Rescue class.

Tara Remely, ice fish derby chairperson, talked about the upcoming derby. Tickets are available from S&R members and may also be purchased at various businesses around town. Once again it will have the same exciting payouts for the largest trout and ling by weight. There will also be two tagged fish that will pay big money if caught. The kids fishing contest is back, as well as the 50/50 pot splits and door prizes. Come join in the fun on the 14th of January, 2024...

After a lengthy discussion on communications, the meeting was adjourned at 8:45. After the general meeting, communications officer, Brad Wagner, had a short training explaining the use of our repeaters, locations of these repeaters, and the ground coverage of each repeater. Looking on a map of the coverage area for each repeater it is obvious there are multiple areas in our county that communication during incidents is very sketchy at best. Brad has been working very hard to improve our comm. coverage with the addition of new radios, repeaters, and working with the Forest Service to use their repeaters. Thank you Brad for your dedication and hard work. He puts in many extra hours to keep us up and running.

Even though our winter has been pretty mild so far, we can only hope that it will change at some point in time. Before that happens and catches everyone of guard, please get things and be prepared for whatever may come. Oh yes, get that ice fishing gear out and ready for some fun. "In the Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

Dillon Middle School News December 11-15
 The lunch menu for the week is as follows: today, Monday, we will enjoy potato tacos served with trimmings. Tuesday, weiner wraps will be served with mac and cheese. Wednesday, local beef hamburgers will be served with trimmings. On Thursday, we will enjoy a taste test day with cream chipped beef on toast served with fruit and veggies. And on Friday, French bread pizza will be served with Caesar salad.
 We have some more results from boys' basketball. When the teams traveled to Anaconda, both "B" teams pulled off a win. "7A" won handily, and although they played very well, "8A" came up short. Great job, guys.
 We have the first result from our food drive competition. The first week incentive was donuts to the class who brought the most canned food items per person. The donuts went to Mrs. Broder's class. The second incentive was dodgeball. The winning class got to play dodgeball during eighth period. Stay tuned for those results.
 The food drive continues this week. Students continue to bring those non-perishable items to your 8th period class.

The Dillon Middle School Winter Concert will be held next Monday, December 18th in the Parkview gym. The concert will begin at 7 PM. However, choir and band members should have been told by Mr. Johnson what time they must be to the school. Come on out for an enjoyable holiday concert. It is open to the public.

The book club is continuing with new books. The meeting will be in January. This month's books are: "Old Wolf," by Avi, "A Whale in Paris," by Daniel Presley, and "Hoot," by Carl Hiaasen. Thank you, Mrs. Miller for providing this amazing opportunity for our middle school students.

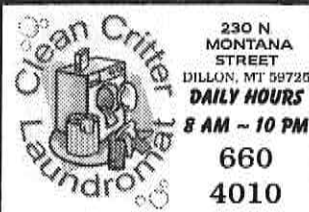

Next week, the student council will be hosting a spirit week before our winter holiday. Get in the spirit and dress up each day. Monday we will dress as Christmas trees. Tuesday, we will dress as our favorite Christmas character. Wednesday, we will show off our best ugly Christmas sweaters. And on Thursday, we will finish the week by wearing our favorite PJ's or sweats. There will be prizes for each dress up day except Thursday for the best dressed in each class. So, show your school spirit and let's finish off 2023 celebrating.

Midterms were sent home last Friday with students. Parents, if you have a question about this, please contact the middle school office.

Seventh and eighth grade girls' basketball players, your season will begin as soon as we return from the winter holiday. Sixth grade players, you will begin the following Monday. Ladies, please make sure all your paperwork is in the office.

Wrestlers, your season will begin in February. It's not too early to prepare by getting all your paperwork into the office.

Healthy families are the cornerstones in a community where all young people thrive. Children develop lasting resilience when raised with consistency. The ACEs Task Force works to nurture and develop resilience in our community. Healthy families build strong communities.
