Skip Bybee

Skip Bybee finished his last tour of the Dillon downtown drinking establishments over the Christmas holiday. As was his quiet unassuming nature, he chose to slip away in the night leaving us to figure out how to fill the gap in our lives he left.

Who will support our veterans, donate beadwork and artwork to all types of causes, spoil all the dogs around, drive the Model A at Bannack Days and make sure the women everywhere know they are beautiful?

A native Montanan of Crow heritage, Skip traveled the US and the world during his 30 plus years in the Army and chose to settle in Dillon where he found a community he could call home.

He is survived by the love of his life, his daughter, Leilani, her husband, Ken, and grandson, Jason. In addition he's survived by Brother John, his nieces, Sandy and Brenda, his stepsister, Dian, and close friends, Glenda and Tommy.

There will be a Celebration of Life in early summer.

Carol V. McLaren

8/17/23-12/27/23

Longtime Dillon resident Carol Vivienne Giudici McLaren passed away December 27th, 2023, at age 94.

Carol was born in Butte on August 17, 1929, to Dillon residents, Phillip Isadore and Florence (Nelson) Giudici. The family later moved to Butte along with their second child Philip Ray. There, Carol attended Blaine Elementary School. Her family remained in Butte until 1942. They returned to Dillon in 1943 where Carol attended Beaverhead County High School. During her attendance at BCHS, Carol would meet the love of her life Arley McLaren. She graduated Salutatorian of her class from Beaverhead County High School in 1947. She attended Montana State Normal College the following fall where she received her teaching degree in 1949 and accepted a position in Great Falls. She taught in Great Falls for one year before returning to Dillon to marry Arley on June 25th, 1950. A year later, the couple moved to Pocatello where they welcomed their first child, Susan, in 1952 followed by the birth of their son Richard in 1954. After the death of Arley's father they returned to Dillon where they added to their family with the addition of their daughter Chris in 1958 and daughter Amanda in 1962.

Carol worked a variety of jobs including working for McCracken's and teaching school in Melrose. In 1972, Arley and Carol took over the Dillon-Wisdom Stage route. She took on the role of office manager for their business and would often drive the route herself with the help of her two youngest daughters in the summer months. In 1975 they purchased Hignight Plumbing with a partner and in 1979 they became sole owners and renamed the business McLaren Plumbing. They owned and operated McLaren Plumbing until selling the business and retiring in 2004. During this time Carol returned to Western Montana College and received her Early Childhood Development certification and worked for many years as a childcare provider for a local daycare.

A lover of local and family history, she was active in the Beaverhead Head Hunters and the archives at Beaverhead County Museum. She was devoted in her faith and an active member of St. James Episcopal Church for most of her life. She served on the Vestry, various committees, taught Sunday School, served as a layperson, and could always be counted on to have Coffee Hour ready after church. Of her many accomplishments, none was greater than the family she and Arley created. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend.

Carol is survived by her daughter Susan McLaren and her children, Kimberly (JC) Youngquist and Eric (Jordan) Dolan; son, Richard (Charee) McLaren and their daughters, Summer Bourassa and Serena Zareski; son-in-law, Robert Kailey (Christine); daughter Amanda (Dennis) Morton and their daughter Morgan McLaren; nine great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Arley of 64 years; daughter Christine McLaren; and brother, Phillip Ray.

A celebration of Carol's life and internment is planned for later this spring. In lieu of flowers the family would appreciate memorials be sent to Beaverhead County Museum 15 S. Montana Street, Dillon, MT 59725; St. James Episcopal Church, 203 E Glendale Street, Dillon, MT 59725 or a charity of your choice.

Attorney General Knudsen asks Montanans to learn signs of human trafficking

As Human Trafficking Awareness Month begins, Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen is asking Montanans to learn the signs of human trafficking and report it if they see it to help the state fight the heinous crime. He also sent a warning to human traffickers and their patrons not to do business in Montana because they will be caught and held accountable for their criminal behavior.

Human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery in which traffickers—often organized criminal enterprises—profit at the expense of adults or children compelled to perform labor or engage in commercial sex.

"I am committed to doing everything I can as attorney general to end human trafficking in Montana. At the Department of Justice, we have strengthened the law and dedicated more resources to finding and holding traffickers and patrons accountable," Attorney General Knudsen said.

Since Attorney General Knudsen began sounding the alarm in 2021, reported human trafficking cases have more than doubled. In 2023, Department of Justice agents tracked 143 human trafficking cases in Montana compared an increase of 26 percent from 106 cases in 2022 and more than double the 68 cases in 2021. In 2015, there were just seven reported cases statewide.

During the 2023 legislative session, Attorney General Knudsen's office helped write and pass House Bill 112 which increases the penalties for sex traffickers and patrons of sex trafficking. It also provides prosecutors with more tools to prosecute sex traffickers and expands the definition of human trafficking.

The new statute is already helping law enforcement crack down on sex trafficking. For example, last year, officials in Bozeman conducted a sting operation and arrested 18 individuals who were charged with 18 counts of patronizing a prostitute, five counts of criminal distribution of dangerous drugs, one count of resisting arrest, and one count of patronizing a victim of sex trafficking for a child victim.

Attorney General Knudsen also successfully advocated for two new human trafficking agents during the last legislative session, increasing the number agents to investigate human trafficking from two to four.

Attorney General Knudsen has also increased human trafficking training for county attorneys, Highway Patrol Troopers, and law enforcement cadets. He helped launch the Sentinel Project, a private-public partnership between the Montana DOJ and non-governmental organizations to increase human trafficking training and public education.

Know the signs. Potential indicators of sex trafficking may include:

• Young person that is very hesitant to engage in conversation. Eyes are always downcast, avoiding eye contact, especially with men. Poor physical state…tired, malnourished, or shows signs of physical abuse or torture.

• Seems to have trouble responding to what their name is or what location (city or even state) they are in. (Victims' names are often changed, as are their whereabouts. They typically do not stay in one location for long – at times for 24 hours or less).

• Wearing clothes that do not fit the climate or the situation such as short shorts or skirts, tank tops, and no jacket in the middle of winter.

• Lack of control over money, personal possessions like bags, IDs, or documents. May also be carrying very few possessions in a plastic bag.

• May be accompanied by a dominating person, or someone they seem fearful of. That controlling person may also be someone who does not seem to "fit," such as a much older individual, an individual of a different race, or with behavior seemingly inappropriate with the suspected victim.

• Young girl or boy hanging around outside a convenience store, truck stop, casino, or other location. May be approaching different vehicles or men they do not seem to know.

If you believe you witness human trafficking:

If the situation is an emergency, call 911.

Do not intervene if you see suspected trafficker(s). Remain at a safe distance or in your vehicle.

In non-emergency situations, call or text 1-833-406-STOP (1-833-406-7867) OR reach and advocate via live chat at 406stop.com.

When possible, take images with your cellular device of the suspected trafficker(s), victim(s), and vehicle license plate(s).

Application period started for Smith River permits

Changes coming for the 2024 season

Floaters hoping for a Smith River permit can apply Jan. 2 through Feb. 15. However, a few changes are coming this year that applicants should be aware of.

Celebrated for its spectacular scenery, remote location and excellent trout fishing, the Smith River is one of Montana's most sought-after outdoor recreation experiences. Permits are required to float the 59-mile section of river between Camp Baker and Eden Bridge and are issued each year through a lottery.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff will remove pit toilets at the float-in campsites along the Smith River during the spring of 2024. All float parties, private and commercial, will be required to pack out their human waste from the Smith River corridor.

2024 is the first year applicants can buy a bonus point for the Smith River Permit. A bonus point is essentially an extra chance you can purchase for the permit drawing.

Finally, starting in 2024, the number of permits available for nonresidents may not exceed 10 percent of the available permits. This new law was passed as part of House Bill 846 in the 2023 Legislative Session.

Community Pond Program grant money available

Groups or individuals interested in constructing or improving a community fishing pond have until Feb. 1 to apply for a Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Community Pond Program grant. The objective of the Community Pond Program is to enhance public fishing opportunities in or near Montana communities by providing funding that may be used to construct or improve a public fishing pond.

A total of $200,000 in grant funds is available for projects on ponds that offer public fishing opportunities.

Applicants must provide at least 30 percent of the total project cost, which can include contributions such as heavy equipment time, construction materials, labor, engineering services and more.

Applications, which are accepted each year, must be received on or before Feb. 1. Applicants are required to contact their local FWP fisheries biologist to obtain project support. For more information, contact Michelle McGree, FWP Program Officer, at 406-444-2432 or mmcgree@mt.gov.

Bulldogs Win Battle in Billings Over Blue Hawks

After racing to a quick start and putting up 29 points in the first quarter, the Montana Western women's basketball team (7-5) were able to cling to the lead and top Dickinson State (N.D.) 66-57 in the first day of the Hampton Inn Green and Gold Classic.

Three Bulldogs hit double digits in scoring with Jordan Sweeney leading the way with 18 points and seven assists.

Bulldogs Close Out 2023 With 80-60 Win Over Trojans

The Montana Western women's basketball team (8-5) capped out the 2023 year with a victory over the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology by a score of 80-60.

The Bulldogs hit 47.4 percent from the field and picked up 34 points in the paint.

Shainy Mack and Momberg combined for 16 points across the second frame as they led UMW to a 40-29 lead at the half break.

Montana Western will take a break and return to action with the opening of Frontier Conference action beginning on Jan. 6. The Bulldogs will take on MSU-Northern at 2 p.m. in Dillon.

WHIP advisory council to meet in Helena

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program (WHIP) advisory council will meet Jan. 10 to discuss program administration.

The meeting will be in Helena at the FWP office on 1625 11th Ave., on the third floor. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. and public comment will be taken near the end, at approximately 2 p.m.

The WHIP is a federally funded program to help address noxious weed management for high priority wildlife habitats in Montana. The program funds projects annually. These funding proposals are reviewed and ranked for funding by the advisory council.

For more information on the WHIP or on the meeting Jan. 10, call Rick Northrup at 406-444-5633.
