and precision. She sped along with a load of hay, her ponytail flying, all while thoroughly enjoying the challenge of keeping the fork on the beaver slide filled and busy. She was equally skilled on the back of a horse, whether it be moving cattle, or leading a group of dudes on a mountain ride. She had a tender heart, always wanting to take care of everyone, so she always wanted to become a nurse. In preparation, she was the gal who always had the syringe in her hand, vaccinating the calves during branding. There was a tradition at the 7L ranch after the brandings, all involved would enjoy music and dancing after all the work was done. Judy played the piano accompanying the lively singers and dancers.

Judy and Bill's romance started after Bill had rode across the valley to help Judy and her family move cattle. After a summer of courtship, Judy went off to college at Montana State University in Bozeman, Montana, returning home after a few days to prepare for their wedding. Bill and Judy celebrated 62 years of marriage, on November 25, 2023.

Judy was an excellent ranch wife and skilled cook. She prepared meals for hay, harvest crews, and cowboys on the trail. Judy's signature cooking appliance was the BBQ located in the woodshed behind the house in the Centennial Valley. After a long day of work, the crew would look forward to smoke billowing from the woodshed, indicating a delightful home-cooked meal was sure to come. In the morning, the crew would wake to the smell of fresh coffee on the stove and homemade sourdough pancakes. The crew included the beloved ranch dogs, who would eagerly wait out the front door for their share of the breakfast, which included two platters of syrup coated pancakes. The dogs were very well-behaved during breakfast due to Judy's training technique, which included a wooden spoon, shaken in haste if any of the dogs misbehaved.

Judy prepared nutritional and tasty meals for her family, and gorgeous feasts for dinner guests. She could easily whip up a batch of cookies to delight the children or to accompany a cup of coffee for a neighbor who might drop by for conversation. She enjoyed meeting ladies and helping them enhance their natural beauty with Mary Kay products. She attended several Mary Kay conventions. Judy never forgot a birthday, anniversary, or special event in the lives of those who were close to her.

Judy was a wonderful grandmother and prioritized her life to take the kids on trips, teach them new skills, and follow their extracurricular activities. Some of the best driving lessons were given on the road headed into the Centennial Valley. Memorable evenings were spent in the homemade "hot tub" outside the house in the Centennial, followed by a campfire and marshmallows. Winters included ski lessons, where the kids chose to spend their half-hour of free time skiing with Grandma Judy. Judy never forgot to bring ingredients for her specialty post-skiing slushie, which included Maverick Mountain snow and juice.

Judy is survived by her loving husband Bill Staudenmeyer, daughter, Debbie Tamcke (Tom), son, Will Staudenmeyer (Patti Jo), daughter, Heidi Peterson (M.D.), daughter, Sheila Maisano (Joe), grandchildren, great grandchildren, sister, Effie Abrams, brother, Andrew Forsythe, and numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A celebration of life, will be held at 12:00 pm January 10th at The Den, 725 North Montana Street Dillon, Montana.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations be made to Friends of the Fair 4H Building, 2 South Pacific Street Suite 11, Dillon, Mt. 59725, or HoneyBee Hospice, 1000 State Hwy. 91 South, Dillon, Mt. 59725

Meet The Young Man Behind Dillons First Ever NYE Firework Show

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

On New Year's Eve Dillon was treated to a firework display like none other. People gathered in the parking lot at Ray Lynch Park for a ten-minute pyro technical display that really showed off the talents of local firework expert Raven Ross Anderson.

The show was sponsored by local businesses as well as through the sale of T-Shirts commemorating the event. At 8 P.M. The show kicked off with two massive fireballs that used ten gallons of gasoline each. Followed by the national anthem synced to a firework display. The main event left the audience clapping and cheering for more.

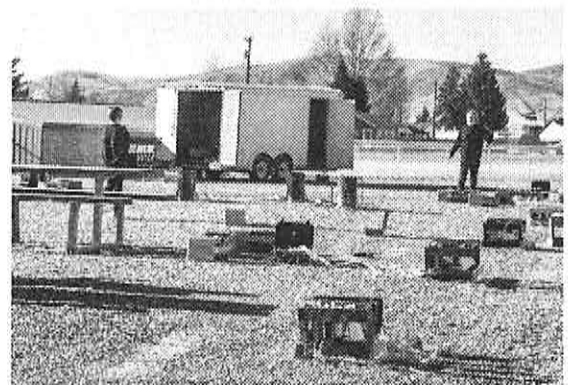

We sat down with Raven and got to know him a little better.

Raven started trying his hand at firework shows in 2019. In 2021 he entered the Pyrotechnics Guild International competition and won 1st place and the best score for a competitor. Raven then placed 3rd in 2022 and 2023 against the top people in the USA.

The planning for the New Years Eve show began around September. He said for bigger shows the planning can start 6 to 8 months in advance. This year he has at least 10 shows he will be working on and has worked on over 50 shows so far.

Raven got his love of pyrotechnics through the family business. They own the Red, White, and Blue fireworks stand. Growing up he would help order the fireworks then stockpile his favorite ones. He would then get to light them off. He knew this is what he wanted to do for a living and now he gets to live out his dream job as he puts on firework shows across the state.

Let's hope the Dillon community gets treated to many more shows from this bright young Building ~ We are celebrating the end of 2023 with happy and grateful hearts. Among the many reasons: we have final building plans submitted to the State of Montana for review. This is an important milestone and the result of many hours of work. In upcoming months, we look forward to constructing our manufacturing space, including site work, plumbing, electrical, and concrete. Our 500-gallon hybrid pot still is waiting in southern Missouri for us to be ready for it.

2023 Pickleball Court Progress Report

2023 was a very productive year as far as the building of the pickleball courts. We broke ground in October of 2022. But due to the prolonged winter construction did not start until late April of 2023 with the site preparation provided by Kelly Rowe Excavation.

Phillips Concrete volunteered to provide the labor to form and finish the cement slab for the two courts. In May, we purchased the rebar and concrete forming material, as well as the net posts and ground sleeves for installation into the slab. In June we contracted with R-M Construction and Coatings out of Idaho to apply the synthetic acrylic court surface. July found Phillips Concrete forming the slab and pouring the cement that was provided by LS Ready Mix at a reduced cost to us.

In late August it became clear that due to insurance liability issues, we would no longer be able to continue as a committee of the Bike Walk Southwest Montana organization. On September 2, we became a stand-alone 501(c)3 non-profit organization known as the Beaverhead Pickleball Association, Inc. We thank the Bike Walk Board of Directors for allowing us to jump-start this project and also their returning of the land on which the courts are built back to Beaverhead County so that we may lease it directly from the County.

The plan was to have the courts ready for play towards the end of summer or early fall of 2023. The major issue was finding a fencing contractor who could perform the installation on our time line. Cost of fencing was also a major issue as bids were coming in at twice the budgeted amount. We contracted with Montana Fence out of Belgrade to install the fence in November. The November fence installation date made the weather too cold to install the acrylic surface pushing the ready for play date back to late spring of 2024.

There is still a need for funding as the project will only be 80% complete when it is ready for play. Incidentals such as equipment, fill material around the courts and pathways, landscaping, benches, signage, etc. will still need to be purchased and installed.

We would like to acknowledge those so far who have donated time, labor, and/or materials to this worthwhile community project. They are as follows: Beaverhead Home Center, Beaverhead County - Mike McGinley, Bike Walk Southwest Montana, Phillips Concrete, Kelly Rowe Excavation, LS Ready Mix

In addition, members of the Beaverhead Pickleball Association have volunteered their time and labor to this project. Members have also contributed monetarily to this project as have individuals, businesses, and organizations from throughout Beaverhead County. The list is lengthy and is provided on our website (pickleballbcmontana.com) for those who are interested.

We look forward to the completion of these free public courts in 2024, at the Chris Kraft Beaverhead County Park.
