Gary Wayne Thornton

Aug 17, 1954 — Jan 02, 2024

Gary Wayne Thornton passed away January 2nd 2024 with his loving wife Debbie; and the forever faithful dog Dakota by his side.

Gary is survived by his wife Debbie, a stepson Levi Wayman (Stephanie and Regan) a son Josh, and daughter Sara; from Washington State.

There will be a celebration of life for Gary Thornton on August 17th, 2024 at Kelley Lake. Everyone welcome.

Donald Lee Griffis

11/7/1939 – 1/3/2024

Donald Lee Griffis passed away at his home the evening of January 3rd. Don was born to Donald Leonard Griffis and Martha Evelyn Heiller in Embarrass, MN.

Don served in the United States Army for 22 years, where he retired with the rank of Warrant Officer. Don's distinguished career took him all over the United States, and around the world. From Arizona, Texas, Alaska, Korea, Vietnam and Germany he traveled. There were few places he hadn't seen and had stories to tell.

If that weren't enough, after the army, Don earned a degree from Boston University and also became a Gunsmith. Don also spent the following years enjoying the outdoors hunting, guiding, and gopher shooting.

Don is survived by his brother, Harold Griffis of Anaconda, MT, Curt Griffis of Whitehall, MT.

There will be a celebration of life in early summer.

THANK YOU

THANK YOU to the Dillon community & surrounding area for making the 2023 Children's Giving Tree a success!

This year 185 kids in 72 families had a merrier Christmas thanks to your generosity. From application to delivery, we tagged & sorted over 400 gifts.

To those that took a tag off the Tree & bought the gift- thank you. To those that gave money to buy the gifts if the tags didn't get taken off the Tree- thank you. A HUGE thank you to Tracey & Dave Roberts at Rattlesnake Creek Alpaca store for hosting the Tree & keeping track of the tags going out and the gifts coming in. Thank you to the Andrus Hotel for letting us use the space to lay out the sacks and gifts as we sorted into families. Thank you to the USFS employees who adopted and bought gifts for two families. Thank you to Debbie at the Bookstore and her anonymous donor who gave us gift certificates for the Bookstore. Debbie says she gets to see the delight in the children's eyes when they come in to pick out their very own book!

I am blown away, and very thankful for an anonymous Santa who came into Rattlesnake Creek Alpacas at the last minute with a sizeable monetary donation, then returned later with gift cards to Town & Country grocery store. Your generosity helped a lot of people in this community.

Thank you to my elves- I couldn't do it without you! You tagged gifts, sorted gifts (multiple times), bought gifts, delivered gifts.....Clariss Yuhas, Cindy Barnes, Sharon Rice, Judy Tash, Carleen Chaffin, Stacey Fisk, Judy Siring, Melanie Stocks- thank you for pitching in year after year to help.

May God Bless each and every one of you that has done a part to make the Giving Tree happen this year and the past 35 years!

Turkey Fries

Bryce Angell

While walking down the hardware aisle at Goodwill Industries,

I was looking for a twelve-foot chain to pull out willow trees.

But instead of chains I turned and standing there was my friend, Hank.

Hank's life was always up and down - I'd say from what he drank.

His given name was Henry but he went by Hank for short.

He was known throughout the valley as a kind but troubled sort.

Hank's desperate eyes lit up when I reached out and shook his hand.

His voice was rambling such that I could barely understand.

He was shaking in his shoes and then he said, "I need a cook.

I made a promise to the gals. Can you get me off the hook?

"The Women's Farm Society has planned their yearly feast.

I couldn't boil hot water, let alone use baker's yeast."

He was absolutely pitiful, and panic filled his eyes.

That's when my mind reflected how about those turkey fries?

"Hank," I said, "I'll be your cook 'cuz it's your lucky day.

We'll give those farm folks turkey fries, a meal the homemade way.

"Let's feed 'em mashed potatoes with some peppered sauce on top.

And a slice of turkey breast with all the veggies from their crop.

"Last of all warm apple pie, and make it a la mode.

The folks will be so doggone full they'll think they might explode."

Hank was chomping at the bit but questioned, "Turkey Fries?"

I said, "They're made of turkey. When you see, you'll recognize."

We readied for the banquet, every hour a steady pace.

So, we started with the turkey fries and served them after grace.

The guests ate mashed potatoes with a slice of turkey breast.

But the turkey fries were disappearing faster than the rest.

I heard one farmer chuckle. Said, "I've ate those things before."

But he didn't say another word. Most farmers knew for sure.

The turkey fries were by and large the favorite of the night.

The gals were gobbling down the fries with not an end in sight.

One farmer's wife declared she'd like to have the recipe, and how to cook a turkey fry. She'd even pay a fee.

So, I told the woman what they were.

You should have seen her eyes.

When I said,

"They're turkey testicles just nicknamed turkey fries."

UMW Appoints Dr. Brian Elliott as Division Chair of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences

The University of Montana Western is pleased to announce Dr. Brian Elliott as the next Division Chair of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences.

"I'm looking forward to working with Dr. Elliott as Division Chair of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences and as a member of the Academic Leadership Team at Montana Western. His thoughtful approach to leadership will be a great asset to the university community," said UMW Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, Dr. Johnny MacLean.

Elliott earned a B.S. in Computer Science and English from Muskingum University and his M.A. and Ph.D. in English from Ohio University, where his research focused on nineteenth-century American literature and Transatlantic Romanticism.

Starting at UMW in 2017, Elliott currently serves in the Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences Division at Montana Western as Professor of English and has taught courses in American literature, science fiction and fantasy, graphic novels, experimental narratives, and the Great American Novel. He has also been active in chairing the English Department and General Education Committee. Prior to joining UMW, Elliott was Assistant Professor of English at Urbana University in Ohio, where he also served as Chair of Humanities and Director of the William G. Edwards Honors Program.

Elliott's recent publications include two peer-reviewed articles on Herman Melville: "I could not bear to look": The Just-World Hypothesis in Melville's 'The Piazza'" in the interdisciplinary journal Soundings and "Starbuck's Train and Melville's Trolley: 'The Musket' as Thought Problem in Moby-Dick" in the College English Association's CEA Critic. Additionally, Elliott has most recently presented work on acts of reciprocity and revenge in Catharine Maria Sedgwick's Hope Leslie at the American Literature Association symposium on the historical imagination, and he is in the early stages of a new research project exploring the role of lying and deceit in early American fiction.

"I'm excited for this opportunity to help the faculty and students of UMW advance their academic goals, both in the Division of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences and for the university as a whole."

Dr. Elliott started the duties of his new position at Montana Western on January 1, 2024.

Momberg Records Career High in Frontier Opening Win Over Skylights

The Montana Western women's basketball team (9-5) opened up Frontier Conference play with a victory over the MSU-Northern Skylights by a final score of 60-48.

Joellnell Momberg was money from the three-point line as she hit four threes on her way to a career high 22 points in the win. She went nine of 17 from the field and added five rebounds to the team total of 45. Montana Western got out to an impressive start after their defense held the Skylights to one for 14 from the field and a 15-2 lead heading into the second frame.

MSU-Northern got back on track and ran on a three-minute 6-0 scoring run to start the second quarter. With a 22-16 lead heading into the third quarter, Jordan Sweeney found her rhythm and knocked down 11 points with three triples to send the Bulldogs into the fourth up 44-31. Momberg and Sweeney combined for 13 points for a Bulldog 60-48 victory.

Veteran's Corner. Update #236

By Mike Lawson

Greeting to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. With 2024 being an election year, I'm hoping people will respect each other, no matter what their political affiliations may be. We're all Americans and have the best form of government in the world. Some would say it isn't and is outdated, but I disagree. We have the vote and this year we will again pick who we want to represent us.

On a more somber note:

Covid is really hitting a lot of Montana people, so think about using safe protocols when around others. I got a vaccine about a month ago and didn't get it when folks around me did. If you haven't gotten a Covid vaccine yet, you might consider it. We've had some deaths of Veterans and others, lately. It's always sad and relatives/friends are especially hard hit during the Holiday Season. Being the Coordinator for our TFT's Campaign, these last 11 years, has been very gratifying, but it's been a partnership with the volunteers who help do the work. My Assistant Coordinator, Shirlee Boitnott, has been with me that entire time and is a tireless worker and is a key part of our success in getting toys to the needy kids at Christmas. It was a shock when she had a stroke with two blood clots, last week. She is now stable and at St Vincent's hospital in Billings. It will take some serious rehabilitation for her recovery. I would ask for thoughts and prayers for her.

Veteran News:

- The construction projects on both the VA Medical Center CBOC and the SW MT Veteran's Home, will see completion dates this year. This will make a big positive difference for veteran's care in Southwest Montana. There will be a continued push to get Cottage #6 funded and one day built.

- The Butte National Guard should be moving into their new facilities, located in the Industrial Park at Silver Bow, Mt., later this year. It's a great looking location and they'll have much more room to operate in.

- The military active personal will get the largest pay raise in 2 decades of 5.2% in 2024. Veterans on disability will get a

- 3.2 % raise. With the cost of living having gone up significantly, in the last 5 years, this will be well received by active-duty troops and veterans.

In closing, I wish each and everyone of you a happy and prosperous 2024 New Year. Lets think positive and treat one another with dignity and respect.

Beaverhead S&R News
Submitted by: Mel Rice, Public Relations Officer
The January Search and Rescue meeting was called to order by commander Lawrence Morrisroe at 7:08 PM. The first order of business was the explanation of training opportunities coming up in the month of January. There will be wilderness training on 12, 13, 14, and 15 of January. Then there will be avalanche training on the 27th of January.

The next order of business was a report by Tara Remely on the annual fish derby. Because of the warm winter and open water on Clark Canyon Reservoir it has been questionable whether it would even happen. But now that there have been colder temperatures, reports are that the ice has thickened to about 10 inches everywhere. And with cold weather this week, ice should continue to build and not be an issue for holding the Stan Shafer Memorial Ice Fishing Derby. The Derby will be January 14th at Clark Canyon Reservoir. You must have a ticket to participate. Tickets can be purchased from S&R members and around town at various businesses. There will be members selling tickets at each grocery store at various times during the days this week.

The derby will have two tagged fish in the lake. One of tags is worth $6000.00 and second is worth $9000.00. There is a four way spit of $750.00 by weight of the top 4 trout, and a four way split of $750.00 by weight of the top 4 burbot (ling). There is also a kids' competition for youngsters 12 years of age and younger. This contest is for the top 3 trout by weight and top 3 ling by weight. In the kids' contest, first place in each category will pay $75.00, second place in each will pay $50.00, and third place in each will pay $25.00. There will also be 50/50 pot splits for every $500.00 worth of tickets sold, door prizes donated by local merchants, and a $150.00 cash prize. You don't have to be present to win the door prizes or the $150.00 prize. Come join us for a great day of fishing and comradery January 14th at Clark Canyon.

The final order of business for the night was the election of officers for 2024. The following individuals were dually elected by the membership.

- ☐ Commander- Kolby Malesich
- ☐ Vice Commander- Shane Puyear
- ☐ Secretary- Jamie Trivette
- ☐ Treasurer- Brian Vinson

When you see these individuals out and about, please thank them for their dedication and service to your Beaverhead Search and Rescue. It is a big job.

The meeting adjourned at 7:55 PM. The unit would like to remind everyone to please be careful out there. Even though the weather has been mild it can change in a hurry. Don't get caught with your pants down when just a little preparation and time could have prevented your needing situation. "In the Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

Bulldogs Win Overtime Thriller Over MSU-Northern

The Montana Western men's basketball team (8-6) opened up Frontier Conference play in memorable fashion with an overtime 85-84 victory over the MSU-Northern Lights.

Abi Adedo played a key role in the win after he posted a career high of 30 points and had a team high of eight rebounds.

How It Happened

MSU-Northern got the jump early on the Bulldogs, getting up to an 18-11 lead following seven from guard Zackry Martinez with 12:10 remaining in the first half.

UMW's Kayden Toldson hit a jumper that got momentum on the side of the Bulldogs to spark a 12-5 run. Down one, Light's guard Dae'Kwon Watson converted on a four-point play opportunity to steal momentum back. The Lights continued on to take a 48-40 lead into the half.

Stepney and Adedo hit on back-to-back shots that got UMW back within two of the Lights with 17:40 on the clock.

UMW caught fire late in the game, holding the Lights to just six points through the final seven minutes of the matchup. The Bulldogs racked up 18 points and capped regulation with a three-pointer from Michael Haverfield to send the Bulldogs into overtime with the Lights tied up at 78. UMW held the Lights in the final seconds and took their first conference win by a final score of 85-84.
