Roberta Jo "Bobbie" Dawson

January 2, 1951 — December 27, 2023

Roberta Jo "Bobbie" Dawson died on December 27, 2023. Bobbie was born to Steven and Margery Manley on January 02, 1951. She was the second child born to the pair and eventually had four younger siblings. She graduated from Butte High School in 1969. Bobbie was married in 1971 to Charles Dawson and gave birth to her daughter Vonnie, in 1972, before the couple separated in 1973. Around the same time, Bobbie began working as a Home Maker for Francis Joseph and his family. She became a mother-figure to his three children while also raising her own daughter. Bobbie returned to school in 1992 and received an Associate of Applied Science Degree from Montana Tech allowing her to work for AFLCIO as an Administrative Assistant for several years. Even after all the children had left the house, Bobbie remained with Francis and the two forged a strong companionship until his death in 2021.

In her free time, Bobbie excelled at ceramics, gardening, knitting, crafts, and just about any other hobby that required time and finesse. She was also known for her skills in the kitchen and her ability to throw anything together and make it taste gourmet. She learned much about Lebanese food from the Joseph family and became one of the best chefs of Lebanese cuisine in the family. Bobbie also loved collecting antiques and was proud of her extensive camel collection.

Bobbie was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Diane Fawcett and Macy Nicholson; nephew, JD Fawcett; and long-time companion, Francis Joseph.

She is survived by her daughter Vonnie Williams; Grandchildren, Keegan (Amber), Jaron, Ethan, and Ava Williams; great-grandson, Reagan; siblings, Sheila (Roger) Hanson, Lori Robison, and Steve Manley; several nieces and nephews; and honorary family and caregivers, Tammie, Frank (Sherrie and Family), Bonnie (and Family) Joseph.

In lieu of flowers, the family request donations be made in Bobbies honor to the Chelsea Bailey Animal Shelter.

Per her wishes, there will be no public services. A private service will be held in the spring.

Montana WILD welcomed record numbers of visitors in 2023

From the outside, Montana WILD looks like a quiet place, but inside staff and visitors are bustling with exploration and hands-on adventures.

2023 was one of the busiest years yet for Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' education center on the west side of Helena. Take a look at some of the numbers:

- 17,000 drop-in visitors to the exhibit hall
- 5,500 students attending virtual field trips
- 4,200 students with 119 school groups at the center for field trips
- 2,700 participants in 57 public programs, including bat walks and bird-banding stations

During 2023, Montana WILD updated its exhibit hall and offered new programs including telemetry, nature journaling, bear safety and wildlife yoga, which introduced young learners not only to animal biology and ecology but also to basic yoga poses.

"We strive to keep things new and exciting for our visitors," said Montana WILD Program Manager Corie Bowditch.

FWP also offered new programming for school groups. Students not only learned about the Endangered Species Act, with a specific focus on the black-footed ferret, but also participated in programs focused on population ecology and the anatomy and physiology of mammals using skulls. Montana WILD's transportation grant allowed students to come from as far away as Malta and Eureka for a day of conservation education.

In 2024, Montana WILD hopes to expand its programming even more with the addition of an AmeriCorps member.

"We got to work with some amazing teachers and students last year," Bowditch said. "We look forward to collaborating more with our partner organizations and providing more opportunities to come to Montana WILD to learn and explore with us each day."

For more information and to see upcoming events at Montana WILD, go to fwp.mt.gov/education/montana-wild.

Veteran's Corner Update #237
 By Mike Lawson

Greeting to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. The holidays are over for most of us and the football playoffs are in full swing. The final result will be the Super Bowl in February, which is a big celebration all on it's own. More people watch this game, around the world, then any other televised event during the year. The next national event to come along, is Valentine's Day, that is special for couples, married or not, as well as people of all ages. The next special day, especially in Butte, is St. Patrick's Day with the shamrocks, corned beef and cabbage, green beer, and the list goes on. The reason I mention these days is that winter here in Montana, from January to the end of March, can be long and cold, with dark days that are depressing. These special days bring a bit of relief and a reason to plan for them to enjoy, when they arrive.

It's Sunday night as I write this column and the Grizzlies had a heart breaking loss in their Championship game against South Dakota. They had a great year and accomplished a lot for all of Montana to be proud of. Hopefully they or the Bobcats will reach this level again next year. On another subject; even though our weather has been unseasonable warm, with little or no snow, depending what part of SW MT your in, it has been a boom for the contractors building housing and commercial buildings. It's amazing to see it going on in just about everyone of our communities in SW MT. I see the homeless and feel for them and know it's not my place to judge them, especially the children. There needs to be more safe places, to give them shelter that's out of the cold elements that we live in, this time of year. The Rescue Mission is overwhelmed and struggle with many who use drugs. It's not easy, but they do have spaces for mothers and their children to have shelter. The fathers have to be apart, in another area, from them at night. Other agencies like Volunteers of America, Action Ink, etc. are all trying to address the homeless in our communities. On the Veteran side, the VA at Fort Harrison has a Homeless Veteran's Office and have taken many of these Veterans off the street. They provide housing/food, counseling, training/schooling, etc. with the purpose of getting these Vets to the point that they can enter society and support themselves with social and physical skills. If you know a homeless Veteran, encourage them to go to Fort

Veteran News Updates:

- We lost our Veteran Trustee for the SW MT Veteran's Home, from Beaverhead County. (Skip) Harry Bybee was an Army Vietnam Veteran and was of Crow Indian heritage. He was an active member the VFW and American Legion Veteran Organizations in Dillon. His cadence counting in the Crow language, in some of Dillons parades, was attention getting and enjoyed. He was also a mentor for the Native American Challenge Program Cadets located in Dillon. He was a good man and veteran who will be missed. Hand Salute! Skip.
- Many of our Veteran Organizations will start meeting again this month, after taking December off for the holidays. If your a member of any of these Vet Organizations, please show up for the next meeting as we're only as strong as our membership. Our motto "we continue to serve" is very true and helps our communities where we live, as well as many other causes. It's always gratifying to know we helped make a difference in someone's life or in a cause that made a difference in where we live.
- Our sister military Veterans VA Healthcare has gotten better and better on many fronts. Having two daughters who served in the Air Force and are both enrolled in the VA Health Care System, I am encouraged when they tell me about the good care their getting. One statement that the VA has expressed is "You belong at the VA, where you have options for how you receive your care." "Safe settings and trusted care for women Veterans." If your a woman Veteran and are not in the VA Health Care System, I would encourage you to check it out. (1-800-VA-WOMEN)

I'll close for now, drive safe on our slippery snow/icy roads.

Until next time, take care.
