Wood Carvings at Tendoy Fine Art

The expressive wood carvings by Louis Lorengo will be featured at Tendoy Fine Art beginning January 23rd. Lorengo passed away in 2007 and recently, his wife, Billie, in December 2023. Their children brought his whimsical carvings to Tendoy to display and offer for sale. "We would like to find new homes for Louie's passion. We hope they will be passed on as we are doing." Certainly, these charming examples of Western Americana will be treasures to be kept in families.

Lorengo was an accomplished woodworker. His efforts included building decks, cabinet making, constructing clock cases, and what he called whittling. Hobos, lazy dogs, raccoons, and cowboys are all featured in an impressive array of figures and critters. With a gentle sense of humor, Lorengo embraces a Rockwellian world of characters and animals that speak to a less complex time, one that makes viewers of his work smile. Carved in wood and then painted, these pieces invite his audience to participate in the tales they invoke.

Dillon Rotary Press Release:

Dr. Michelle L. Anderson, Professor of Ecology, at UMW, will be the guest speaker at the Dillon Rotary meeting on Wednesday, January 24th, at noon. Michelle and students will update members on undergraduate research activities in the Biology Dept at UMW. Anyone interested in learning more about this topic and the Rotary organization are all invited to be our guest and attend our luncheon. The Rotary Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, located at 203 East Glendale Street. For more information about the Rotary Club, contact Gary, 406-683-2552.

Montana Western & Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series Present "Almost, Maine"

The University of Montana Western's Theatre Department is pleased to present "Almost, Maine" to be performed January 29-31 as part of the 2023-24 Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series.

Welcome to Almost, Maine, a place that's so far north, it's almost not in the United States. It's almost in Canada. And it's not quite a town, because its residents never got around to getting organized. So it almost doesn't exist. One cold, clear, winter night, as the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, the residents of Almost, Maine, find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and hilarious ways. Knees are bruised. Hearts are broken. But the bruises heal, and the hearts mend—almost—in this delightful midwinter night's dream.

Performances will be held at the University of Montana Western's Small Auditorium located on the third floor of Main Hall. Evening shows will begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday with matinee shows available at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Written by John Cariani and directed by Stephen Alan Seder, this performance features students from UMW's "Introduction to Acting" course and guest artist Christina Scruggs. Scruggs is a former cast member of the Virginia City Players and Brewery Follies.

To purchase tickets, please visit the BOC Performing Arts Series Box Office webpage (www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/box-office/). Tickets are $15 for general admission, $10 for senior, youth, and military, and free for UMW students who present their Bulldog Cards. This performance is recommended for audience members ages 13 and older.

For more information on the BOC Performing Arts Series, visit www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/ or contact Adjunct Assistant Professor of Theatre, Stephen Seder : stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038.

Meet Chief JW Hopper

JW was born and raised in Dillon, MT where he decided he wanted to become a volunteer firefighter to help others in need and serve his community. He served with Dillon Volunteer Fire Department and also Beaverhead County Search and Rescue before moving to Laurel.

In his 16 years with LVFD, JW says his favorite part is being part of a department that was established in 1909 and has continued to serve the community well over the years.

JW moved to Laurel in 2005 and lives with his wife and 3 step children. He enjoys the outdoors and helping others. When he's not serving the community he works as the Safety

Manager for Sibanye Stillwater Mine.

Thank you JW, for being part of our department and serving our wonderful community. We appreciate your service!

Commission to consider amendments on upland game bird, black bear regulations

The Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission will consider two amendments to the proposed 2024 Upland Game Bird Regulations and one to the Black Bear Regulations when it meets Feb. 16.

The proposed 2024 Upland Game Bird Regulations are currently out for public comment. The two amendments would adjust the regulations for nonresident bird hunters.

The first amendment would move the upland game bird season start date from Sept. 1 to Sept. 15 for nonresidents. The second amendment would adjust the bird dog training season start date for nonresidents from Aug. 15 to Sept. 1.

The commission will also consider an amendment from Commissioner Brian Cebull that would adjust statewide black bear regulations.

The amendment would have the spring season end June 15, subject to already established quotas. The amendment would set the season in Bear Management Unit (BMU) 520 to May 1 to June 15. It would also set a female bear quota of 11 in the fall and 12 in the spring for BMU 580. The amendment would also establish that "any BMU without a quota or sub-quota ... would close with regular public notice after May 31 if the cumulative harvest exceeds 37 percent of female bears."

Cebull's amendment would also expand the pilot project in FWP Region 1 that allowed hunters to submit two extracted molars rather than presenting head and carcass to FWP. This would expand to FWP regions 2, 3, and 4.

The commission will take comment on the two amendments through Jan. 31. To comment on the amendments, please email FWPComm@mt.gov. Comment on the amendments can also be made during the Feb. 16 commission meeting.

Five Bulldogs Score In Double-Digits
 After a two-game slide, the Bulldog women's basketball team got back in the win column and defeated the Montana Tech Orediggers (10-7, 1-3) by a final score of 75-55.
 Montana Western was hot from the start, hitting 63.3 percent from the field and drained three shots from the arc in the first quarter alone.
 With the Orediggers taking a two-point lead two and a half minutes into the second quarter, Isabella Lund broke the scoreless streak and Jordan Sweeney hit a triple to give UMW the lead once again.
 Oredigger Challis Westwater answered and brought the game back to one point, but the Bulldogs would pull away down the stretch as Western went on a 6-0 run. UMW would take a four-point lead into the break at 30-26.
 Western found their stride in the third quarter, running on to score 28 points in the third and holding the Orediggers to 14. Shainy Mack led the way after she hit three triples in the quarter.
 UMW would take as much as an 18-point lead in the fourth before the Orediggers pushed back. A three from MT's Ally Cleverly sparked a 9-0 run that brought the game back within single digits.
 Despite the scare, Lund's four-point play ended the hope for the Orediggers and UMW closed the game on their own 13-0 run.

Bulldogs Come Up Short In Clash With Orediggers
 The Montana Western men's basketball team (8-9, 1-3) came up just shy of an upset tonight after they played the No. 8 ranked Montana Tech Orediggers (14-3, 4-0) to an 81-76 game.
 Stepney led the Bulldogs with 23 points on the night. He also went a perfect 5-5 from the charity stripe.
 So far this season, Western is 4-7 in games that have been decided by 10 points or less.
 Both teams were neck and neck in shooting, with the Bulldogs taking the slightest edge after they hit 45.8 percent from the field. The Orediggers hit 45.5 percent from the field.
 Western struggled from the charity stripe, hitting just 13 of 20 from the line.
 Stepney led the way with 23 points, hitting four of six from the three-point line. He also added three rebounds and a steal.
 Haverfield and Abi Adedo each hit double-digits in scoring. Haverfield totaled 15 points on four out of nine threes. Adedo added 14 points.
