Beaverhead County Courthouse host 2024 Spelling Bee

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Beaverhead County Courthouse was the place to be on January 24, 2024, as spellers took to the makeshift stage to showcase their spelling capabilities.

Dr Laura Strauss was the pronouncer who would give the kids their word and help them by using it in a sentence if they asked for it.

Jamie Flynn, Dr. Katrina Kennett, and Deborah McCabe would donate their time as judges with Sharon Anderson taking notes of the spelling of the words as secretary.

The first round would see around six students fail to misspell their word. The second round would take out even more competitors as it came to an end. By the third round you would have your top four spellers.

To be crowned the Spelling Bee champion the person would have to spell their first word correctly and the other three would have to misspell their word. After this the person would then have to spell another word correctly.

The third round would see Rayne Kindberg get her first word right while the other three misspelled their word. Rayne would then miss her second word.

In the fourth round Ean Field would spell their first word correctly and the other three contestants missed their word.
Ean would then take on his second word to spell it correctly with the other three spellers being runner ups.

Congratulations Ean on winning the Beaverhead County 2024 Spelling Bee.

Montana Western & Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series Present "The Queerville Murders"

The University of Montana Western's Theatre Department is pleased to present "The Queerville Murders" to be performed every Wednesday throughout the month of February as part of the 2023-24 Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series.

Egad! A gruesome murder has been committed! We know the victim, and there are many suspects to consider, but the culprit remains unknown. Never fear, a queer detective is on the case and they look fabulous. The only catch is, they haven't received a script, and the cast must guide them through each clue as they improvise their way to the truth. Who killed who? And with what weapon! Will our detective discover the truth? Find out in this actor's nightmare that explores passionate love, unrequited desires, and deadly betrayals.

This UMW Drama Club production is mostly improv-based. The characters have a pre-rehearsed murder mystery ready to perform, but the lead detective has no clue what is happening and they have to improv their way through the story to figure out who is the killer.

Performances will be held at the University of Montana Western's Small Auditorium located on the third floor of Main Hall at 7:30 p.m. on February 7, 14, 21, and 28. This production is rated R and recommended for mature audiences.

To purchase tickets, please visit the BOC Performing Arts Series Box Office webpage (www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/box-office/). Tickets are $15 for general admission, $10 for senior and military, and free for UMW students who present their Bulldog Cards.

For more information on the BOC Performing Arts Series, visit www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/ or contact Visiting Assistant Professor of Theatre, Stephen Seder: stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038.

Mary Ann Nicholas announces campaign for Montana House District 70

Today, Mary Ann Nicholas announced her campaign for Montana House District 70. The small business owner looks to be a voice for ag and reduce the tax burden on hard-working Montanans.

"Dillon has been home to my family for over 60 years. This is where my family was raised, where I raised my daughters, and where I lived and worked for most of my adult life. I don't want the best part of Montana to be something we only remember. I will fight to preserve our quality of life," Mary Ann said.

Representative Tom Welch is termed out, leaving the seat open.

Mary Ann's roots in Southwest Montana go deep. She graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1978 and later the University of Montana, earning a BA and a JD, and was admitted to the State Bar of Montana in 1984. She practiced law in natural resources, family, and criminal law, doing pro bono work in the area of family services and for the Women's Resource Center.

"Our state's issues can be solved with common sense conservative solutions. It is our duty to hold the government accountable. My legal background, experience in small business, and ties to agriculture give me an appreciation of the unique challenges we face as rural communities. I will be a voice for ag, individual liberty, lower taxes, and greater prosperity," Mary Ann stated.

Mary Ann has served many years on the University of Montana-Western Foundation Board, volunteered with local 4-H clubs, and currently is a member of Rotary International and serves on the Barrett Hospital Foundation Board.

For more information about Mary Ann and her campaign, please visit www.maryannformontana.com.

Illegal immigrant pleads guilty to Bozeman homicide

A man in the United States illegally faces up to 40 years in prison after pleading guilty to mitigated deliberate homicide for stabbing a man to death in July 2022, Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced today.

Francisco Padilla Canales entered a change of plea in Gallatin County District Court on Friday. He had previously faced charges of deliberate homicide, aggravated kidnapping, tampering with witnesses and information, and aggravated burglary.

After tracking his estranged wife with a GPS device planted on her car and discovering that she and the victim and were in a relationship, Canales attacked the pair, inflicting multiple stab wounds to the victim's chest. The victim succumbed to his injuries shortly after law enforcement arrived on the scene despite Canales attempting CPR after the attack. Canales also coerced his estranged wife into supporting his original statement to Bozeman Police Officers that he had not been responsible for the stabbing, before eventually making a full confession. Law enforcement officers also found three handguns, two rifles, and a shot gun in Canales's vehicle, which he was not legally allowed to possess.

Canales is currently detained on an Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) hold. If he is paroled at any time, he would likely be deported, and barred from receiving legal immigration status into the United States in the future.

Sentencing is set for March 18, 2024, where both the State and the Defense will jointly recommend Canales be sentenced to the Montana State Prison for a total of 40 years, with 10 years suspended. Assistant Attorney General Jordan P. Salo prosecuted the case, which was investigated by the Bozeman Police Department.

Absolute Truth

Modern thinking has seemed to lead to the idea that there is no absolute truth. Without absolute truth, there is no absolute right or wrong, good or bad. This "...leads to religious relativism: everybody can choose which beliefs" they want to follow, and whatever a person believes must be true. [Home Christian Life]

History reveals that where there is no absolute truth there can be no stability. In America we have seen Biblical truth cast aside regarding God, morality, the family unit & the importance of worshipping God. There seems to be a strong correlation to the stability we once enjoyed as a nation and these biblical values.

If there is absolute truth, who determines that truth? Since there are many opinions regarding this subject, how can we determine which one is right? Since it seem obvious from the creation that there is a higher power than man, it seems logical to consult this source rather than various opinions of mere human beings.

Since God created all things, He must know what truth is, therefore this article deals with truth based strictly on the revelation of truth in the scriptures rather than the opinions of men. God doesn't leave room for "opinions" or "alternative facts" regarding truth, who Jesus is, what salvation is, or what doctrines are right.

The most important truths existing are those truths relating to mankind and his eternal destiny. Consider the following four biblical truths.

The first truth is that, in spite of the false idea that "there's a little bit of good in the worst of us," God declares in Jeremiah 17:9 that our "hearts are deceitful & wicked." Romans 3:23 agrees with this by stating that everyone has sinned and fallen short of God's glory.

Truth #2 is that there is a consequence for our basic sinful nature. This is stated in Romans 6:23a, "the wages of sin is death." We know that death brings separation. The death referred to in this reference is eternal, spiritual separation from God. This truth means that not everyone is going to heaven when their life on earth is finished. Other scriptures, which will not appear in this article, record the destiny of unbelievers.

Truth #3 is that God loves mankind and, because He doesn't desire that anyone perish, He proved His love by sending His "only begotten Son, Jesus Christ" to die in our place.

Truth #4 regarding man's eternal destiny at the end of life on earth is this, "...whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved," Romans 10:13.

The absolute truth is that only one sin can keep a person out of heaven and will result condemnation to a fiery eternity. That is the sin not believing in Jesus Christ. "He that believes is not condemned, but he that believes not is already condemned because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

You or your loved one can enjoy the comforts of home in a private, spacious room, have visitors, and breathe easier with peace of mind that comes with a care team that's here for you.
