Kelly R. Hermann

Kelly R. Hermann, authentic mountain man, and long-time Lima, Montana resident, passed away peacefully in the arms of his twin sister, Shelly, on 3 February 2024.

Kelly was born in Logan, Utah on 20 June 1955 to LaRae (Rose) Hermann and Randy Hermann. He joined his three sisters, Cheri, Rene, and twin Shelly.

The family lived in various Western States while Randy worked on High Voltage Line Construction projects. They resided in Pollock Pines, California where Kelly and Shelly attended school until 1965, when they moved to Lima, MT. Kelly was proud to call Lima home for the rest of his life.

Kelly loved the mountains. He was an avid big game hunter, trooper, fisherman, herber and shedhorn hunter. He was known for his uncanny skills and abilities in these endeavors. When he wasn't at work or working on his houses or his yard on his trucks, he was in the mountains surrounding Lima. A life-long bachelor, he loved for his solitude and the time doing what he wanted in the country.

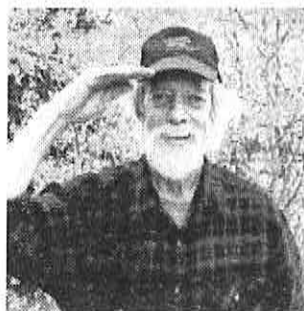

Kelly engaged a good reputation as a hard worker and as someone always ready to help out. For eleven years he worked on the Union Project Sector Maintenance Crew near Lima and Monida. When those positions were eliminated, he joined the Highway Department as a highway maintenance Man. For 23 years, Kelly drove his truck, plowed snow, moved medians, and performed all the then tasks required by this position. He returned in 2013 leaving some great friends and co-workers he met along the way.

Sadly, in 2019, Kelly was diagnosed with severe arrhythmia. With the help of his sisters and friends, he was able to remain in his own home until November of 2023 when he was welcomed at Big Sky Memory Care in Butte. Then after a fall, resulting in a broken hip and the surgery to repair it, he was welcomed at Continental Care in Butte, where he was received as outstanding loving care until his passing.

Kelly is survived by his twin sister Shelly Reap (Craig), his nephew Rocky Pulley (Bobbi). Nieces Shannon Hildreth (Lee) and Tammy Shade and nephews Tom Reap and Rob Reap (Amber), stepbrother John Powers (Sylvia) and brother-in-law Bob Boyd. He has numerous cousins and many more friends.

Kelly was preceded in death by his mother LaRae Powers, father Randy Hermann, stepfather Jim Powers, sister Cheri Pully and Rene Boyd.

The family would like to thank the great care givers at Big Sky Memory Care and Continental Care for their loving care given to Kelly. Also, Honeybee Hospice is to be commended for the assistance given in Kelly's final days.

The Bank Bryce Angell

Yesterday my good friend Johnson called me on the phone.

He said, "I'm running short on cash. Could you spare a little loan?"
My good friend always seemed to be a dollar short or two.

So, I'd put some money in his bank. It's the least that I could do.
A loan to Johnson meant you'd never see your cash again.

But I didn't really mind to help a friend out now and then.
So I shaved, then grabbed an old toothbrush we used for cleaning boots.

And I scrubbed and polished leather. I'd impress those banker suits.
I opened Grandma's bible. Safest place to keep my cash.

Took the five remaining Benjamins to empty out my stash.

My trusty Chevy found the pristine bank and parking lot.

And all too soon this country boy would find, "I don't know squat."
The lady at the counter welcomed me to their new bank.

But she got me all confused. She introduced herself as Hank.
She said her grandpa called her Hank. Each time it made her wince.

Grandpa loved to see her wince. Hank's her nickname ever since.
I smiled and asked, "I'd like to make a deposit here today." She asked,

"How much?" I said, "Five hundred green bills, if I may?"
Her sunny disposition changed. I guess it wouldn't last. She said,

"We can't accept your cash. A policy since passed."
I wrinkled up my nose and said, "My cash ain't good enough?"

She rolled her eyes then lowered her voice two octaves into gruff.
She said, "We'll gladly take a money order from you sir."

By then my head was spinnin'. All my thoughts were just a blur.
She said, "Are you a member?" Once again she seemed polite.

I joked, "My bank's the bunkhouse in a mattress pulled down tight."
Was this cashier even human, all puffed up and full of pride?

She said, "We cannot help you. Would you kindly step aside?"
I sped on down to my own bank, stopped at the coffee bean.

But then my Chevy's appetite was low on gasoline.

So I robbed one of the Benjamins and filled my empty tank.

Then bought a money order and I headed back to Hank.

I've seen many changes in my life and most I do enjoy.

But now and then one agitates this poor old country boy.

CHAMPIONS CROWNED IN ELKS "HOOP SHOOT" STATE COMPETITION

On Saturday February 3, three girls and three boys, ages 8-13, were crowned Champions at the Montana Elks State "Hoop Shoot"® free throw contest, which took place at Park High School in Livingston.

First, second and third place trophies were awarded to each boy and girl in three categories: ages 8-9, 10-11 and 12-13. The contestants who participated at the Montana State Contest were crowned District Champions from the five districts in Montana.

The 30 state finalists journey began in the fall of 2023 where Montana Elks Lodges hosted a Lodge Contest. By winning their Lodge Contest, they advanced to their District Contests where they earned the title District Champion, allowing them to travel to Livingston, MT to compete at the State Contest.

The six state champions will represent Montana in the Regional Semi-Finals in Rapid City, SD on Saturday March 9, 2024. They will compete against the State Champions from North Dakota and South Dakota. The Regional Champions will advance to the National Finals in Chicago, IL, April 20, 2024. The nation winners will have their names digitally inscribed at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, MA.

This program is totally sponsored by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the U.S.A. It is endorsed by hundreds of school systems around the country. The Elks fund the program primarily through its National Foundation and the support of the local lodges and state associations. Travel and lodging expenses for the contestants and their parents are paid by the Elks.

The Elks "Hoop Shoot"®, began as a local program by Corvallis Oregon Elks in 1946, is in its 52nd year of national competition. Over one million boys and girls are expected to participate this year.

Orediggers Shut Down Bulldogs in Face Off

The Montana Western men's basketball team (11-11, 4-5) fell in a conference matchup to the No. 11 ranked Montana Tech Orediggers (18-4, 8-1) by a final score of 81-63.

Despite a late rally that saw the Bulldogs bring the game back within eight points, Montana Tech rode a 48.1 second half shooting percentage to victory.

Michael Haverfield got the Bulldogs rolling early, hitting a pair of threes on the way to a Bulldog lead at 12-9 with 14:05 on the clock.

Riding behind a pair of field goals on back-to-back possessions from Jalyn Stepney, Montana Western took a narrow lead at 20-16. Montana Tech wasted little time in answering, reclaiming the momentum and stretching out to a 34-23 lead following an 18-0 spurt that stretched across six minutes of the half.

Quincy Taylor finally bought a bucket for the Bulldogs, hitting a three from the top of the arc with 4:56 left in the half. It was Taylor once more who made a layup while drawing a foul. His and one cut the game back to 36-26.

Down 50-34 with 16:40 left in the game, the Bulldogs dug deep and used an 8-0 run that was capped by another Taylor and one to bring it back to an eight-point deficit.

Despite the high point, the Orediggers would reclaim the edge and run away with the game. UMW would fall by a final score of 81-63.

Bulldogs Come Up Short Against Orediggers

The Montana Western women's basketball team (12-10, 4-5) fell in a conference matchup to the Montana Tech Orediggers (11-11, 2-7) by a final score of 76-66.

After holding a narrow 52-51 lead heading into the final quarter, the Bulldogs were outscored 25-14 in the final frame as the Orediggers shot 60 percent from the field.

The Orediggers shot above their season average of 33.2 percent as they went 50.9 percent from the field. The Bulldogs struggled behind a below average 37.9 percent from the field.

Sweeney went off, hitting three triples and totaled 22 points on the day. She also added four rebounds, three assists, and a pair of steals.

Mack followed with 14 points, hitting three triples and adding three steals.

Moy totaled seven rebounds and had the Bulldogs' lone block of the game.

Montana to receive $1 million from opioid settlement with multinational marketing firm

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced that Montana will receive over $1 million in a national settlement with Publicis Health to resolve investigations into the global marketing and communications firm's role in the opioid crisis.

In agreeing to the terms of the settlement, Publicis recognized the harm its conduct caused, and the agreement will give communities hit hardest by the opioid crisis more financial support for treatment and recovery, building lasting infrastructure, and saving lives. Montana will receive $1,072,040 of the total $350 million national settlement. The company will also disclose on a public website thousands of internal documents detailing its work for opioid companies like Purdue Pharma and will stop accepting client work related to opioid-based Schedule II or Schedule III controlled substances.

Publicis' work contributed to the crisis by helping Purdue Pharma and other opioid manufacturers market and sell opioids. According to court documents, Publicis acted as Purdue Pharma's agency of record for all its branded opioid drugs, including OxyContin, even developing sales tactics that relied on farming data from recordings of personal health-related in-office conversations between patients and providers. The company was also instrumental in Purdue's decision to market OxyContin to providers on patient's electronic health records.

The opioid epidemic has led to hundreds of prescription overdose deaths in Montana over the last 20 years. These deaths—and the impacts on thousands of Montanans who have struggled with opioid addiction—have created considerable costs for our health care, child welfare, and criminal justice systems. More significant than the dollars and cents in damage to our state, the impact on opioid addition, substance use, and overdose deaths have torn families apart, damaged relationships, and devastated communities.

Since taking office, Attorney General Knudsen has been taking action to hold pharmaceutical companies accountable for fueling the opioid crisis that is wreaking havoc on Montana communities. In 2022, he announced an $80 million settlement for Montana from the nation's three major pharmaceutical distributors.
