Robert Marcus "Mark" Oehling, 82

Robert "Mark" Oehling, 82, of Dillon, went peacefully on February 11, 2024.

Born January 31, 1942
to William "Bill" and Anna (Stauduhar) Oehling at the family farm house in Nova, OH. Mark was one of four children. Mark despised his first name of Robert, and always went by Mark, and I bet many who are reading this are surprised. He became the top basketball player at Ruggles-Troy High School in which he held multiple school and state records for many years. He married Beverly Oehling in 1963 (divorced 1992) and they had two children, Scott and Randy. Mark and Bev remained very close friends throughout their lives. After completing his trade school degree in Tool and Die, he uprooted the family from Ohio in 1974 and moved to Dillon, Montana; where his grandfather, Marcus Stauduhar, had homesteaded in Birch Creek decades before.

Becoming the manager of Sneed's sporting goods, he became well known for his knowledge of hunting and fishing.
Hunting and fishing were a huge passion in his life. For over 30 years, he hunted the Lima Peaks on horses every opening week of general hunting season. His love of hunting on horseback made him well known for his knowledge of pack animals and chasing elk. Every moment he could, he took his family out camping and exploring Beaverhead County in his beloved 1974 Ford F250, Ol' Blue.

Mark went into business, on his own, fixing and repairing small engines for the people of Dillon. A true genius at anything mechanical, especially small engines, everyone knew they could take it to Mark to get it fixed. He later went from small engines, to automotive repair and body work, then to own Mark's Fast Lube. After the famous Fast Lube fire of 2000, Mark turned his talents to making barnwood frames.

In 1992, a trailer home of caught fire behind his Mini Lube near the Lion's Den. Without hesitation, he jumped down the 8-foot retaining wall, busted the door into the smoke and fire filled trailer home, went straight to Josh's room and took Josh to safety just as the inferno engulfed the trailer home. He received the Kiwanis International Robert P. Connolly Medal of heroism that year for risking his own life without any fear for his own safety.

Mark became Dillon's premier barnwood frame maker and had quite the talent for exquisite one-of-a-kind barnwood frames. Hundreds were donated throughout the years to the RMEF, Ducks Unlimited, and personal auctions for those in need. His interest and desire of community service started with him joining the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department in 1974 for 26 years. He was an Exalted Ruler at the Elks Lodge 1554, Kiwanis member, Masonic Lodge member, competitive bowler and a phenomenal softball player (slow and fast pitch). You never wanted to be on first base when he was batting. If it was not a home run, then you got a screamer of a ball hit towards you.

Christmas was his favorite time of year right after hunting season. Mark played Santa for many years for the town of Dillon, many business parties, and homes of family and friends in the community. He was famous for the outlandish light decorations outside his home during the holiday seasons. Mayor Warner even proclaimed a day for Mark as "Mr. Christmas Day".

Even though Mark was Dillon's grumpiest old man, he had the largest golden heart filled with pudding. Mark complained and was grumpier than a badger with a bad tooth ache, but there was a softer side for anyone in need. He would do anything for anyone, give his own shirt off his back if you needed it. There was a time he removed his wife's engine from her car to replace a traveling family's car engine that blew up two days before Thanksgiving. He replaced the engine in under a day so the family would make it to Boise for Thanksgiving. He was best known among his family and friends to "Oehling-Rig" stuff that had broken. Duct tape, baling wire, screw driver, hammer or even a rock, he could fix anything. If something was broken, he could fix it, no matter what it was.

Mark was a great father. Sadly, he lost his oldest son, Scott (8), in 1974 from a freak playground accident at Parkview Elementary School in which he never rebounded from. He put his whole heart and soul into his son, Randy, and taught him everything he could about carpentry, mechanical, hunting, fishing, and life in-general.

Mark was preceded in death by his parents William

"Bill" and Anna (Stauduhar) Oehling; sister Betty Oehling; and son Scott Oehling. He is survived by his son, Randy (Tracy) Oehling of Knoxville, TN/Dillon, Mt; Grandchildren Ryan Oehling and Heather (DJ) Hart and one great-granddaughter Morgan; brothers David (Shirley) Oehling of Ashland, Ohio and Ross (Barbara) Oehling of Red Haw, Ohio.

A celebration of his life, to joke and laugh of Mark's antics will be held at Mac's Last Cast sometime in June, 2024. There will be an announcement near the date and time.

In lieu of flowers or cards, just go and help someone who is in real need. At Christmas time, decorate the outside of your home with tons of lights and crazy decorations. Go hunting and fishing and make up big lies and exaggerate everything that happened.

Hamburgers, Fries and Guilt

Bryce Angell

Get ready and listen 'cuz I'm about to tell you the story of my ride from my humble home to Idaho Falls. The travel time is about 90 minutes, give or take 30 minutes depending who is driving, me or my wife. Truth is, my wife likes being behind the wheel so usually gets the honors.

We have grandkids over that way so we make the trip often. And what's a trip to town without going to Scotty's Drive In? Scotty's ain't just burgers and fries, they are the staff of life, I'm telling ya.

So, after being dumped on by a foot and a half of snow, and pushing and piling from hell to breakfast, I decided a trip to Scotty's was in order. It is a long way just for a hamburger but I'm retired so what the heck.

Sadly enough, my wife was, I call, trapped in the clutches of the sniffles. Her doctor called it pneumonia. It didn't take me long to figure I'd be the one driving. Acting reluctant, I left her, promising to bring back a delicious burger and fries.

I combed my hair with a wash rag, put on my Cabela's hat, pointed my Chevy truck in the direction of Scotty's and headed out. I made a quick stop at Elk Creek Station for a jolt of Red Bull and a large bag of peanut clusters. Essentials for any journey. Those two items were also on the Staff of Life list.

This day was to be my moment of solitude.

I immediately turned on SiriusXM with its 200 stations. I tuned into Radio Classics and was absorbed in the tale of Jimmy Stewart's, "The Six Shooter." After half an hour of gunfighting suspense, I noticed I was passing my hometown where I graduated 53 years ago.

I thought it might be fun to take the drive through memory lane on the route we called, back then, "Dragging main." While dragging main, we would listen to the radio station KOMA Oklahoma City. Even though the station was 1200 miles away, it boomed in clear as a bell at night.

KOMA was so popular at our school, and the surrounding schools, we decided to advertise our Ag Ball through that radio station alone. I still remember the KOMA DJ hollering out the upcoming Ag Ball in St. Anthony, Idaho. What a thrill to hear our small town being advertised over the radio waves. The advertising was a huge success. Many students showed up from other schools for our Ag Ball.

Consumed with memories, I found my way back to the road and drove to Scotty's for the "staff of life." With a belly full of nostalgia and Scotty's hamburger, I headed home. Funny. Something was not sitting right.

As I walked through the front door, I noticed my wife was up and looking as spry as a brand new colt. I tried to play it cool bragging about my adventurous day. And then she said, "The thought of your sweet gesture bringing home delicious Scotty's hamburger and fries inspired me to get out of bed." Her words hit me like a truck full of smoldering manure that had been sitting in the July sun for a month. With horrible guilt all I could say was, "I'll be back in three hours."

Sweeney's 22 Points Leads Bulldogs Past RV Rocky Mountain

The Montana Western women's basketball team defeated the RV Rocky Mountain College Battlin' Bears by a final score of 66-60.

Jordan Sweeney led the Bulldogs with an impressive 22 points, four rebounds, and four steals in the game. Her four steals is just one shy of her season high of five in a game.

Thomas Earns National Qualifying Mark, Multiple PRs Highlight Meet

The Montana Western track & field team traveled to Montana State University. The meet saw six Bulldogs competing.

Isaiah Thomas made his college track and field debut and did so in exciting fashion. He finished second in the men's final for the 60m dash. His mark hits the B standard and he qualifies for the NAIA Indoor National Championship to be held later this month.

Results: Malia Cox, Justene Santi and Olivia Heiner represented the Bulldog women in various events. Cox competed in both the women's long jump and the women's 200m race.

Heiner competed in both the women's 800m race and the women's mile. In the 800m, she placed 6th also had 8th in the women's mile.

Santi competed in the women's 800m race and the women's mile. In the 800m, she finished 7th place and in the mile she finished 9th.

On the men's side, there were numerous personal records that were broken in the meet. Isaiah Thomas set personal records in both the 60m dash and the 200m dash. After taking the top spot in his first heat of the 60m dash with a time of 6.88, Thomas placed second in the event final with a 6.84. His mark qualifies him for the Indoor National Championships, a first in his career. Thomas also recorded a personal record in the 200m after he placed third in the field of 15 after recording a 23.22.

Brant Heiner broke his indoor record in the men's mile race. He recorded a 4:49.16 and placed sixth. Heiner also raced in the men's 800m and finished ninth with a 2:18.15.

Brody Henry and Drake Delude rounded out the Bulldogs in the meet. Delude competed in the men's 400m race, taking 7th. Henry competed in both the men's 800m race and the men's mile. He finished 7th in the 800m and finished 9th in the mile.

Fiddle Contest at the UM-Western Campus

The 41st Annual Dillon Fiddle Contest will be held at the Lewis and Clark Room on the UM-Western campus February 17th and 18th. The public is invited to enjoy the contest which begins at 9:00 am both Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday evening, contestants will entertain beginning at 7:00 pm. There will be a nominal charge of $5 to attend the evening variety show. There is no charge to listen to the contest.

Contestants of all ages are expected from Montana and Idaho as well as Washington and possibly Oregon. The judges this year are former contestants and prize winners of the Dillon Fiddle Contest and both are nationally recognized champions. JayDean Ludiker from Spokane, Washington, was one of the earliest judges in the early years of the contest and has come back often to compete in the contest. Known as an outstanding fiddle instructor, JayDean has taught both children and adult fiddlers throughout the Northwest. She has published several instructional books. Shelby Rae Murdock also comes with a prize-winning reputation at the Dillon Contest and nationally. She is a fiddle teacher who has her own school and has worked in the public school system. She has been playing the violin, fiddle, guitar, and mandolin since she was 12 years old and has studied with some of the music world's best. She has been an instructor at the Montana Fiddle Camp at Monarch, as has JayDean Ludiker.

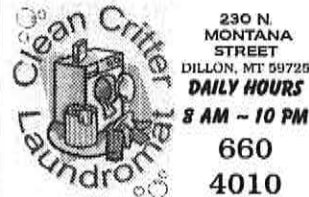

Many current and former Dillon Junior Fiddlers will be competing in the contest this year. Events include a raffle and silent auction to help with contest costs. The local fiddlers would like to thank all the local businesses who are helping to sponsor the contest.
