For those that need to know: Brenda Womack has Womack's Printing & Dillonite Daily. She (I) have other rental and investment property. I have sold one of those properties. That has nothing to do with Womack's Printing and the printing business is not closing. Regina, Rachel and Betty are all still here working from 7:30 - 5:30 Monday - Friday. I - am here when I am not with my grand baby or on vacation! Oh, and I have bought another building - guess which one. Brenda

2024-25 FAFSA Tips and Guidance

The University of Montana Western Financial Aid Department would like to share helpful tips and information with the community on submitting the 2024-25 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Colleges and career schools use the FAFSA form to determine how much financial aid incoming and returning college students are eligible to receive each academic year.

Due to the recent changes by the Department of Education to the FAFSA form, please find below some helpful information regarding the 2024-25 application and award notification timeline.

FAFSA Results for Colleges ~ Colleges and universities will not receive FAFSA results from the Department of Education until the first half of March. Consequently, there will be a delay in award notifications to students and families. It's advisable to check the website of your college choice for expected processing dates. Colleges will receive thousands of FAFSA results at once, leading to a peak processing time and longer wait times for award notifications. Additionally, colleges are implementing updates to federal and institutional software in response to FAFSA changes starting in 2024-2025.

FAFSA Submission Tips ~ Students should complete and submit the FAFSA as early as possible. Although the Department of Education will receive your FAFSA, eligibility processing and result submission to families and colleges will not occur until the first half of March 2024. Keep in mind that corrections cannot be made until you receive the FAFSA Submission Summary (FSS) in March 2024.

Colleges will also receive results known as Institutional Student Information Records (ISIR) at the same time. Financial aid offices will diligently work through these ISIRs once received. Regularly check your emails for notifications from your college's financial aid office, as this is the primary mode of communication.

Submit official transcripts from your high school and any colleges attended (including dual high school enrollment) to your college's admissions office as soon as possible to avoid delays in financial aid processing. For more information from the Department of Education, visit: https://fsapartners.ed.gov/knowledge-center/library/electronic-announcements/2024-01-30/2024-25-fafsa-student-aid-index-update-and-timeline-updated-feb-9-2024.

If you have questions or need FAFSA completion assistance, regardless of where you plan to attend college, please feel free to stop by the Financial Aid Office on the UMW campus, call 406-683-7511, or email finaid@umwestern.edu and we would be glad to assist you.

Veteran's Corner. Update #242

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. This past week saw me driving the DAV Vans to Missoula and Ft Harrison in Helena, to get some vets to their medical appointments.

Politics seem to be the spotlight in our every day news, this early in the year. On the Veteran Organization side of things, politics have to be left at the door because we veterans are from different political persuasions. We served in peacetime and in combat, side by side, we watched each others backs and in combat we saw our veteran friends/buddies get killed and wounded, myself included. The relationships were/are close and some of them continue for a life time. Many of us have joined Veteran Organizations that help us continue to serve veterans and our communities, no matter our political affiliations. Outside of these Vet groups, we as veterans make our own political choices as individuals representing ourselves and sometimes we even see veterans run for political offices. As an individual, apart from any Veteran organization I belong too, Many families have members who differ in their political beliefs, but are still close as a family. That is the way America has been and hopefully will continue to be.

Veteran News Updates:

- On March 2nd, from 6:30 pm to 9:00 pm, on Saturday, a Veterans Pottery Class is going to begin at the "Hungry Hill Center for Art" located at 14 South Dakota St. (I/2 Block down from Park St). It will be taught by Mike Kujawa and Katie West. Mike is a Vietnam Marine Veteran and a retired High-school teacher who taught pottery at Butte High-school for many years and has his own pottery studio with his son, Mike Jr.. Katie West works at the VA CBOC and has a MA, ATR, LCPC.. They developed this program for Veterans and say the benefits are: 1) Art Therapy 2) Veteran Community Connections 3) Develop Better Coping Skills 4) Cultivate Creativity. Working with your hands and making a neat pottery creation is fun and very satisfying. These classes will be on Saturdays and scholarships are available. If you think you would like to check it out, please call either Mike Kujawa or Katie West at 406-498-4079.
- The Montana VA Recognizes Hospitalized Veterans Durning National Salute To Veteran Patients Week, which is this week, from Feb. 11-17. More than 9 million Veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces are cared for each day in VA medical facilities, out patient clinics, domiciliary sites, and community living centers. This program was started in 1978 by the VA and has always been durning the week of Valentine's Day, a day of caring and sharing which underscores the Salute's expression of honor and appreciation to hospitalized and out patient veterans.
