Bulldog Men Advance to Frontier Tournament Semifinal After Win Over Lights

The Montana Western men's basketball team (14-15, 6-9) put up a strong defensive front and downed the MSU-Northern Lights by a final score of 63-45.

The Bulldogs held the Lights to just 13 points in the second half and an 18.5 shooting percentage from the field.

Abi Adedo got the Bulldogs on the board first right from the start of the game. Despite the early score, UMW was slow to get back in motion. MSU-Northern's offense propelled them forward to take an 11-4 lead in the first five minutes of the game.

The second half saw the Bulldogs put together a strong defensive front and hold the Lights from the start.

MSU-N held their final lead of the game with 15:16 on the clock. Jalyn Stepney connected on a jumper and Christian Pitcher followed with a layup to flip the lead back in favor of the Bulldogs.

The Lights hit their final bucket of the game with 7:43 left on the clock and the Bulldogs ran away with the game following a 16-0 run to cap the game on top 63-45.

Bulldogs Fall in Frontier Semifinal After Gritty Battle With No. 8 Orediggers

The Montana Western men's basketball team (14-16, 6-9) battled with the No. 8 ranked Montana Tech Orediggers to the final buzzer, falling by a final score of 83-82.

UMW put up one of their strongest second halves this season, outscoring the Orediggers 49-42 in the second frame. Despite the advantage, the Orediggers utilized an 18-6 scoring advantage at the end of the first half to take an early edge.

Western jumped out to an early lead, riding behind back-to-back threes from Michael Haverfield and Jalyn Stepney to take an early 12-6 lead in the first five minutes of the matchup.

Quincy Taylor's triple with 10 minutes on the clock pushed the Bulldog lead to 18-13. Montana Tech answered, finding success behind a pair of threes to take the lead at 23-18. Haverfield capped a short 9-0 run with six minutes to play to bring the score back to 27-23. Despite the lead, momentum shifted and the Orediggers were able to force four Bulldogs turnovers and outscore Western 18-6 down the stretch to take a 41-33 lead at the half.

Jacob Ankeny and Kevin Bethel combined for 10 in a 16-1 run that flipped the lead back in favor of the Bulldogs.
