UMW Hosts "Night of Stars" Education Hall of Fame

The University of Montana Western's Education
Department and Alumni office, in partnership with Stockman Bank, present the 11th Annual Night of Stars Education Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony on Saturday, April 20, 2024.

The evening will begin with the induction ceremony at 6:00 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium, followed by a post-ceremony reception with drinks and hors d'oeuvres at 8:00 p.m. in the Lewis and Clark Room, located in Mathews Hall.

The celebration will induct five Montana Western alumni into the Education Hall of Fame in recognition of their phenomenal dedication to education and will honor twelve current education students as Outstanding Teacher Candidates.
This year's class of inductees include: Percy Craddock, Cindy Farmer, Mark Clark, Patricia Haynes Gibson, and Jackie Sproul Taylor.

The Outstanding Teacher Candidates include: Alexis
Cannon, Kailynn Field, Jordan Sweeney, Pralie Duffin, Riley
Henderson, John Gamble, Ruby Stenberg, Leona Colvin, Loran Murphy, Bailey Schuchard, and Garret Yeager. UMW
Professor of Education, Dr. Laura Straus, will be presented with the William C. Bagley Education Faculty Award for her service and leadership to the Education Division.

Admission to the Night of Stars induction ceremony is complimentary. Tickets for the reception can be purchased by contacting Kelly Allen at 406-683-7306 or online by visiting tinyurl.com/NightofStars2024. For additional information, please contact UMW Alumni Coordinator, Jolene Robbins:

Percy Craddock: Legacy Award Honoree

Percy Craddock, a cherished and longtime resident of Butte, MT, left behind a legacy of dedication, service, and a profound impact on the community he held dear.

Born and raised in the Williamsburg neighborhood of Butte, Percy's formative years were deeply influenced by the time spent at his grandpa's ranch in Ramsay, MT. It was there that he developed a lasting appreciation for hard work, a value that would shape his character and guide him throughout his life.

Percy graduated from Butte High School in 1954, the beginning of a journey marked by service to his country and a commitment to education. In January of 1963, Percy married Lois Carveth, and together, they embarked on a series of adventures that took them from the California coast, where Percy served in the Army during the Vietnam War, to settling in Seaside, CA. The couple eventually returned to Butte to start a family.

Percy pursued higher education at Western Montana College (now UMW), majoring in industrial arts and education. He later went on to get a Master's degree from WMC. From 1972 to 1998 he dedicated the majority of his teaching career to Butte High, where he taught carpentry and later became an instructor for adult education classes.

Percy's professional journey was marked by a profound commitment to education. From teaching woodshop at Butte High, and pioneering the school-to-work program, he left an indelible mark on the institutions he served.

Percy's legacy of dedication, service, and passion for education will be remembered with fondness and gratitude by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

by Coach Corr to play basketball for the Lady Bulldogs at Western Montana College. Cindy graduated magna cum laude in 1985 with a double major in PE Health Enhancement K-12 and Business 5-12 and went on to get a Master's in Education Technology. While at WMC, Cindy earned academic All-Conference honors and was the sports editor for the campus newspaper, the Wescolite.

Her teaching career began in Poplar, MT where she was the middle school PE teacher and coached basketball and track. After three years at Poplar, Cindy moved to Belfry, MT where she taught business and coached girls and boys basketball, volleyball, and track. She also served as the athletic director for a short time. After 10 years at Belfry High School, Cindy moved to Hardin, MT where she has taught and coached since 1998. She currently teaches high school business classes including marketing, street law, business math, & business cooperative. Cindy also coaches the Hardin Bulldogs in cross country, girls basketball, and track.

Throughout her time at Hardin High School, Cindy's teams have won several Class A State Championship titles in track, one in girls basketball, and she has coached numerous individual state champions in track. She has been selected as Montana Coach of the year six times in cross country and one time in basketball.

Mark Clark

Mark Clark, from Carson City, NV, is a 1992 graduate of Western Montana College. Graduating magna cum laude, he earned a BS in Secondary Education with a major in history and a minor in reading K-12. During his time at WMC, Mark's commitment to education was evident as he became a member of the Kappa Pi National Education Honorary Fraternity and served as Chief Justice of the Associated Students.

Mark's journey post-graduation took various turns, offering him a range of experiences that shaped his professional path. Mark would eventually become a correctional officer and serve at several facilities across the country including Miami, FL, Forrest City, AR, and Tucson, AZ, where he would use his teaching experiences and skills he gained from WMC.

In Forrest City, Mark served as an instructor in several topics including GED, English-As-Second Language, Literacy, Self-Defense, Diversity, and went on to become an Assistant Supervisor of Education and was the Forrest City Employee of the Month. At the Federal Correctional Complex in Tucson, he earned the title of Supervisor of

Patricia Haynes Gibson

A Fairfield, MT native, Patricia Haynes Gibson attended Western Montana College from 1971-1975. In 1975, she successfully earned her Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education and music. Throughout her time at WMC, Patricia actively engaged in various organizations, showcasing her commitment to both academic and extracurricular pursuits. Her involvement included roles such as Spurs Junior Advisor, student body vice president, student body secretary, and senior class president. Patricia was also recognized in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Additionally, her passion for music led her to participate in Choraliers, a traveling music group. Patricia was also a member of the Blue-Ribbon Committee and was homecoming queen.

Following her graduation from WMC, Patricia began a dedicated teaching career, leaving an impact across various elementary schools in Montana. Her teaching journey included positions in Kevin, Lewistown, and Belfry, MT, and Colville, WA. Notably, she dedicated 27 years to Wenatchee, WA, where she served as a PE teacher for grades K-5.

During her time in Wenatchee, Patricia demonstrated leadership by serving as a teacher leader for a school-wide behavior program affiliated with the University of Washington. In addition to her primary teaching role, she contributed as a principal substitute and initiated an after school running club, involving both students and parents during the fall and spring season. She also played a pivotal role as physical education curriculum developer for the district and developed district-wide field days.

commitment to academic excellence was evident through achievements such as graduating magna cum laude and consistently making the Dean's List. Jackie was also a volleyball player for the Lady Bulldogs in the fall of 1993.

Jackie and her husband, Willis, moved to Newburgh, NY in December of 1998 where she worked as a substitute teacher. Her passion for education led her to Children's Country Day School in Windsor, NY, where she quickly became an integral part of the school community and taught fourth and fifth grade while also teaching Spanish for grades first through sixth. Jackie's leadership qualities were recognized quickly and she was promoted to Interim Head of the Children's Country Day School.

In the summer of 2001, Jackie and Willis relocated to Portland, OR where Jackie assumed a teaching position at The Gardner School in Vancouver, WA. Over the span of 18 years, Jackie demonstrated her versatility by teaching students across various grade levels. During her tenure at TGS, Jackie made significant contributions, including presenting at an international conference in Iceland on the multiple intelligences theory. She also held the role of Curriculum Director for an impressive 20 years.

Jackie reached another milestone in her educational journey by earning a Master's Degree in Teacher Leadership in 2015. In 2019, with the support of several teachers and families, she founded the Lupine Experiential School in Vancouver. Over the past five years, Lupine has flourished and has grown from 33 students to 78. In addition to teaching in the fourth and fifth grade class, Jackie is also head of the school.

Jackie's experiences at WMC included cherished moments participating in the National Childhood Conference.

Veteran's Corner Update #245

By Mike Lawson

Greetings. Our weather has been a mixture of snow/ice/melting and temperatures bouncing between freezing and 40 to 50 degrees. We welcome the snow, but we want it to stay and add to the snowpack. We're all worried about fires flaring up this summer, with our forests burning up and the smoke being hard to breathe. This past Saturday was a hard one for my daughter and family in Anaconda. A lady doing her early morning walk, saw their attached garage on fire and pounded on their door as my son-in-law was getting ready to go to work. He got my daughter, grandson and great grandson out of the house with barely the clothes on their backs. The house is probably a total loss. It is mentally devastating for them as they lost just about everything. Although my son-in-law did get the car out of the garage before it was totally gutted by fire. The long story short is they got out alive and have good house insurance. The recovery of their lives will be difficult, but they will do it by the grace of God. The belief is that the fire started on a work bench in the garage where some work tool lithium batteries were being charged and one of them probably exploded. The fire inspectors should be able to tell us more.

Veteran News Updates:

- The Vietnam Wall Replica will be in Butte the last week in August. Much more will be said concerning the metrics of that, in future articles and advertising.
- The USS MONTANA Submarine crew "Honor Reception" will be March 13, between 5:30-7:00 PM at the American Legion Silver Bow Post 1 Hall, 3201 Wynne St., Butte, Mt. This will probably be the last time for them to come to Butte as their Sea Trials are about complete. In the future they could be anywhere in the world on their underwater missions. Their homeport is said to be in Hawaii, once they're underway. I encourage any of you, in-town or out-of-town, to come to the reception in honor of this crew of our namesake submarine, the USS MONTANA.
- In celebration of their Elks Lodge building 100 year anniversary, the Butte Elks are having a breakfast from 8:30am to 12:00pm, this Saturday, March 8th.. The one they had for the Veterans on Feb 3rd was amazing and I expect this one to be also. Come with an appetite as the amount of food and selection will shock you, it's that good.
- The American Legion turns 105 this year and our Wednesday dinner on March 20, will see Post members get a free meal. That starts at 6:00 pm at Post 1's Hall on Wynne St in Butte.

• Matthew Rosine, a Public Affairs Officer with Montana VA Health Care, shared that "Becker's Healthcare Hospital Review" gave the Fort Harrison VA Medical Center a five star rating for Patient Recommended Hospitals. These ratings are based on patients recommending this hospital to their friends and family. Fort Harrison was one of eight Montana Hospitals to receive a five-star rating. This is not the first five-star rating in 2023 as they got one in July for Physician Communication and another one on Staff Responsiveness. What an honor coming from our Veterans.

• The VA Healthcare system has greatly expanded Veteran Health Care facilities across our vast state's landscape. Besides Fort Harrison there is the Miles City Community Living Center - VA Nursing Home. CBOC (Community Based Outpatient Care) are as follows: 1) Benjamin Charles Steel VA Clinic - Billings, (2) Browning VA Clinic, (3) Butte VA Clinic, (4) Cut Bank VA Clinic, (5) David J. Thatcher VA Clinic - Missoula, (6) Dr. Joseph Medicine Crow Clinic - Billings, (7) Glasgow VA Clinic, (8) Glendive VA Clinic, (9) Great Falls VA Clinic, (10) Hamilton VA Clinic, (11) Helena VA Clinic (sleep clinic), (12) Kalispell VA Clinic, (13) Lewistown VA Clinic, (14) Merrill Lundman Department of Veterans Affairs Outpatient Clinic - Havre, (15) Miles City VA Clinic, (16) Plentywood VA Clinic, (17) Travis W Atkins Department of Veterans Affairs Clinic - Bozeman. This is impressive and many of these came on-line in the past 10 years. In driving the DAV Van for the last 18 years, I've driven many Veterans who moved to Montana because they felt the VA here was the best place to get medical care. I can attest to this as I've had my healthcare here for the last 20 plus years.

I'll close for now and caution you to walk carefully on the ice as my friend and Marine Veteran Harold Crowley fell and broke his arm in three places, walking on snow covered ice.

Secretary Jacobsen: Candidates for Governor, U.S. Senate & House, highlight week of filings

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen said 32 candidate filings were processed by the Secretary of State's Office last week. To date, a total of 328 candidate filings have been processed for 173 different offices. Secretary Jacobsen said candidates filing this week did so for the races of Governor, United States Senator, and both U.S. Representative seats, among others.

Nine candidate filings have now been processed for that U.S. Representative (District No. 2) race, Current State Superintendent Elsie Arntzen filed on Tuesday, as did Steve Held (note: Mr. Held initially filed online for the 1st Congressional District before withdrawing and filing for District No. 2.). Kevin Hamm joined the race on Thursday.

Two new candidate filings were also processed for Montana's other U.S. Representative race (District No. 1) as Mary Todd filed on Wednesday and Monica Tranel filed late Friday. They joined incumbent Ryan Zinke in filing for the seat. Also filing U.S. Senate candidate Tim Sheehy. Sheehy joins three current candidates – Brad Johnson, Jon Tester, and Charles Walking Child Sr. – in the race.

Multiple legislative candidate filings were processed this week, bringing the total to 198 candidate filings processed for Montana's House of Representatives and 50 candidate filings for the Montana Senate. Other candidate filings processed this week included candidates for the State Auditor and Secretary of State offices.
