GORDON RONALD "TEX" MARCHESSEAULT

Gordon Ronald "Tex" Marchesseault peacefully passed away Sunday, March 17, 2024.

Tex was born in Dillon, Montana, to ranchers Robert Dewey and Cora Odessa Berry Marchesseau on December 19, 1940, and grew up on the FS Ranch on Grasshopper Creek in Beaverhead County.

Tex attended elementary schools in Polaris and Dillon. When he went to the Bagley School, he would often dress western complete with a cowboy hat. Principal Jim Womack hung the nickname "Tex" on him, and it stuck. He graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1959.

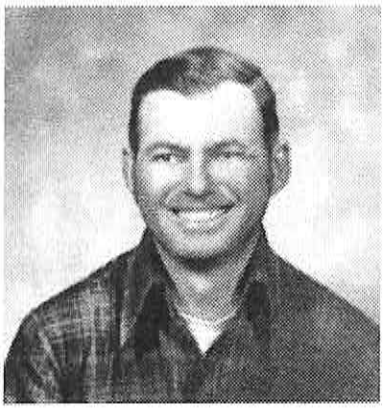
During his high school years, Tex served as a President and a Parliamentarian of Beaverhead County's FFA Chapter, and a Second Vice President of Montana State FFA. Tex was awarded 1st place in the Montana State Farmer Public Speaking Contest in 1960.

During the 1961 session of the Montana State Legislature, Tex was an Assistant Sergeant at Arms. He was a member of the Southwest Montana Stock Growers Association, the Republican Party, and the Bannack Association.

Tex joined the Montana National Guard in 1963 and was stationed at Fort Ord, California, for six months of active duty. He continued serving his country honorably until 1969 in the Montana Army National Guard.

The highlights of his life were his trip to Washington, D. C., for the dedication of the National FFA Building, visiting England, Greece, Austria, Germany, France, Yugoslavia, Italy, India, Switzerland, and Nepal where he gifted his cowboy hat to a member of the Royal Family, and flying over Mount Everest.

Tex vacationed every year at the Charlie Russell Art show in Great Falls from 1986 to 2014. After flying over the Grand Canyon, its majestic beauty fascinated him all of the rest of his life.



He was a lifetime rancher in the Grasshopper Valley and enjoyed all the aspects of a rancher's life, including training cow horses for the ranch; his family, and friends. Several serious horse accidents plagued him with continuous pain all of his life.

The FS Ranch was started by his grandfather Edmond Marchesseau and has been operated for over a century by his sons and grandsons. Upon the passing of his father, Dewey, Tex was elected president of the Marchesseau Ranch corporation by his brothers in 1983.

Tex was a devout Christian and loved the Lord his entire life.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his sisters Estelle Blomquist and Claire Owen, brother James Marchesseault, and nieces Brenda Weber and Vanessa Warner and nephew Carson Eva.

A lifelong rancher and cowboy, Tex headed up the heavenly trail to his much looked for eternal reward in heaven with his best friend, his Lord and Savior. Let us all rejoice with Tex, because he has seen the face of God, he's free from pain, has a skip in his walk and his spurs are a jingling. Happy trails, Tex!

A memorial service in honor of Tex will be held 10:30am, Monday, March 25, at the Brundage Funeral Home. Interment will be at Mountain View Cemetery, followed with a lunch provided at the Dillon Elks Lodge.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to: Beaverhead FFA Chapter, 104 North Pacific Street, Dillon, MT, 59725; BeeHive Hospice, 1000 MT Hwy 91 S., Dillon, MT, 59725; or a charity of the donor's choice.

The service will be live streamed.

Application deadline for deer & elk permits is April 1

Hunters have until April 1 to apply for deer and elk permits and nonresident combination licenses. Hunters can buy licenses and apply for permits on the FWP website; click on "Buy and Apply."

A new online feature this year is the option for applicants to reapply for the same offerings as last year with just a simple click.

Most FWP offices will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The licensing call center will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through April 1; after April 1, the hours will return to 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The call center can be reached at 406-444-2950.

Regulations changes

Before you purchase your licenses and permits, be sure to check the 2024 regulations. Several changes take effect this year.

Get your 2024 Conservation License

If you're heading out this year to recreate on state land, you need to make sure you have your 2024 Conservation License.

This license is required to recreate on fishing access sites, wildlife management areas, wildlife habitat protection areas and most Montana Department of Natural Resources Lands. State parks do not require a Conservation License. Anyone 12 and older needs to have a current Conservation License.

These licenses can be purchased online at ols.fwp.mt.gov/, at any FWP office or any of FWP's 290 license providers located throughout the state.

Tips and reminders

- Don't wait until the last day to apply.
- A valid driver's license or valid photo ID is required to purchase a license.
- If you're applying for a special license or permit, you will need to have a valid email address.
- The Online Licensing System is available from 5 a.m. to 11:45 p.m.
- A separate and rotating moose, bighorn sheep or mountain goat SuperTag lottery for resident hunters will be conducted annually. Montana residents will receive one free chance in the lottery for every General Elk or General Deer License purchased.

Application deadlines

• Smith River Super Permit – March 22 • Paddlefish (white tag) – March 22 • Deer and Elk • Special Permits – April 1 • Special Licenses – June 1 • Nonresident combination licenses – April 1 • Bighorn Sheep – May 1 • Bison – May 1 • Moose – May 1 • Mountain Goat – May 1 • Antelope – June 1 • SuperTags • Antelope, Bighorn Sheep, Bison, Deer, Elk, Moose, Mountain Goat, and Mountain Lion –July 1 • Mountain Lion Special Licenses – July 22

For more information on Montana hunting licenses and permits, go to fwp.mt.gov/buyandapply/hunting-licenses.

Fairweather Fishing Access Site has reopened

The site was closed temporarily starting in January due to ice jams and flooding. Those conditions have improved, allowing the site to reopen to public access.

Fairweather Fishing Access Site is along the Missouri River, about 8 miles downstream of Missouri Headwaters State Park.

GUILTY VERDICT FOR BUTTE BAIL BONDSMAN AND BOUNTY HUNTER

Bondsman Jay Steven Hubber and bounty-hunting partner, Nicholas John Jaeger, were found guilty of aggravated burglary and deliberate homicide (Hubber by accountability) this past Thursday. The shooting death of William Harris occurred after Hubber and Jaeger charged into Harris' home unlawfully looking for David Sandoval (the bail-jumper). During a struggle with Harris, Jaeger (a convicted felon) grabbed Hubber's gun and shot Harris. Prosecutors told the jury "Nick Jaeger pulled the trigger and Jay Hubber pulled the strings." The jury came to their decision Thursday night after five hours of deliberations. It took more than two years to bring the case to trial.

"The vast majority of bail bonds people do things correctly. However, when someone does something wrong, they need to be held accountable. In this instance, they were wrong and have been held accountable," Commissioner Troy Downing said.

The deadly incident was the impetus behind the law brought forth by Commissioner Downing during the 2022 state Legislature to crack down on "Wild West" bounty-hunting tactics in Montana. Among other things, it forbids convicted felons from acting as bond agents. The newly passed legislation will require new bail bondsmen to undergo 40 hours of training in areas including constitutional law, use of force, procedures for arresting a defendant and surrendering a defendant into custody.

The CSI is doing its part to regulate this industry and keep Montana safe.

Commissioner of Securities and Insurance is the state regulator of the insurance and securities industries for the state of Montana.

Attorney General Knudsen announces retirement of MHP colonel

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced the retirement of Montana Highway Patrol Colonel Steve Lavin. Lieutenant Colonel Kurt Sager will serve as the interim head of the Patrol until a new colonel is named.

"I'm grateful to Steve for his decades-long career with the Montana Highway Patrol. It was a pleasure working with him during his tenure as colonel to keep Montanans safe in their communities and on the road. I wish him well in his retirement," Attorney General Knudsen said.

Lavin was appointed by Attorney General Knudsen in January 2021 and retired after over 30 years of service with the Montana Highway Patrol.
