Distinguished Service Award

Sue Hansen was given the distinguished service award at the 2024 Confluence Public Health Alliance Conference last week. She was nominated by Stefanie Tassaro and Lilia Guillen-Sanchez.

In recognition of nearly 35 years of service, and the path you paved for the future of public health in Beaverhead County and beyond. Your leadership and mentorship have had a profound and lasting effect on the public health workforce, and the value of your guidance is incalculable. We honor your compassion, dedication and unwavering commitment to improving the public health profession and the health of our communities.

Thank you Sue!

With love, your Public Health Staff.

This is Montana Public Health Association's highest honor, originating from the work of Mary E. Soules, MD, who was Director of the Disease Control Division of the state health department at the time of her unexpected death in 1972. "Dr. Mary" was a friend to all who knew and worked with her and represented the essence of public health. It is fitting that this award be given annually to one person who has exemplified public health principles and practices throughout his or her career in Montana.

UMW Professor Dr. Laura Straus to Receive Distinguished Faculty Award

The University of Montana Western will honor Education Professor Dr. Laura Straus with the William C. Bagley Distinguished Education Faculty Award at the 11th Annual Night of Stars on April 20, 2024. As the inaugural recipient of this award, Dr. Straus is celebrated for her outstanding service, leadership, teaching, mentorship, and scholarship.

The award, named after Dr. William Chandler Bagley, esteemed education theorist and Vice President and Director of Training at Montana State Normal School (now UMW) in the early 1900s, recognizes Straus's commitment to experiential learning, echoing Bagley's principles from the early 20th Century. Bagley's work at UMW, especially related to the development of modern student teaching practices, had a lasting impact on education across the country.

Born into a lineage of educators, teaching was inherent in Straus's upbringing. Influenced by her parents—her mother, who personified the nobility of the profession of teaching, and her father, a World War II veteran and metallurgist with a passion for imaginative storytelling—

Straus's childhood was a nurturing environment for her thirst for knowledge. Despite initially pursuing science at the University of Chicago with aspirations of a medical career, she found her true calling in teaching after completing an accelerated certification program in elementary education at the University of Minnesota—Minneapolis.

Her journey as an educator took her through various roles, including teaching middle school, where she made a profound impact on students who challenged her to adapt her teaching methods and taught her invaluable lessons in persistence, creativity, empathy, and humor.

She joined the faculty at the University of Montana Western in 2007, drawn by its unique block scheduling and the opportunity for intense engagement with students. In 2011, Dr. Straus completed her PhD in literacy education from Claremont Graduate University.

For nearly two decades, Dr. Straus has been a pillar of the Education Division, serving in various leadership roles while remaining dedicated to her passion for literacy education. Embracing the ethos of Horace Mann, she views education as the cornerstone of democracy and sees teaching as a societal calling. As she prepares for her next chapter, Dr. Straus hopes to be remembered as a passionate and caring educator who left a positive impact on her students and the world.

In her final class at Montana Western, Dr. Straus reflects on Ralph Waldo Emerson's words, "Nothing great is ever accomplished without enthusiasm." With this spirit, she leaves a legacy of enthusiastic dedication to her students and the pursuit of making the world a better place through education.

In addition to the presentation of the William C. Bagley Distinguished Education Faculty Award, the Night of Stars ceremony will include the induction of five Montana Western alumni into the Education Hall of Fame in recognition of their phenomenal dedication to education and will also honor current education students as Outstanding Teacher Candidates. This year's inductees are Percy Craddock, Cindy Farmer, Mark Clark, Patricia Haynes Gibson, and Jackie Sproul Taylor. The Outstanding Teacher

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice-Public Relations

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue held its April meeting on the evening of the 3rd. The meeting was called to order by Vice Commander Shane Puyear at 7:05 PM. It was a very short meeting with very few things to discuss. Once again another month passes by without any incidents. We must be saving up for that rainy day... It was agreed to hold our annual camp out training June 7, 8, and 9. More info to come next month. The membership discussed whether or not to have an auction this year. After many viewpoints were expressed, a vote was taken and it was voted not to have an auction this year.

The meeting adjourned around 7:40. Equipment manager, Evan Helle, had a list of things he needed help with on equipment. The rest of the evening was spent working on various projects.

It looks like spring may be close. We can only hope. The weather this time of year can change in a hurry and may even be quite different from draw to draw out in the hills or from one side of the valley to the other. Make sure you are properly prepared for different circumstances. Take care out there!! "In the Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen reminds businesses of April 15th annual report deadline; fees waived

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen is reminding businesses that the deadline to file annual reports is Monday, April 15. Secretary Jacobsen waived the annual report filing fee this year, resulting in millions of dollars in savings for Montana businesses.

All limited liability companies (LLCs) and corporations, both for-profit and non-profit, must file annual reports in Montana to keep their registration up to date and confirm that they are an active business. Businesses can easily complete their annual report by using the Secretary of State's online filing portal at <https://biz.sosmt.gov>.

"The Secretary of State's Office is a proud partner of the Montana business community," said Secretary Jacobsen. "We've made it easier to do business by offering 24/7 filings through our online filing portal, we've cut registration fees in half and waived this year's annual report filing fee, and we're available to personally assist our Montana businesses throughout their journey."

If businesses have questions or need assistance filing, they may contact the Business Services Division at (406) 444-3665 or by emailing sosbusiness@mt.gov.

Lady Beavers Topple Butte Central Maroons

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Beaver softball team was on the road today taking on the Butte Central Maroons. The Lady Beavers would chalk up another victory defeating the Maroon 16 to 4. The Lady Beavers would take the lead in the first inning after Adyson Creighton tripled, scoring one run, Kylie Konen grounded out, scoring two runs, Bailey Blake drew a walk, scoring one run as well.

In the second inning the Beavers would add more points to their lead. Kinzy Creighton would single, Kylie Konen would double, and Tymber Barnes would ground out, each scoring a run for the Lady Beavers.

With five runs scored on three hits, the top of the fifth inning would see even more points scored for the Beavers. Bailey Blake scored after tagging up, Kinzy Creighton singled, scoring two runs, and Emily Brevig homered into right field, scoring two runs on the in-the-park home run.

Adyson Creighton started on the mound for the Beavers allowing only four hits and four runs over five innings.

Player highlights include Emily Brevig and Kylie Konen each drove in three runs for the Beavers. Tymber Barnes and Adyson Creighton led the team with two bases on balls. Tyler Gibson, Kinzy Creighton, and Kylie Konen each stole multiple bases for the Beavers. The Beavers had eight stolen bases, with no errors in the field.

The Lady Beavers came together with a great team win. They were patient at the plate, drawing 8 walks and were a nuisance on the base path with 8 stolen bases.

Athletes Selected Academic All-Conference Teams

The Frontier Conference announces that 175 student-athletes from the four conference winter sports have been named Academic All-Conference presented by Logan Health and Billings Clinic. Montana Western had 13 athletes selected to the list, with Women's Basketball leading the way with seven athletes honored.

"Billings Clinic-Logan Health is pleased to extend support to student-athletes from the Frontier Conference, and we congratulate those who have achieved Academic All-Conference status," said Joe McClafferty, president of the Logan Health Foundation. "We understand the demanding balance between sports and academics for these students and we're excited to see how these exceptional leaders make the world a better place."

To be eligible for the award, student-athletes must be at least a sophomore in standing and carry a minimum 3.25 cumulative GPA.

Dillon BLM to conduct prescribed burn

The Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office will do some prescribed burning this spring east of Sheridan Mountain between California Creek and Mill Creek in Madison County.

Smoke may be visible to the public from Highways 41 and 287, and the communities of Dillon, Alder, Sheridan, and Twin Bridges.

The prescribed burns—totaling 1,500 acres—could start as early as April 8. The exact timing depends on weather and fuel conditions.
