Robert Lewis Lawyer

Born December 7, 1942, in Dillon MT to Harry and Doris (Rankin) Lawyer, passed away in Missoula April 3, 2024, after a short illness.

Bob grew up in Twin Bridges on the family ranch. He graduated from

Twin Bridges High School. He went on to lead a very diverse life with the career paths he chose.

Working on the railroad in Idaho he met Bonnie Holverson and they married. He also worked for Archway Potato Chip and Cookie deliveries while living in Wyoming.
The couple had 3 children, Robert, Royce and Doris. They later divorced.

Bob then moved to Reno NV where he met Gay Woodfin while he was working as a security guard, parking manager and later he became a crap dealer. He and Gay married and recently celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary.

Bob moved to Oregon with Gay where he built a log cabin for their home. He later sold the cabin and moved back to Montana where he cowboied for the Alaska Basin Stock Association. He then decided to go to Cheyenne WY to attend A&P school at age 40, the other students called him grandpa. After completing school, he moved to Lynchburg VA to work on commuter planes, next he moved to Utah, then on to Boeing in Everett WA and finally to Tulsa OK where he worked for American Airlines until his retirement. At which time he moved back to Sheridan, MT, and built their home.

Bob loved to fish, hunt and to see the sites around the neighboring states. One favorite trip was taking their motorcycle on a trip through the Blue Ridge Mountains. He also loved his family very much.

Bob was predeceased by his son Robert, his mother
Doris, father Harry and stepmother Margaret.

He is survived by his wife Gay, children Royce Lawyer and Doris (Dan) Brady, brother Jim (Kathy) Lawyer, sister Leslie (Carson) Cox. 6 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

There will be a family service at a later date. Memorials may be made to donor's choice.

Windy Baseball

Baseball by Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Friday afternoon was a windy day but that didn't stop the Beavers from playing Baseball. The Beavers would end up losing the game to the Florence-Carlton Falcons 14 to 3.

Keyen Nash singled at the bottom of the first, helping the Beavers tie the game at two.

The top of the second Drew Wagner would double giving the Falcons the lead with a score of 3 to 2.

Sawyer Tackett would have two stolen bases, with the Beavers collecting a total of four stolen bases.

The Beavers will take on the Park Rangers tomorrow at 3 P.M. at Ray Lynch Park.

Beavers Sting Yellowjackets

The Lady Beavers continued their winning streak on a very windy day at Ray Lynch park as they beat the Yellowjackets 16 to 6.

Stevensville opened the scoring in the first inning after a passed ball scored a run for them.

The Beavers would quickly come back in the bottom of the first, after Stevensville committed an error, and Kylie Konen grounded out giving the Beavers the lead.

The bottom of the third Katey Vezina would draw a walk, scoring one run, Ashlyn Burk singled, scoring two runs, Tyler Gibson tripled, scoring one run, Adyson Creighton singled, scoring one run, Emily Brevig doubled, scoring one run, and a wild pitch scored two runs.

The Yellowjackets would score five runs on three hits in the top of the fourth inning.

The Beavers would get ten hits in the game, with Ashlyn Burk leading the Beavers with three hits with three at bats. Adyson Creighton, Ashlyn Burk, and Tyler Gibson each drove in two runs for the Lady Beavers. The Beavers would collect seven stolen bases, and turn one double play in the game.

The Lady Beavers will play Frenchtown on the road on April 12, at 7 P.M.

Grant School Wins Walters Award

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Grant School teacher Penny Huxtable was awarded the Walters Award Thursday morning from the Montana Retired Teachers Association.

The Walters Award started in 2000 under the leadership of MREA executive directors, Don and Clarice Walters, who proposed and funded the first $500 biennial award. This award seeks to recognize a Montana school and teacher(s) that have accomplished their educational mission by using creative, innovative, and unique ways to educate young people. The award seeks to benefit an idea, need, or program that supplements and enriches the school's curriculum and could use extra funding.

During a long cold snap, the students in Grant couldn't go outside and play. The students chose to learn to play chess. The students picked up the game fast and some even chose to play chess for individual choice time. One of the students asked if they could make their own chess pieces using a 3-D printer. The students had known about 3-D printing because Mrs. Huxtable had brought in a couple chess models for them to look at that were made with a 3-D printer.

Because of the use for the printing of chess pieces along with future uses in STEM projects Mrs. Huxtable and the Grant School became the recipients of the Walters Award.

Ag Mechanics: 28th place team consisting of Will Ellis, Clinton Ford, Chase Brown, and Asher Burch.

Junior Agricultural Mechanics (JAM) Show: This year we exhibited three projects in the Junior Ag Mechanics show, where students build and exhibit projects in categories such as Livestock Equipment, Outdoor Recreation, Agricultural Machinery, and a Trailer division. Will Ellis, Kyle Jones, and Josi Ward planned, constructed, and exhibited three outstanding projects and each received a blue ribbon for their efforts. This year there were over 60 projects from across Montana entered in the JAM show. Josi's swiveling saddle rack was ranked 5th overall.

The rest of the results will follow tomorrow

Thank You!

The Gordon "Tex" Marchesseault family would like to express their appreciation for the flowers, cards, donations, and expressions of kindness given in Tex's honor.

We want to extend a special thank you to the BeeHive staff for their wonderful care.
