Joyce Margaret Baker

Joyce Margaret Baker was born February 19, 1933, in Faith, South Dakota and passed away on April 13, 2024, in Caldwell, ID. She graced this earth for 91 years.

Joyce grew up on her father's (Charles Weiss) and mother's (Elizabeth Ingalls Weiss) joint homesteads at Opal, SD. She attended Royal Center School--a one room school with 10-12 students offering grades one through eight. The school was just north of her house. Many of her cousins and five siblings attended school alongside her. Her father offered her a band of sheep to stay on the farm after eighth grade, but Joyce opted to attend high school and graduated from Sturgis High School in 1951. She then went on to attend and graduate from business school in Rapid City, SD.

After graduating from business school, Joyce took a job at the Garberson Clinic in Miles City, MT as a receptionist working under ten doctors. She met Ray Baker through a mutual friend, and they were married in 1954 in Sturgis, SD. She and Ray moved between Miles City, and Missoula while Ray attended the university in Missoula. Both Ray and Joyce were door-to-door salespeople selling Kitchen Queen Cookware to support their family. They were the mother and father of four children: Kim, Dawn, Stacia, and Daneen. After Ray graduated from the University of Montana, he took teaching jobs in Colstrip and then Ingomar, MT. In 1969, the family moved to Dillon, MT. Joyce remained a homemaker until she and Ray opened a rock and hobby store in Dillon. In 1974 Joyce opened the Mode O' Day/Fashion Crossroads clothing store. She and Ray divorced in 1975. She owned the store until she retired in 1994.

Joyce was a member and elder of the First Presbyterian Church in Dillon. She was an active member of many groups in Dillon such as Soroptimists and the Chamber of Commerce. She loved riding horses, playing pinochle, and the beauty of growing and nurturing flowers. Most of all, she loved her Shih Tzu dogs. The running joke in the family was that she loved her dogs more than she loved her children. She would smile and say, "yes, because they don't talk back to me."

Joyce moved to Caldwell, ID in September of 2022. She felt that it was easier to breathe in Caldwell versus Dillon due to the difference in elevation. Her daughter, Dawn, had the privilege of living near her at her assisted living home in Caldwell until she drew her last breath. Her daughter, Stacia, and her dog Theo were at her side when she passed.

Joyce was a "journaler." She wrote of events in her life each day. She noted that she wanted to be remembered as a "caring person with a sense of humor who had taught her children to respect both the young and old, to be considerate and loving, and to grow up in a Christian home."

Joyce was preceded in death by her son Kim Baker, her mother and father, all five of her siblings, their spouses, and numerous nieces and nephews. She is survived by daughters Stacia Baker (Michelle) (Dillon, MT), Daneen Weaver (Casper, WY), Dawn Jensen (Caldwell, ID), daughter-in-law Tammy Baker (Dillon, MT), twelve grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren.

Joyce will be cremated; her ashes will be divided between her two favorite earthly homes. She will be placed at the Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon, MT near her son Kim and at the Opal Community Cemetery near her South Dakota family.

Services will be held on May 4, 2024 at 2:00 PM at the First Presbyterian church in Dillon. Services for Opal Community Cemetery are yet to be determined.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Friends of the Dillon JC's (please write Kim Baker Scholarship on the memo line). A "Can-Do" Memorial has been established in his name by the Dillon JC's for students at Beaverhead County High School who exhibit a positive attitude.

Earth Day Community Clean-Up

The University of Montana Western Terra Verde Club, Beaverhead Trails Coalition, Friends of Jaycee Park, and the City of Dillon invite you to participate in a Community Clean-Up Day on Saturday, April 20.

Come help celebrate Earth Day 2024 by cleaning up trash around the Dillon community. Interested volunteers can sign-up for the event by visiting <https://tinyurl.com/bdejd7v7>. Participants can check in at Jaycee Park on Saturday, April 20 anytime between 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Trash bags will be provided for all volunteers. Please bring a pair of work gloves and appropriate clothing.

For more information on this event and other volunteer opportunities, contact Erin Hughes: 307-250-0841 or erin.hughes@justserve.org.

Help us celebrate Earth Day 2024 at Clark's Lookout State Park on Saturday, April 20th from 12 - 4pm. Borrow a kite from us or bring your own kite to fly. Birding watching and a clean-up will be going on too. See you there! (Clark's Lookout is 2 miles north of Dillon on Hwy 91)

Letter to the Editor

We had a close encounter with "illegals" on Sunday afternoon. We have been trying to schedule a few days to take our camper down Idaho's main Salmon River to enjoy all the spring wildflowers, wildlife and scenery. We finally managed to start such a venture after church on Sunday. We went over Bannack Pass and got as far as North Fork, Idaho. We were turning down the river road when a small Nissan sedan came up from behind, crossed double yellow lines at a high rate of speed and slammed into our left front tire, bumper and fender. We had slowed to maybe 5 MPH to make the turn and the combined weight of our Dodge diesel and camper absorbed the impact amazingly well. The Ninon went spinning down the highway until it went off the road on the right-hand side and rolled a couple of times. We rushed up to check the occupants. Amazingly neither were hurt. They only spoke Spanish and the girl kept tugging on my sleeve and saying "no policia, no policia". Spectators at the North Fork Store had dialed 911 and a deputy showed up and an interpreter was eventually located. It turns out that the boy had crossed the border illegally in California Seven days earlier and they were heading for Missoula. Fortunately there were lots of witnesses to clear us of any blame. The witnesses were amazingly supportive and are to be thanked for their input. The girl tried to claim she was driving. She wasn't. The illegals had no insurance, driver's license, car title and the car lacked a license. The reviewing officer said he was arresting the boy to insure he wouldn't "just disappear". He would remain in jail only until they could determine if they were carrying drugs, etc., then they would be given a date to appear in court and be released and would simply disappear into society. Meanwhile we're stuck with having to cancel our outing, $1000 deductible on our insurance, probable increase in insurance and limited use of our truck until we get it fixed while the illegals get off free. Fortunately, no one was seriously hurt. All I can say about the whole mess is "Thanks Joe."

Letter to the Editor

I am writing this letter in support of Shannon Maness for House District 70.

Some may say that a candidate's spouse should not be writing a letter endorsing him because my view is not objective. To the contrary, I think I may be the best person around to write a letter about Shannon. I like to think that I know him better than anyone else, and so I am the best person to speak to his character and his qualifications for the position of House representative. I could highlight the wealth of Shannon's work and volunteer experience, but instead I would like to focus on who he is as a person.

When I met Shannon 17 years ago, I was impressed by his respectful demeanor and the level of integrity with which he carried himself. He won me over with his "yes ma'am and no sir," and I was intrigued by his quiet confidence. The strength of Shannon's character was (and still is) unusual to find in a person. I would guess that any of you who have met Shannon have found these same qualities still present in him. Despite my best efforts, Shannon is often a man of few words, but when he speaks - his words have meaning and are completely genuine.

I always know where Shannon stands on any given issue, as he is man of deep conviction and great responsibility. He is especially passionate about constitutional rights and individual responsibility - just ask our kids! When he takes on a task, he works tirelessly to complete it and to do so to perfection. He can be counted on to do the right thing, the right way because this is in his blood and his upbringing. These qualities are what make me proud to be his wife and the mother of his children, and what make it so easy for me to urge you to vote for him on June 4th. If you want a true Conservative who will work in Helena to make your voice heard and do what he says he will do, Shannon Maness is your candidate.

Krista Maness, Dillon

PRESS RELEASE

On 04/16/2024, The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office conducted a coordinated operation to serve a search warrant on a property in the area of Chreston Lane. The search warrant was executed under an investigation for Littering and Felony Aggravated Animal Cruelty.

This was the largest and most heinous animal cruelty case the Sheriff's Office has worked on in its recorded history. During the execution of the search warrant a significant number of deceased animals were documented and 47 animals were seized. All animals seized are currently being held pending the completion of this case and are receiving veterinary care.

Two individuals were taken into custody in this case and have both been charged with Aggravated Animal Cruelty and Littering.

We would like to thank Beaverhead County Deputies, Montana Department of Livestock, Montana Highway Patrol, the Beaverhead County Fair Board, Murdochs, Dave Schuett, Kyle Tash, Southwest Montana Veterinary Service, and the Beaverhead Animal Shelter for their assistance in making this operation possible.

Call for Artists: Women's Resource Center Fundraising Event

The Women's Resource Center is seeking submissions for artwork to feature in our upcoming fundraising event, Gallery of Hope, aimed at raising awareness and funds for our organization's mission of empowering women in our community. For forty-seven years, the WRC has provided crisis intervention, advocacy, outreach, and emergency shelter for victims of domestic and sexual violence in Beaverhead and Madison Counties.

Theme: Celebrating the Strength of Women

We invite artists of all backgrounds to submit original pieces that capture the essence of women's strength, resilience, and empowerment. Through the medium or mixed media of your choice, we encourage you to share your unique perspective on the diverse experiences, challenges and achievements of women.

Submission Guidelines:

1. Artwork should reflect the theme of celebrating women's strength and resilience.
2. Submissions are open to all artists regardless of age or gender.
3. All media are welcome, including but not limited to painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, and digital art.
4. Each artist may submit up to three pieces for consideration.
5. Artwork must be original and not previously exhibited in our events.
6. Please provide a brief artist statement (250 words max) with each submission, explaining the inspiration behind your work, such as how artwork reflects the strength of women, how the work communicates in a way that words cannot, and how artwork can be a language of hope and resilience.
7. Include a suggested retail value for each submission to guide potential buyers on how to best support our fundraising efforts.
8. As an alternative to donating original work, we invite artists to submit a proposal for a "creative contribution" to support our fundraising efforts, such as hosting a workshop at the Women's Resource Center.

How to Submit:

- Fill out this online form by July 15, 2024: <https://forms.gle/qGrDg2xhRrD5oqQa6>
- The form asks you to include your name, contact information, photo of each artwork, title of each artwork, a brief artist statement, and suggested retail value in the submission.

Non-operative & Operative
Treatment

Having joined Bridger Orthopedic in 2024, Dr. Gregg Schellack provides comprehensive orthopedic care in partnership with Barrett Hospital & HealthCare in Dillon, Montana. In practice since 2003, he is driven to achieve the best patient care experiences and outcomes. Dr. Schellack is providing care for general orthopedic patients including those needing shoulder, elbow, hand, hip, knee, and foot care. He is also providing sports medicine treatment for athletes of all abilities. His multi-disciplined approach also includes specialty procedures including cementless knee replacement and minimally invasive, arthroscopic surgical treatment. As a physician he is dedicated to his patients and is willing to work with them and their families to find the best solutions possible.

Dr. Schellack is a Montana native who was born in Butte and raised on his family's ranch in Dillon. He is a Montana State University alumnus and attended the Des Moines University Medical school in Iowa. He entered the United States Navy and completed his medical training at the Naval Medical Center in San Diego, and at Loma Linda University in California. His assignments with the Navy would take him across the world being stationed on board ships, and at Naval bases internationally and stateside including serving as the Orthopedic Department Head at the Naval Hospital in Naples, Italy. He also proudly served in the United States Naval Reserves until his retirement in 2021. Entering private practice in 2016, Dr. Schellack has worked in Montana, California, Alaska, and Idaho. He is a member of the American Board of Orthopedic Surgeons and an active fellow with the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.

Dr. Schellack and his wife are thrilled to be together in their home state of Montana. Outside of the office and surgical suite, he enjoys continuing to be active and loves being outdoors. He races motocross, and enjoys fishing, golfing, and skiing. He also enjoys traveling and spending time with his beautiful wife and family.

Sustainable Ranching Workshop #2

Building Profitability & Resiliency Through Regenerating Soil Health

June 4 - 5, 2024 | 8:30 - 4:30 both days

@ the Hamilton Ranch Round Barn - Twin Bridges, Montana

The Southwest Montana Sagebrush Partnership cordially invites you to this workshop focused on increasing net profitability and resiliency of ranching in SW Montana. Emphasis will include using your livestock to improve soil health, forage biomass, water infiltration and retention, animal performance, and system resilience.

Attendees will gain knowledge and practical skill sets needed to take the best next steps in progress. The workshop will provide extensive hands-on instruction with interactive discussion facilitated by Understanding Ag.

This Understanding Ag Workshop will teach you:

- Why regenerative approaches are important - and even life-changing: The keys to enhanced profitability and resilience
- Why the soil microbiome is a rancher's and farmer's friend
- How to forge symbiotic relationships and use nature's ecosystem processes to our advantage
- How to capture more water and retain that water
- Knowledge and tools for efficient and effective grazing and cover cropping
- Understanding the Six Principles of Soil Health and the Three Rules of Adaptive Stewardship
- The Four Ecosystem Processes - Still free and still working for us!

Lunch will be provided by the Beaverhead Conservation District and Ruby Valley Conservation District.

Workshop hosted by the Southwest Montana Sagebrush Partnership and Hamilton Ranch
