The Tabletop Vault Opening Friday May 3rd

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Tabletop Vault board game store is opening in Dillon on Friday, May 3rd, we sat down with Asa owner of The Tabletop Vault and talked to him on what the store will offer and what gave them the idea to open the store.

Sitting in the store with half-stocked shelves of board games, a counter that was filled with Pokemon cards, Magic cards and a large selection of dice, Asa and I sat down at one of the tables as he told me about his and his wife's love of board games. They got the idea after having no good way to find games unless they ordered them. Asa and MA, his wife, decided they would open up a store that would carry both board games as well as have a gaming area for people to play games as well as try out a game they would like to purchase.

In January they started to come up with a business plan and pencil out a strategy on the best way to go about setting up the store and finding a good location.

They have spent the last month getting the store repainted, cleaned up and ready for the opening day. The store has a wide selection of board games from the classics like Monopoly to modern day games. They will have a D&D selection along with WarHammer 40,000 supplies models and paints.

The back half of the store has tables for people to gather and play games. I asked Asa if they will have specialty nights like an adult only game night. He said they have had requests for this, and they are looking into hosting events like this in the future.

The Vault will be open Tuesday - Thursday 10 am to 7 pm and Friday and Saturday 10 AM to 9 PM. They will have a calendar on their website that will show events they will be hosting.

You will be able to check out The Tabletop Vault this Friday as they have a ribbon cutting ceremony and grand opening. The store will be open at 10 AM with the ribbon cutting taking place at 4 PM. The Tabletop Vault is located at 26 East Bannack Street

National Teacher Week May 6- 10, 2024

The Southwest Montana Retired Educators would like to extend our thanks to all teachers for their dedication and being a major role in educating students.

Teachers play a vital role in our society, going beyond the classroom to teach and support students by coaching, mentoring, tutoring, providing school supplies and sometime food to help students gain success in their learning.

Elenore Roosevelt, in the 1950s, convinced Congress of the need to dedicate a time to thank teachers for their hard work. She said, "Day in and day out they are at work preparing the future citizens of the U.S." She felt teachers were not given enough honor in our communities and felt teachers, next to parents, are the most important people in our communities. Due to her persistence and urgings, the 81st Congress declared the National Teachers Day in 1953.

National Teacher Day was originally celebrated March 7th until 1984 when the National Parent Teacher Association moved the day to May and extended the day to encompass the first week in May, and labelling it Teacher Appreciation Week with May 7th being 'Teacher Appreciation Day'.

When asked what teachers want, here is what they most desire; Teachers want to be valued, paid fairly, and supported in their jobs. They want a safe teaching environment and reasonable class sizes, with quality resources to serve every student's needs. Teachers want equipment that works; texts that are up-to-date, relevant and diverse. They want classroom supplies they don't have to pay out of their own pockets for, and most of all they want respect. They want to be recognized for the professional, hardworking, dedicated, responsible, and educated workers they are. They want the trust and freedom to make decisions and provide the professional development they need to stay on top of their game.

Many of these are things that come automatically in other professions, but for some reason, teachers are constantly begging for supplies, better pay, support, respect, and recognition for what they do. During this week the best way to help teachers is to be an advocate for them. Let them know you appreciate what they do. Send them a thankyou note or just tell them thanks for making a difference. Show them the respect they deserve.

Thanks again to ALL teachers, retired and working, for making a difference in the lives of our young citizens.

Montana's Biggest Weekend Concert Opener

The Dillon Jaycees are excited to announce the opening act for Montana's Biggest Weekend. Opening for Shane Smith and the Saints will be Colby Acuff! Colby is a 4th generation Idaho native with a rugged spirt true to his mountain home. Colby launched his debut album in 2023 title Western White Pines and it introduced a country talent as wild and free as the Idaho mountains themselves. He was lauded as one of the year's best by Saving Country Music, Whiskey Riff, Country Chord and more. With new music coming soon, Acuff is currently on the road with Flatland Cavalry and will join Luke Combs for stadium shows this summer. We could not be more excited to have Colby Acuff for Labor Day in Dillon! Tickets on sale now.

Bulldog Men Repeat Second Place Regional Finish, Qualify for CNFR

The Montana Western rodeo teams closed out regional competition on Saturday evening with the annual University of Montana Spring Rodeo.

The Bulldog men took third overall in the team standings while the women finished in fifth on the weekend, but qualified numerous individuals for the short-go.

Top Placings

Trevor Kay won the average in bareback riding on the weekend. He totaled 146 between his two rides.

The team roping pair of Jake Deveraux and Teegan Leno finished fourth on the weekend, combining for a 9.5/1 in the average.

Tori Murnion finished fifth in the breakaway roping average, totaling an 8.4 in both of her runs.

Cade Costello placed fifth in saddle bronc riding after he scored a 70-point ride on Friday night.

Region Winners

After a strong season, the Bulldog men repeat as the reserve champions in the Big Sky Region and will return as a team to the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) in June.

Gavin Knutson and Kay each repeated as Big Sky Region champions in the bull riding and bareback riding.

Leno and Deveraux also claimed the team roping crown and finished atop the regional standings.

Freshman Costello finished second in the region for saddle bronc riding.

Cooper Pavkov and Luke Murphy finished second overall in the region in team roping and Jhet Murphy claimed third as a header in team roping.

Tavy Leno is the lone Bulldog from the women's team to qualify for the CNFR. She finished in third place in the region in both the goat tying and in breakaway roping.

Up Next

The College National Finals Rodeo will be in Casper, Wyo. from June 9 through June 15. The position draw for the event will be announced on June 2 for the athletes competing in the event.

Dillon Lions Club Annual Live Lobster Fundraiser

The Dillon Lions Club is again holding its annual spring sale of fresh, delicious Atlantic lobster! The money generated by this lobster sale is one of the primary sources the club uses to fund the many local community service projects it's involved with. As an example, the Dillon Lions Club provides vision screening for the students in every school in Beaverhead County, including each class of Youth Challenge Cadets. Another example would be the scholarship the club provides each year to a deserving Beaverhead County High School senior.

If you'd like to order one or more of these live Maine lobsters, please have your order form and payment to us by Monday, May 13 at the very latest. These order forms, with more detailed information including price, are available at the Vigilante Electric Cooperative Office near the Beaverhead County Courthouse and at Precision Eye Care and Optical at 25 Johnson Ave. immediately north of Safeway. The approximately 1.5-pound lobsters are caught, cold packed, and flown out to arrive fresh on Saturday, May 18. And as many a club member working the sale can attest from experience, the lobsters arrive very much alive and very feisty!

You can pick up your live lobsters on Saturday, May 18 between 1:00 and 3:30 P.M. at the Vigilante Electric Cooperative parking lot across from the courthouse main entrance. And if you'd like, Lions Club members will even cook them there on the spot for you to take home at no extra charge!

Beaverhead Ladies Golf Association

On Tuesday, May 7th, the Beaverhead Ladies Golf Association invites all lady golfers to join us for the first game of the 2024 season at the Beaverhead Golf Course. Sign-in to play with the Ladies Morning League is at 9:30am.

All tee positions will be assigned at 9:45am and the 9-hole game will begin at 10:00am. Beaverhead Golf Course non-members are welcome to join the morning play by paying green fees and $20 membership to the Beaverhead Ladies Golf Association. All skill levels are welcome. Come join the fun!

The Origin of Life

(Pastor Ken Gilchrist, Big Sky Missionary Baptist Church)

In a previous article we spoke of the origin of death. Since evolution has become the prominent theory regarding the origin of life, it seems appropriate to consider the fact of how life began.

While there is controversy about it among men, God doesn't debate the origin of creation & life, He just states the facts regarding the matter in His inspired word, the Bible.

One fable when comparing evolution with Divine creation is the idea that the issue is between science and religion. When we understand the definition of religion, however, the issue in reality is between two distinctly opposite religious beliefs. Religion simply defined is "a specific fundamental set of beliefs and practices generally agreed upon by a number of persons or sects." [dictionary.com]

So let's consider some differences between these two religious views of creation and evolution.

Evolutionists want us to believe that their view is scientific and creation isn't, even though evolution has never been proven by experimentation & observation. This means it isn't really a scientific view. Both evolution & creation require faith & both fit the definition of religion. No one saw God create the universe, and no one saw a 'big bang' occur.

Some say that God used evolution to fill the earth with all its life forms, but God gave specific details regarding His creation that contradict this theory. In Genesis 1-2 it states that God created the earth and all that is in the earth in six days. Each life form was established to reproduce after its own kind.

Another fallacy of evolution is the idea that "comparative anatomy shows that animals and humans have a common ancestor." But if this were applied in other areas in this way we could also conclude that clouds, [which are 100% water], jelly fish (98% water) and watermelons (97% water) all evolved from a common ancestor. It is much more logical to understand that what similarities we see in creation show that we have a common Creator and Designer, not a common ancestor.

Though there is a myriad of evidence that the complicated creation we live in came about as the result of intelligent design, it isn't likely that we can that God exists and created the world. But neither can it be proven that God does not exist and that he did not create the world. The bottom line is that it takes faith either way you believe, only one of which, of course, can be called true faith since only one can be correct.

Isn't it interesting that some highly intelligent scientists have spent much of their lives in a lab trying to create life just to show that no intelligence was necessary in the first place?

It seems much more logical to believe that everything that exists was created by God, and that His final creation was man, whom He made in His own image, and woman as recorded in Genesis 1:26-28; Genesis 2:7 & 20-22.
