Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice Public Relations

On Saturday, May 4, the Beaverhead Search and Rescue received a page to retrieve a snowmobiler on the west side of the Big Hole Valley. At approximately 5:15 in the afternoon, a call came in from the Salmon Sheriff's office to the Dillon Sheriff explaining they had received a 911 call from an individual who was sledding on the west side of the Big Hole. After attaining information about the accident Salmon called for life flight out of Idaho Falls, but when they realized the incident was on the Montana side of the boarder they referred everything to Dillon Sheriff. Salmon informed Dillon there had been a snow machine accident on a steep slope and they had an injured male with a compound fracture of one of his femurs. Dillon Sheriff in turn canceled Idaho Falls Life Flight and got Butte Life Flight involved.

Life Flight lifted off the ground almost immediately and headed to the incident. Meanwhile Beaverhead Search and Rescue had been paged and members were preparing to head to the victim's location, which was northwest of Homer Young Peak and above Little Lake Cr Lake. By the time S&R was ready to send hasty teams in that direction, life flight was on scene. They were able to land relatively close to the injured individual and began critical patient care immediately. Within 20 minutes of landing they had the patient packaged, loaded, and at 6:39 the ship was back in the air heading to Missoula St Pat's hospital. As of 5:30 Sunday evening the man was in stable/good condition.

Thanks to sheriff deputy A Cross for keeping S&R appraised of the progress of Flight and the situation on the mountain. MD and Sam Peterson were called and put on standby in case Life Flight couldn't land or the LZ wound up being too far from the patient. Other Beaverhead SAR members showing for the incident were: Tommy Goins, Mike Clarke, Trent Cottom, Keri Carson, Trevor Hyland, Don Smith, Parke Scott, Russ Sigman, Mel Rice, and Clint Rouse.

Be prepared when you go out to play and be safe out there, lots of things can go wrong.. "In the Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

Mother's Day Offering at Tendoy

Flowers just seem to go with Mother's Day, so Jean James is offering her botanical watercolor and gouache paintings for 30% off at Tendoy Fine Art. Then while she is at it, she is including her collection of matted paintings in the sale.

"I wanted to offer this work at a discount so those looking for a special something for Mother's Day might be able to afford an original painting." James shows her work locally, and statewide. A practicing artist for over 50 years, she paints using a variety of media. She also does commission stained glass work including restoration of historic windows as well as teaches private lessons and workshops.

Black Bear Management Unit 700*Letter to the Editor*Supporting Shaw Makes Sense

I am writing this letter in support of Ray Shaw and his candidacy for Senate District 35. Ray has previously served in House District 71 four terms and has demonstrated his commitment to his constituency by considering their inputs and comments as he makes decisions on very important legislation and policy in Helena. Ray's ability to listen to all sides and analyze the impacts of each bill on the residents in his district and Montana has garnered the respect of his fellow legislators. Ray's knowledge of the legislative process and acquaintance with current members of the Montana Senate will enable him to be appointed to critical senatorial committees that consider important legislation that impacts issues in the counties he represents. Ray's political savvy, stature, and well deserved respect gives residents of SD 35 a huge advantage on issues important to us in the next legislative session. I urge your support of Ray Shaw in the upcoming primary.

New Truck Frivolities

Bryce Angell

I've been driving my old Chevy truck since 1994.

The odometer reads a quarter million miles or more.

I hate to see my truck grow old, but nothing's meant to last.

A quarter million ain't so bad if you say it extra fast.

The time had come for me to buy another Chevy truck.

But should I stick with Chevy. I can't say I've had bad luck.

So I drove down to the car lot, spied an F150 Ford.

The F150's beauty soon bedazzled me aboard.

The new Ford truck claimed OnStar and the internet to boot.

I wondered, should I drive back home and change into my suit?
I'd never had frivolities. Especially in a truck.

Would I constantly be worrying of tracking too much muck.

I drove it down a gravel road and hardly felt a bump. The leather seats were Charmin soft. They cushioned my old rump.

The seats adjusted to my back, and like a pillow for my head.

The back seat laid down nicely just like sleeping in a bed.

The new Ford F150 puts my wife's car plumb to shame.

I'm thinking that my Mrs. will want the truck for hers to claim.

Do I show her who the boss is, maybe have a little chat.

Would her knuckle dragging brother turn my life to gravel splat?
The salesman said, "You'll like this truck and won't regret one bit."

He didn't give a hoot my bank account would take a hit.

I must be sentimental 'cuz I'm missing my old truck.

Or is it merely thinking every month, 600 bucks.

My truck brags air conditioning at two and forty five.

Two windows rolled completely down and speed of 45.

When I pop the hood on my old truck I understand what's there.

But when I raise this brand new hood, you'll get my blankest stare.
I never worried much when my old truck would get a scratch.

Just as long as it received and didn't cause another's crash.

It didn't take much mulling in my mind to come around.

I climbed back in my Chevy truck.

Revved it up, now homeward bound.

My truck has no frivolities like my F150 friend.

So I guess I'll keep on driving it until its very end.

Letter to the Editor: Questions:

Is it okay to ask questions?

- Would it be informative to ask each local candidate running for office to publicly release their donation records? (None of our candidates has held a public office with which to show us their voting records.)
- Could a person's donation record, either political or charitable, indicate where their views lie?
- Is it wrong to request each candidate to run as he or she truly believes?
- Should we ask each candidate who they voted for in the last presidential race and in the state races?
- How may we avoid misguided election outcomes?
- Is it responsible to prefer a transparent race?
- Might it be wise to note that these are not personal questions, but inquiries of public records?

Respectfully,
Mary Sturgeon

Letter to the Editor

I have known Mary Ann and her family since they came to Beaverhead County in the early 1960's. As a former Senator for the State of Montana, I understand what it takes to be an effective Representative.

Mary Ann has been involved in the economics of our community for many years and knows from her business experience how essential a good local economy is. She understands the role agriculture plays here and the challenges facing it. She has supported ranchers for decades against outside groups making it harder to graze on public lands, the risk estate tax issues pose to pass on land to the next generation, the importance of meaningful compensation for predation reimbursement, and continues to support ranchers over the ongoing risk of the brucellosis spread from the bison in Yellowstone Park to cattle.

In my years in State government, I understand that to be an effective leader takes understanding the issues, and to have the ability to work with people we may disagree with to get things done without abandoning principles. I support Mary Ann for her integrity, knowledge of the issues and range of experience.

I think she is the right person to represent District 70 in Helena and she will gain the respect of those she needs to work with to make a difference.

Sincerely,
Former Senator Bill Tash

Lady Beavers Defeat Frenchtown Broncos

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Lady Beavers pulled out a win against the Frenchtown Broncos in a true nail bitter fashion on Saturday May 4, with a walk-off run beating the Broncos 8 to 7.

The Beavers opened the scoring in the bottom of the first with three singles. Kylie Konen was the first to single, scoring one run.

The Beavers would hold the lead but in the top of the fourth the Broncos would take the lead after Brooklyn Smith singled, Ryan Lucier singled, and the Beavers would commit one error allowing each to score a run.

The Beavers would come back in the sixth inning to score three points and tie the game.

The Lady Beavers collected thirteen hits in the game, Kylie Konen went 3 for 4 at the plate to lead the Beavers in hits. Adyson Creighton and Tymber Barnes each drove in two runs. Bailey Blake collected two hits in three at bats. Emily Brevig would have two stolen bases.

Beavers Dominate Over The Yellowjackets

The Dillon Beavers took on the Stevensville Yellowjackets Saturday at Ray Lynch Park and defeated them 11 to 3.

The Beavers would get on the board first by collecting a run from an error in the first inning. They would continue to add points on the board in the second after Andrew Bartlome hit a sacrifice fly, and Kale Konen singled, each scoring one run.

Jase Alvarez would triple in the third inning making the score 5 to 1. The Beavers would go on to score five runs in five hits in the bottom of the fifth inning. Andrew Bartlome doubled, scoring two runs, Kale Konen doubled, scoring one run, Cohen Hartman singled, scoring one run, and Will Hansen drew a walk, scoring one run.

Andrew Bartlome earned the win for the Beavers. The right-handed pitcher surrendered five hits and three runs over six innings, striking out six and walking two.

The Beavers piled up sixteen hits in the game. Cohen Hartman, Andrew Bartlome, and Marcus Lagunas each collected three hits for the Beavers. Kale Konen collected two hits in five at bats. The Beavers collected five stolen bases.

The Beavers will play at home on Tuesday, May 7 against the Belgrade Panthers.
