NOTICE OF PASSING

Carl Gaylord Staley

Feb 14, 1941 - May 18, 2024

Frank Fowler

May 5, 1932 — May 13, 2024

Frank Fowler was embraced by family and friends as he passed away on May 13, 2024, at Barrett Hospital in Dillon, Montana. He was 92 years old.

Frank was born on May 5, 1932 in Washington D.C. to Wallace William Fowler and Helen Peabody Marsh. Frank was the youngest of eight, preceded by Bruce, Ella, Earl, Hazel, Daniel, William, and June. With the loss of his father at the age of six, he spent much of his childhood living at the home of his older brother Earl. His niece Susan & nephew Jim became his childhood playmates, as well as nephew Jack.

Frank had a great love of anything outdoors hiking, fishing, skiing, gathering firewood for the winters, and gardening. After high school, he began a cross-country journey that took him west to the Rocky Mountains and he never looked back. He proudly put himself through Montana State University (now U of M) in Missoula for four years studying forestry (1950-1954). During these years, he met his life-long friend Alicejane Carkeek.

His first summer in Montana was spent at Fort Keogh with the US Forest Service where Frank learned of the Smokejumper. He had 28 epic jumps during his tenure with the Smokejumpers. He wrote to his mother about his adventures and those letters later served as the foundation for his book High-Mountain Two-Manner.

The Army detoured Frank in 1955 and he spent two years serving in office administration and traveling throughout Europe. Many years later, he wrote another book of his mischievous and trying times with the army, Relative Humility (not a typo).

When he returned, he and Alicejane "Corky" Carkeek were married in Butte, Montana (1957).

Their first adventure as a married couple took them to Sullivan Lake Ranger Station in Washington. Frank had various assignments, and took many trips in the back country, a tradition he carried on for decades. He continued bouncing around Idaho, Montana, and Washington before landing in Dillon, Montana where Frank and Corky settled into raising their family. Somewhere in this time frame, he discovered Huckleberries, and many summers were spent in the pursuit of the tart purple gems that he so cherished, especially the "reds".

In his later years, Frank began tracing his genealogy, spending countless hours traveling and documenting monumental information on his family tree and compiling the dates, names, and stories to pass around the rest of the family. Frank took great pride in the family lineage, dating all the way back to the Mayflower and becoming a founding member of the William White Society.

Frank had a great appreciation for music and his dedication to the Dillon Concert Association will be remembered by everyone as they listen to the Baby Grand Piano. He enjoyed singing with his quartet and practiced endlessly, finding great pleasure in the camaraderie of music.

Frank and his family spent many years volunteering at the Historic Lochsa Ranger station, spending many hours telling stories of the past to travelers and family. Frank also enjoyed making cribbage boards from elk horns, teaching and playing the game to any and all who would listen.

Frank spent the last few years of his life writing stories for the Smokejumper's Magazine, completing as many puzzles as he could get his hands on, sitting with his feet up listening to music, and enjoying the pleasures found in an ice cream sandwich.

He had a humorous outlook on the absurdities of life, and he had a way of making us see that things cannot be taken so seriously. Frank lived ardently by the outlook that we may not know everything there is to know in life, but the pursuit of knowledge is one of the greatest ways to pass time and conversation.

Frank's passing has left a hole in the hearts of many. His stories and passions will continue to live on through his family and friends. With his final jump, he leaves behind Son Chris (Rachael), Daughter Jody (Ed), Grandchildren Ethan (Rachael), Kira, Jacob, and Sean, as well as Great-grandsons Logan and Lucas.

A sincere thank you to some very special friends Ron, Bill, and Alan.

A Celebration of Frank's Life will be held at the Grace United Methodist Church on May 31, at 11:00 am. Please come ready to share some great stories.

There will be a reception at Western Montana College Library conference room to follow, with snacks and drinks.

Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office K9 Program Notice

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office is excited to announce the beginning of a new K9 Program. Beginning in fall 2024 to spring 2025, we will be adding two dogs to our patrol team, who will be assigned to existing deputies as their handlers. We are adding two dogs to provide the best possible service to the citizens of the Beaverhead County Area. Our dogs will be trained in Tracking (Criminal and Search and Rescue), Narcotics Detection, and Human Remains Detection. In 2022/2023, Law Enforcement in Beaverhead County responded to:

71 -Assaults
7 -Assaults with firearm
27 -Break Ins
26 -Burglary
2 -Robbery
57 -Criminal Mischief
62 -Disorderly Conduct
54 -Drug Offense
217 -DUI - Alcohol/Drugs
1 -Escaped Prisoner

45 -Search and Rescue
27 -Missing Person
9 -Shooting
38 -Shots Heard
59 -Trespassing
73 -Unattended Death
85 -Wanted Person
826 -Welfare Check
10 -Probation Violation
40 -Assist Probation and Parole

In Total, Dispatch received 15,169 Calls for service in this time frame. This list only covers a small amount of our call volume where having a K9 available could prove necessary. In 2024, we are already exceeding previous call volume for many categories and are seeing an increase in drug related activity in Beaverhead County.

We are currently seeking funding for our program through grants, community support, and local government funds. We hope to make our program self sufficient through funding acquired outside of the budget of Beaverhead County to ensure the long-term success of the program. For more information about the K9 Program, please email: Deputy Dan Fields at dfields@beaverheadsheriff.com or Deputy Cade Dairy at cdairy@beaverheadsheriff.com.

FWP discovers non-native aquarium pets

It might seem like a good idea at the time, but dumping an aquarium pet into a lake or river is not good for the pet or for the native wildlife. Earlier this spring, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks personnel identified two species that were the result of aquarium dumps.

The first detection was mystery snails at Finley Point in Flathead Lake. Mystery snails are an aquarium snail that are found in many waters in the West. But this is the first mystery snail population identified in Montana. FWP plans to attempt to remove the snail population later this season.

Near Bozeman, an angler reported catching a Dojo loach in a small pond. The Dojo loach is native to East Asia and is a popular aquarium pet in the US.

Calling All Readers!
Dillon Friends of the Library and Dillon Public Library are hosting a Read-A-Thon!

Come join us on June 1st, 2024, at 6 pm to Midnight at the Y. We are raising funds for our Capital Campaign to preserve our Dillon Carnegie Library.

Readers will get sponsors for reading pages, hours, or a flat donation. Sponsor sheets will be located at the Dillon Public Library or The Bookstore. Because of our community's generosity, we have replaced the boiler, and are currently in the process of restoring and preserving our original windows.

Please elevate us for this fundraiser so that we can replace our elevator. So, will you jump on our "Carnegie Coach" to "travel" around the state to visit all the Carnegie Libraries in Montana? A Montana map with all the Carnegie Libraries will be present and pages and hours will give us power and miles to travel.

We will have snacks, pizza, and activities to make your "trip" around the state memorable. Ages 8 to 100 are welcome!

We will need parent or guardians for anyone under the age of 10.

Creating a Path to Your Vibrant Life

Vibrant Lives of Montana wishes to invite you to participate in one (or all) of our upcoming workshops!

On Saturday, May 25th, Vibrant Lives is hosting "Just Breathe: A Meditative Breathwork Experience with Bethel Wagner from Sage Wellness Center in Whitehall. This 4 hour workshop (from 1pm-5pm) will provide you with tools to reduce stress, find relief from anxiety, and increase your energy and mental clarity.

On Thursday, June 6th at 9:30am-10:45am (and for 3 consecutive Thursdays), Vibrant Lives is hosting "Faith-Stretch: Christ-Centered Yoga with Georgia Gannon.

This weekly workshop integrates yoga postures, controlled breathing techniques, worship, meditation, and prayer. All of these offerings are open to the public and appropriate for those who have and have no experience with the modality at hand. While Vibrant Lives of Montana notes a "suggested donation" for these offerings, we invite you to "pay what you can" or "exchange." We wish for money to never impede or inhibit one's desire to learn and grow. Register for any (or all) of our upcoming workshops here: <https://www.vibrantlivesmt.com/upcoming-workshops--gatherings.html>

Veteran's Corner Update #
 By Mike Lawson
 Greetings: Belonging to any of our Veteran Organizations is an opportunity to serve our communities and have camaraderie with one another. Our spouses, being in the Veteran Auxiliaries or helping on projects are many times the unsung heroes in making a project be a success or not. Many thanks to them.

Veteran News Updates:

- Memorial Day week-end is in a few days. Check with your local Veteran Service Organizations as to what you can volunteer for this weekend. As I mentioned last week, here in Butte we will be putting over 4,000 flags on Veteran's graves in our four in-town cemeteries. In our case, volunteers will meet at the Spanish American War Veteran's plot at the Mt. Moriah Cemetery on S Montana St. at 9:00 am. All help is welcome.
- Veterans who are seeking help with filing VA benefits for payments they deserve, please be cautious of "Claim Predators"-uncredited companies or individuals who target veteran's benefits for profit. Three things they do is: 1) Charge absurd fees (2) Make dishonest promises of requiring a vet to pay a portion of their VA benefits. Never ever pay anyone a fee to file an initial claim for benefits. Only the VA has the authority to determine disability ratings. (3) Requiring Binding Contracts: Absolutely no one should charge a fee to file an initial claim for VA benefits. An old friend of mine used to call these type of dishonest lawyers/law firms "Ambulance chasers". VA accredited representatives have a great reputation, to which I can personally attest too. Any Veteran Organization will gladly help you get in touch with one of these representatives.
- May is Mental Awareness Month and the VA is at the forefront of mental sickness treatment. Some of our Veteran Court Mentees are and have gone through the in-house treatment at Ft Harrison and other VA mental treatment programs, with great results in changing their lives in positive ways. PTSD is a prime example in identifying and developing treatment methods to address the Vietnam Veterans initially which led to treatment for all areas of our society.
- I'm putting out the plea for volunteer DAV Drivers in the Butte, Anaconda and Dillon areas specifically, as that's where our vans are located. We take veterans to their medical appointments from Phillipsburg, Deerlodge County, Powell County, Beaverhead County, Whitehall to Virginia City, Boulder and Silver Bow County. The VA Application can be intimidating but I personally will help any volunteer fill their application out. We also need to get a Local Area Coordinator in place to take the Veteran requesting a ride, be put on the list and then getting them a van-ride from one of our volunteer drivers. I'm doing it now as well as driving and would help break-in the person who would enjoy doing this gratifying position. Please give it some serious thought and give me a call. 406 560 3591

Knudsen defends American firearms manufacturers

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen led a coalition of 27 states Tuesday in defending American firearms manufacturers against attempts to hold the companies liable for gun violence in Mexico. If a lower court's ruling is allowed to stand, Americans' Second Amendment rights could be threatened.

In the petition, Attorney General Knudsen asks the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) to correct a lower court's ruling in Smith & Wesson Brands, Inc., et.al., v. Mexico to keep other nations, like Mexico, from using American courts to limit the rights of American citizens.

The Mexican government claims that firearms manufacturers should be held liable for the gun violence occurring south of the border since the companies know some of their products are unlawfully trafficked into the country. However, Congress enacted the Protection of Lawful Commerce in Arms Act to balance Americans' Second Amendment right with the need to keep guns away from criminals while protecting firearms companies from being held liable for crimes committed with their products.

Mexico's case was first dismissed by a federal judge in Massachusetts in 2022. Then, on appeal, the First Circuit wrongly held that Mexico's claims fall within an exception to PLCAA, which narrowly authorizes suits alleging knowing violations of firearms laws that proximately cause a plaintiff's injuries. To squeeze Mexico's case into that narrow exception, the First Circuit's decision relies on an expansive view of proximate causation.

The attorneys general argue that the petition should be granted because Congress – not the judiciary – regulates the firearms industry.
