Calling All Readers!

Dillon Friends of the Library and Dillon Public Library are hosting a Read-A-Thon!

Come join us on June 1st, 2024, at 6 pm to Midnight at the Y. We are raising funds for our Capital Campaign to preserve our Dillon Carnegie Library.

Readers will get sponsors for reading pages, hours, or a flat donation. Sponsor sheets will be located at the Dillon Public Library or The Bookstore. Because of our community's generosity, we have replaced the boiler, and are currently in the process of restoring and preserving our original windows.

Please elevate us for this fundraiser so that we can replace our elevator. So, will you jump on our "Carnegie Coach" to "travel" around the state to visit all the Carnegie Libraries in Montana? A Montana map with all the Carnegie Libraries will be present and pages and hours will give us power and miles to travel.

We will have snacks, pizza, and activities to make your "trip" around the state memorable. Ages 8 to 100 are welcome!

We will need parent or guardians for anyone under the age of 10.

Leather and Clay Artist, H.A. Clemmer

On Saturday, June 1st, Tendoy Fine art will feature leather and clay artist, H.A. Clemmer at a reception from 1 pm to 4 pm at the gallery at 35 East Bannack St. in Dillon, MT. Refreshments will be served and this will be an opportunity to visit with the artist.

Clemmer's interest in leatherwork was sparked when she first rode a custom-built saddle at a friend's ranch. Being an inveterate horse owner and realizing she couldn't afford a custom saddle, Clemmer gathered up the materials and built her own. After completing 6 saddles, Clemmer focused on the art of tooling.

Her precise and elegant pen and ink drawings are combined with the more humble utilitarian leather which is tooled to bring out depth and richness, adding a 3D feel.

"My pieces represent memories, moments captured, and glimpses into the lives of animals that surround us, if we take the time to see them," explains Clemmer.

Attorney General Knudsen issues statement on Supreme Court's NRA v. Vullo decision

The Supreme Court ruled in favor today of the National Rifle Association (NRA), in its case against a New York state official who trampled on the organization's First Amendment right to free speech. In response to the NRA v. Vullo ruling, Attorney General Austin Knudsen released the following statement:

"The Supreme Court made the right decision today in protecting one of the greatest privileges we have as Americans: free speech. The Justices unanimously affirmed what we already knew, elected officials cannot use their authority to financially cripple or stifle their political opponents' First Amendment rights. As attorney general, I will continue to fight for the rights of Montanans and all Americans."

Attorney General Knudsen filed a brief in support of the NRA in January.

History Made: Secretary Jacobsen celebrates 'colossal victory' for blind & visually impaired voters

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen announced that history was made in Helena on Tuesday by three members of Montana's blind and visually impaired community as they cast partisan ballots in total secrecy.

Historically, the state's blind and visually impaired voters were required to ask for assistance to receive their preferred party ballot in a primary election. Due to solutions implemented by Secretary Jacobsen's administration, for the first time in Montana, the state's blind and visually impaired voters can select in secrecy the party ballot they wish to vote in a primary election without revealing their choice to another individual, such as an election official.

This week, three members of Montana's blind and visually impaired community – Jim Marks, Jacob Krissovich, and Rick White – cast their ballots in complete secrecy. The Secretary of State's Office funded the pilot to offer this voting experience at the Lewis and Clark County Elections Office.

"This was an incredible moment in Montana election history," said Secretary Jacobsen. "I'm proud to continue delivering for Montana voters by making our elections more accessible and secure. Our office works with a servant's heart each day, and it's an honor to serve all Montanans."

Montana has invested in technology and services to assist voters with disabilities, enhancing all voters' ability to participate in elections at the polling place.

"I want to extend a genuine heartfelt thank you to (the Secretary of State's Office). We all feel that this pilot was a huge success," said Krissovich.

"Hundreds of thousands of Montanans will have their voices heard during this 2024 election cycle, and the Montana Elections Team aims to provide all Montana voters with a great election experience and the highest level of integrity," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Thanks for voting, Montana!"

Events coming up at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

More interpretive programs have been scheduled at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park.

The park's Friday and Saturday evening events will each begin at 8 p.m. at the campground amphitheater and last about an hour.

- May 31: Bear Aware: Join us for a talk about bears and discover how to stay safe while recreating in bear country.
- June 1: Tick Talk: It's tick season in Montana. Learn about these creatures we love to hate and how to venture forth safely in tick country.
- June 7: Ancient Volcanism in Southwestern Montana: Guest speaker Dr. Jesse Mosolf will discuss the tempo and style of volcanism in southwestern Montana, stretching from the Archean Eon to the present, and the tools scientists use to investigate it.
- June 8: Goodness Snakes Alive!: Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park is home to the prairie rattlesnake, the most widespread of all rattlesnakes. Join park staff to learn about these remarkable creatures and how to stay safe when exploring rattlesnake country.

Guided hikes are planned for the first two Sundays in June. Visitors are encouraged to bring water, sunscreen and study shoes for some quality time outside. Both hikes will begin at 9 a.m. at the main visitor center.

- June 2: Stroll with us through the campground and see how many of our feathered friends you can spot. Binoculars will be provided for anyone who needs them.
- June 9: Flower Power: The park might seem like it's all just sagebrush, grass and juniper. But a closer look reveals the glorious wildflowers that are blooming right now. This 90-minute moderate hike will offer you a new look at the colors of spring in southwestern Montana.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park is about 15 miles southeast of Whitehall, along Montana Highway 2. For more information about the park, click here or call 406-287-3541.

Letter to the Editor

Jeff Welborn has my vote for Public Service Commission. Jeff has served us well as a State Representative and Senator. He has worked with Republicans and Democrats to get bills passed that benefit all of us. Like the bill for wolf management and Senate Bill 442 that allocated money from marijuana sales for wildlife management and county road maintenance (vetoed by Gianforte). Jeff is a common sense guy that has a knack for working with others to get things done. Jeff will serve us, as he did in the legislature, and work to get things accomplished.

There is HOPE

Morality in America

(Pastor Ken Gilchrist, Big Sky Missionary Baptist Church)

As Americans have moved away from belief in God & the Bible, there has been a drastic change in morality. Jeff Hilles [Biblical Christian Worldview] refers to the following survey by George Barna and the Arizona Christian Cultural Research Center in a survey of morality in the United States.

71% "contend that human beings rather than God should be the judge of right and wrong."

42% believe "what you feel in your heart" is the best determiner of morality.

29% believe morality should be determined by "majority rule".

29% of Americans believed that the Bible should be mankind's guide for our morality.

66% of Americans who claim to have a Biblical worldview stated that the Bible should be the main source of determining right from wrong.

"What speaks loudest in America today is that over 70% desire to set their own standards by rejecting those offered by the Creator of the universe." [Jeff Hilles]

It is sad that mankind has so terribly perverted what God created & designed to be something special between a man and a woman within the bonds of marriage. An act that was designed to share a special, genuine love in producing a loving family unit under God's guidance. Marriage honored by God as here stated is the union between a natural born man and a natural born woman, Genesis 2:24. God's commendation of marriage and His condemnation of adultery are recorded in the book of Hebrews 13:4. The possible condemnation God speaks of in this reference is seen in statistics that are known to be consequences of immorality: chronic anxiety, depression, various physical diseases, family break up, single parent families, mistrust, and worst of all, abortion.

True Biblical Christianity requires standing firmly against the immorality that has become so prevalent in our society. Christians are not required to agree with, condone, accept or adapt to the sexual 'preferences' of those who have perverted relationships that God forbids and condemns.

We must understand that, though God hates the sin of adultery, He still loves the individual. He provided the way of salvation & forgiveness for all sin through Jesus Christ, as stated in John 3:16-18, Romans 10:9-10 and many other scriptures.

Christians must show godly love to those committing immoral acts, present the gospel of salvation to them, and encourage them to cease from immorality, just as Jesus did the adulterous woman in John 8:11.
