Our friends from Cultivating Connections will be here in Dillon sharing their plants, knowledge and excitement while building community!

Plants will be available to add to your existing garden or to start a new garden! Donations appreciated. Their plants are famous for being hardy, unique and plentiful.

Cultivating Connections Montana's work is about 'Building Community Through Food'. Acting as a catalyst, our goal is to empower youth, grow food and share knowledge, foster well-being, provide mentorship & job training, and bring people together through education, participation, and celebration. In a world where there is so much to disagree about, food is something we can all agree on, and it's a place to start a new conversation.

IS 'VALUE' A DIRTY WORD?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

As I sit here admiring my 88-cent container of mustard, I can't help feeling self-conscious.

I know that restaurants advertise their "value menus" and retailers offer no-frills knockoffs of their glitziest products, but I keep picturing the corporate CEOs loathing such concessions as a necessary evil to appease the (ugh!) cheapskate rabble.

("I thought all the franchise owners got the memo to partner with Billy Graham Evangelistic Association and upsell customers the Eternally Happy Meal!")

The overused word "value" grates on my nerves, anyway. Shouldn't it be a "given" that all shoppers seek value for their hard-earned dollars? Who walks into a True Value hardware store and says, "I want a ball peen hammer that contains 999,999 insect parts per million — and keep the change"?

Sometimes it's readily apparent which functions, ingredients or durability expectations are surrendered when passing up premium products. Other times, not so much. A modestly priced haunted house tour should be judged by the entertainment value of severed heads and swooping bats, not by the thread count of the ghosts!

Okay, I understand that "value" has become a buzzword because it's only one of many factors that enter into a purchase decision — factors such as medical issues, i.e. making your sister eat her heart out when she sees your awesome new carpet!

Yes, rampant consumerism places mystique, flair and other intangibles on a pedestal. Speaking of intangibles, your car may soon be out of your reach when it's repossessed because of your top-of-the-line shopping sprees. Maybe the new owner will grant you visitation rights for those coveted windshield wiper blades that mimic the aroma of Gwyneth Paltrow's nether regions.

I'm not obsessed with status symbols. With few exceptions, I am happy with store-brand foodstuffs and toiletries. I hate paying extra for "the name." Unless I need a fake passport to escape Nazi Germany, I'm not paying for a name!

My wife and I recently clawed our way back into the middle class, but we remain frugal. Time-tested furniture, an unassuming 28-inch TV, coupons, portion control and duct tape are the order of the day. I can manage without overpriced "decadent desserts." Slightly off-color desserts are more my speed.

I'm glad neither of us had appendicitis during our lean years, because a doorknob and a string are mighty tempting for such operations.

Fun fact: a recent Gallup survey reveals that feet are deliriously happy with reasonably comfortable shoes and generic odor-eaters and couldn't care less that LeBron James ceremonially broke wind in the general direction of the sneaker assembly line. Go figure!

Granted, people can run the risk of being penny wise and pound foolish. Melissa and I want our cats to have good nutrition. After years of bad luck with used cars, we have gotten comfortable with buying brand-new, brand-name vehicles, but only after due diligence of studying "Consumer Reports" for gas mileage, safety features and maintenance issues.

Regardless of sticker price, we're not buying a Horseless Carriage-mobile assembled with slave labor in The Only Former Soviet Republic That Putin Wouldn't Take Back On A Dare.

Situations evolve. Shopping advice is not one-size-fits-all. Figure out your own balance of practicality and ostentation, of quality and price.

Just don't let social media influencers endanger your health.

"I'm choking! No, don't perform the Heimlich maneuver! It's too simple! There must be bells and whistles! I need bells and -gakk!!"

Applications sought for positions on two FWP councils

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is looking to fill positions on two separate councils – the Upland Game Bird Enhancement Program (UGBEP) advisory council and the Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program (WHIP) advisory council.

UGBEP council

Council members represent all FWP administrative regions and include upland game bird hunters, chamber of commerce memberships, landowners, upland game bird biologists and others who have conservation interests. For this position, the applicant must be a landowner residing in Region 4 or Region 6.

The UGBEP council meets two times a year and members are asked to participate in additional discussions throughout the four-year term. Council members are appointed by FWP Director Dustin Temple.

WHIP council

WHIP advisory council members are responsible for advising the department on Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program administration and for reviewing, ranking and recommending proposed projects for funding. FWP completes the final review and determines the distribution of funding. To view the interest groups represented in the council, click here. For this position, the applicant must be a farmer or represent a farming organization.

The WHIP council meets up to two times a year and members are asked to participate in additional discussions throughout the year. Council members are appointed by FWP Director Dustin Temple.

Beaverhead County Facts

Population of Beaverhead County.....Over 10,000 people

Number of Churches in Beaverhead County.....About 25 Churches

Average Sunday Church Attendance in Beaverhead County...
..About 300 People

300 people out of 10,000

WHY IS THIS?

Our World is in Trouble.
America is in Trouble.
Montana is in Trouble.
Dillon, Montana....is in *Trouble

Do you think it could be possible...that not Worshipping God ...
...is the Reason?

If you believe that God is Real...but you don't worship Him...
...Do you Really believe?

The BIBLE says,

Revelation 3:1-6

"And to the angel (Meaning the Pastor) of the church in Sardis write: "I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead.

If you go to a church....Is it Dead? How would you know ?

Proverbs 15:8

The prayers of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord, BUT the prayer of the upright is acceptable to Him.

If a person disobeys God...are they "Upright"?

WE HAVE TRIED LIVING WITHOUT GOD IN THE PAST.

SO....HOW'S THAT BEEN WORKING OUT FOR US?

DO WE HAVE TIME.....TO CHANGE? OR IS IT TOO LATE?

Superior imaging means faster, more accurate diagnoses—to provide peace of mind, and detect issues sooner so that they're easier to treat and beat. At Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, our state-of-the-art imaging technology rivals the services at larger healthcare systems so you can access the diagnostics you need where it's closer for you and your family. Get the whole picture of your health when—and where—you need it.

To learn more, talk to your provider at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare or visit barrethospital.org/diagnostic-imaging.

BARRETT
HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE

Where people come first.
100 years and counting.

3D Mammography

Detects 20-65% more invasive breast cancers compared to 2D alone and is the only mammogram FDA approved as superior for women with dense breasts and clinically proven to reduce unnecessary callbacks by up to 40%.

CT or CAT scan

State-of-the-art diagnostics allows providers to view precise, detailed, 3D images of multiple areas in the body.

MRI

Wide bore scanner combines comfort with superior imaging capabilities. Providers receive clearer, more accurate images. And who says an MRI has to be uncomfortable? At Barrett, we have a large, dedicated scanning room on site to make it easier for our patients who suffer from claustrophobia.
