Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Saturday, June 8 the Dillon Jaycees hosted the 51st annual demolition derby at the Beaverhead County Fairgrounds. This year's derby had three main matches, along with a grudge match, and the title match. The popular UTV barrel race returned again this year providing the crowd with thrills and spills as some participant's hit the corners a little too hard rolling over their UTV.

Another crowd favorite, the Herby Derby saw compact cars racing around the arena smashing into one another. The cars could take a lot of hits making one appreciate the durability of these cars.

DCI Investigating officer-involved critical incident in Cut Bank

The Montana Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) is investigating an officer-involved critical incident in Cut Bank that occurred early Saturday morning in the Pioneer Bar parking lot at 13 N. Central Avenue.

At approximately 1:20 a.m., a Cut Bank police officer observed a disorderly individual in the street outside another bar but when approached, the individual fled to a parked vehicle in the Pioneer Bar parking lot. When he was ordered out of the car, the suspect drove over the officer, who responded by discharging his duty weapon at the man. The suspect, 42, was struck by the gunfire and is currently in critical condition. The officer was injured and received medical treatment; he is expected to make a full recovery. The officer has been placed on administrative leave as the investigation proceeds. The identity of the officer and the suspect will not be released at this time.

The Cut Bank Police Department requested that DCI investigate the vehicular assault and subsequent shooting in the interest of transparency. Once the investigation is complete, the results will be submitted to the Glacier County Attorney for consideration of appropriate charges. As the investigation is in the early stages, additional details are not available.

"I'm glad to hear the officer survived the incident – the outcome could have been much worse," DCI administrator Bryan Lockerby said. "Every investigation into officer-involved critical incidents takes considerable time as our agents are always responsive, intentional, and thorough when processing the scene and following up with interviews, ballistics, and toxicology."

"I'm extremely thankful that our officer survived this critical incident," Cut Bank Police Chief Mike Schultz said. "This event unfolded rapidly and could have had fatal consequences for a valued public servant and his family."

The Green Cook TentBryce Angell*

The day was nearly over, starting out at early sun. Each horse was fed and watered. They were worn and all but done.

The cowboys trudged while walking. Said, "Our legs feel just like lead."

So, they shuffled to the green cook tent in hopes of getting fed.

The green cook tent had seen its share of blood from years gone by.

Where medics patched up soldiers, in hopes they wouldn't die.

The cloth was torn and tattered, not so pleasant at first glance. But now it housed the cowboys. It deserved another chance.

The cold night air was frigid but inside the green cook tent, was hotter than blue blazes from the wood stove's open vent.

Soon enough the tent would hear the cowboys spinning tales and offering heaps of wisdom with embellishing details.

Inside the makeshift kitchen, t-bones waited patiently, next to the baked potatoes our cook had wrapped so carefully.

The smell of red-eye gravy put each nose up in the air. One cowboy said, "I'm 'bout as hungry as a grizzly bear!"

The air was full of hungry chatter thick enough to slice. They were waiting for permission and no need to ask them twice.

One humble hungry cowboy offered grace upon the meal. Now the feast would be devoured with hyena cowboy zeal!

The cowboys grabbed their plates and then the nod came from the cook.

The frenzy jumped up to the food like fishes to a hook.

Loud voices were replaced by sounds of clinking cutlery. Each cowboy was engrossed and ate with quiet intensity.

With bellies full the cowboys pulled out cookies from a jar. One cowboy sang some George Strait music played from his guitar.

The cook recited poetry. Another told a tale of an uncle selling whiskey, how it cost him time in jail.

The cowboys sat there smiling, spirits full with plumb content, while surrounded in the arms of the old army green cook tent.

Then one by one each cowboy stood and walked out in the night. The last one tied the tent flap door with square knots nice and tight.

The green cook tent was empty but for only just a while. 'Cuz breakfast was now certain. How that made the old tent smile.

Interpretive programs scheduled for more June weekends at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

More interpretive programs have been scheduled through the end of June at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park.

The park's Friday- and Saturday-evening events will each begin at 8 p.m. at the campground amphitheater and last about an hour.

- June 14: Songs of the Dawn Priests: Join guest speaker Franco Littlelight who uses storytelling, art, poetry, music and song to present the history of the Crow Tribe.
- June 15: Night Skies at Lewis & Clark Caverns: This popular program is back to highlight the stories of the stars that you can see in the night skies over Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park.
- June 21: Plants & Us: Guest speaker Robyn Klein will show live plant examples of some of the fascinating edible and medicinal plants of Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park. She'll also demonstrate how to make pressed plant cards.
- June 22: Tick Talk: It's tick season in Montana. Learn about these creatures we love to hate and how to venture forth safely in tick country.

Guided hikes are planned for the next several Sunday mornings. Visitors are encouraged to bring water, sunscreen and sturdy shoes for some quality time outside. Both hikes will begin at 9 a.m. at the main visitor center.

- June 16: Birds of a Feather Walk: Stroll with us for an hour through the campground and see how many of our feathered friends you can spot. Binoculars will be provided for anyone who needs them.
- June 23: Flower Power: The park might seem like it's all just sagebrush, grass and juniper. But a closer look reveals the glorious wildflowers that are blooming right now. This 90-minute moderate hike will offer you a new look at the colors of spring in southwestern Montana.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park is about 15 miles southeast of Whitehall, along Montana Highway 2. For more information about the park call 406-287-3541.

TroyStrong Dillon Blood Drives

To give a little back ground about these drives and Tory Ross. Troy has fought a long and difficult battle with pulmonary capillaritis, a rare condition which causes his immune system to attack his lungs. Since his diagnosis in 2017, his main treatment medication depended on blood donations from selfless donors. Troy reached remission status in 2023 and has been enjoying playing football, going to school, and staying healthy.

Several years ago, Troy and his family who live in Great Falls decided to give back by sponsoring blood drive across the state. These drives are held in June every year and this is the 3rd year for the Dillon drives. Below are this year's drive details:

Secretary Christi Jacobsen:
'Montana Elections Team moves to next steps for 2024 Primary Election'
 Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen joined state and local election officials in celebrating an exceptional Primary Election Day. Secretary Jacobsen thanked the thousands of voters who cast ballots statewide while applauding election officials for their dedication in administering Tuesday's election.
 "Tuesday's election marked the successful culmination of the hard work put in by the Montana Elections Team," said Secretary Jacobsen. "For months, state and local election officials have been preparing to assist voters across the state, and it was an honor to serve them on this historic Election Day."
 "Thank you to the hundreds of thousands of voters who ensured their voices were heard at the ballot box. We look forward to serving you again in November's General Election."
 Polls opened across the state at 7 a.m. on Tuesday, and following the close of polls at 8 p.m., county election offices began reporting results to the Secretary of State's Election Night Reporting website – electionresults.mt.gov. Following the implementation of House Bill 196 (2023 Legislature), county election offices are required to publish results to the Secretary of State's official reporting website before releasing the results elsewhere.
 On Tuesday evening, Wibaux County was the first to report 100 percent of its results.

"Voters, candidates, and the media appreciate the efforts of election officials in providing results in a timely and accurate manner," said Secretary Jacobsen.
 Election results are available on the Secretary of State's Election Night Reporting website at https://electionresults.mt.gov/. As a reminder, results are unofficial until canvassed.
 In the coming days and weeks, state and local election officials will conduct Montana's post-election procedures, including the post-election audit and the county and state canvasses. The deadline for Montana's General Election ballot to be certified is August 22nd.
 Eligible Montana voters are reminded to get vote ready for the November 5th General Election by visiting VoteMT.gov.

2024 Lobster Sale Fundraiser a Success

The Dillon Lions Club would like to thank those people of Dillon and the surrounding areas that purchased the fresh Maine lobsters and made the fundraiser a success once again! We also greatly appreciate the several individuals who, rather than ordering lobsters, chose to donate directly to the local Lions Club. The Lions use the money made from this sale to help fund our local service projects and activities.

We want to express our appreciation to Womack's Printing Place and the KDBM-KBEV Radio Station here in Dillon for their excellent help in getting the word out about the fundraiser. Thanks to Lee Pelletier for allowing us to use his trailer to haul the boxes of live lobsters from the Bozeman Airport back to Dillon.

We're very grateful to Vigilante Electric Co-Op who once again graciously allowed the club the use of their Dillon facility as the site from which club members could distribute the lobsters and cook them for those who requested. They also served as one of the two businesses where community members could go to pick up their order forms.

Thanks go to Precision Eye Care and Optical for collecting the money for the lobsters and making order forms available.

The Dillon Lions Club is always looking for new members to share in community service activities. If you think you might be interested in joining or just want to learn more about the Lions Organization, please call the local Lions Club President, Fred Chouinard, at 1 (406) 660-2247.

Donate Blood In Honor of Troy Ross

Troy has fought a long and difficult battle with pulmonary capillaritis, a rare condition which causes his immune system to attack his lungs. Since his diagnosis in 2017, his main treatment medication depended on blood donations from selfless donors. Troy reached remission status in 2023 and has been enjoying playing football, going to school, and staying healthy.
