Catch Fire Ignite Hillside

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Saturday, July 6 the Grasshopper Volunteer Fire Department along with Dillon Volunteer Fire Department and the DNRC were called out to a fire burning on both sides of Taylor Creek Road.

The fire started from the dumping bins located a short distance from where the road starts next to Highway 278 near MM21. The fire rapidly spread up a nearby hillside and was being driven by heavy winds.

As of this release acreage was unknown and a large portion of the fire has been contained, a helicopter was in route to help knock down the fire in the hard-to-reach places.

Grandma's Tree Hut

Bryce Angell

Grandma looked excited as she fiddled with the phone. Her look was too familiar. I knew we wouldn't be alone.

She said, "The grandkids will be here in about a week or so. They'll be staying almost two whole weeks. Just want to let you know."

Grandma never let the grandkids veg and watch tv. So the outdoors and the country air is where the kids would be.

Grandma got this wild hair. She said, "I'll keep 'em busy. I'll build a tree hut twelve feet high. I've got this, it'll be easy."

I hope I'm not being sexist but when grandma said, "Tree hut." The words alarmed my senses right down into my gut.

Grandma's daunting project filled me with anxiety. And why are tree huts always built way up there in a tree?

Her hammer pounded all day long. Should I offer to assist? Or would she finally plead for help. An unexpected twist.

The rhythm of her hammer sounded out Poe's "Tell Tale Heart." Or the beat of my blood pressure. Couldn't tell the two apart.

The time it took to finish, stole three days from my life. Now I breathed a little easier. I still had a wife alive.

She couldn't wait to show me, and her face was proud as punch. But I felt some hesitation, I just had a nagging hunch.

The floor was lined with pine bark scabs. Just ready for a fall. The handrail, rotten to the core. Widow maker for us all.

Not sure about the ladder rungs. They looked like twisted moss. I wondered should I smell her breath? Was grandma on the sauce?

So, to offer my assistance would require diplomacy. 'Cuz if I crossed dear grandma, I'd be living in the tree.

One night while grandma visited Relief Society, with drill and hammer in my hand I set out for the tree.

I braced the floor with old fence posts then tossed the rotten rail. I screwed in solid quakey limbs. Dang sure they wouldn't fail.

I nailed new ladder rungs to hold the fattest guy like me. I'd made some drastic changes. Hoped that grandma would not see.

So, grandma saw the work I'd done. I wondered, should I fear? But that night she hugged and thanked me as she nibbled on my ear.

Forest Service completes Westphal Parks Acquisition in Tobacco Root Mountains

589 acres will be added to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest has completed the Westphal Parks Acquisition, adding 589 acres to the Forest in the Tobacco Root Mountains 14 miles east of Twin Bridges.

The acquisition was made possible through funding via Land and Water Conservation Funds (LWCF). The LWCF was established by Congress in 1964 to fulfill a bipartisan commitment to safeguard natural areas, water resources and cultural heritage, and to provide recreation opportunities to all Americans.

The Conservation Fund originally purchased the parcel from a private party who held the land until the Forest Service could acquire funding for the property.

"This type of acquisition would not be possible without valuable and trusted partners like the Conservation Fund, who facilitate these purchases on behalf of the American people," said Tim Lahey, Butte District Ranger.

The area is a popular destination for a wide variety of outdoor activities and exists in a scenic, rugged portion of the Tobacco Root range. Curly Lake Trail No. 7159 cuts through the north half of this property, providing easy access to Westphal Parks and several backcountry trail loop opportunities. This area was previously accessible via an easement but will now be fully incorporated into National Forest lands.

"Adding this property to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest will increase recreational, wildlife viewing and hunting opportunities by providing public access for generations to come," said Lahey.

For more information about the Westphal Parks Acquisition, please contact the Butte Ranger District at (406) 494-2147.

Gallatin Valley Outlaws Take Back To Back Wins On Cubs Home Turf

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Saturday, July 6 the Dillon Cubs played back-to-back home games against the Gallatin Valley Outlaws at Ray Lynch Park. The Cubs would fall 14 to 5 on game one and drop game two with a 2 to 14 loss.

Game 1

The Outlaws would get on the board first after Marcus Holen singled, and Brady Toner was struck by a pitch, each scoring a run.

Cohen Hartman hit a solo home run to left field in the bottom of the first for the Cubs.

The Outlaws would extend the lead in the second with a double by Marcus Holen, a home run to left field by Brody Ayers, and an error on the Cubs.

Andrew Bartlome and Cohen Hartman were a force together in the lineup, as they each collected two hits for the Cubs. Kanin Englehardt, Damon Skradski, Cohen Hartman, and Colby Garland each drove in one run.

Game 2

The Outlaws would take the game in the top of the third inning scoring eight runs on seven hits. Nick Albro earned the win for the Outlaws. The right-handed pitcher allowed four hits and two runs over five innings, striking out two and walking five.

Andrew Bartlome led the Cubs with one run batted in. The Cubs went 1 for 3 on the day. Kanin Englehardt, Andrew Bartlome, Kale Konen, and Jase Alvarez each collected one hit.

The Outlaws collected 16 hits in the game.

Women's Resource Center Opens New Crisis Shelter in Dillon, MT

The Women's Resource Center (WRC) is pleased to announce the grand opening of Heron House, a new shelter dedicated to providing safe and secure emergency housing for survivors of domestic and sexual violence in Beaverhead and Madison Counties. Established in 1977, WRC offers free, confidential services including crisis intervention, advocacy, education and outreach.

Heron House expands WRC's capacity to help meet the increasing demand for safe shelter in Southwest Montana. WRC advocates fill shelter openings on a first come, first-serve basis. A woman in need of emergency housing must first contact WRC's crisis line and speak with an advocate. The advocate assesses her situation and, if space is available, arranges for the woman and her children to come into the shelter.

During their temporary stay at Heron House, guests will receive vital support services such as counseling, legal advocacy and material assistance. They will be empowered to rebuild their lives with dignity and security.

"We are thrilled to unveil Heron House as a place of safety and security for survivors seeking refuge and healing," said Izzi Simonsen, Programs Manager of WRC. "This shelter stands as a testament to the compassionate spirit of our community and our steadfast commitment to support survivors of violence."

The new shelter is made possible through generous sponsorship from Beaverhead County, Bicentennial Inc., Hunter Family Capital, and private donations from Sandi and Mark Sloan, Donna and George Fryett, Sue and Mike Priebe and Carolyn and O. Temple Sloan Jr. "Such financial support," explained Rebecca Knotts, Executive Director of WRC, "advances WRC's mission to create a community where all individuals can live free from violence and fear."

Located at 236 E. Reeder in Dillon, the WRC main office operates Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., with 24-hour support services available through the National Domestic Violence Hotline (1-800-799-7233) and National Sexual Assault Hotline (1-800-656-4673).

For more information about WRC's services, volunteer opportunities or donation needs, please visit www.wrcmt.org or contact (406) 683-6106.

Shakespeare in the Parks to Perform "The Winter's Tale" at Montana Western Montana Shakespeare in the Parks will hold a free performance of Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale" on Friday, August 2, at 6:00 p.m. at the University of Montana Western Pioneer Federal Amphitheater on Legacy Plaza. Just bring your lawn chair, blanket, and a picnic dinner, and enjoy an evening of Shakespeare!

"A Winter's Tale" is a play that blends tragedy and comedy, centered around themes of jealousy, redemption, and the passage of time. This play spans sixteen years, during which a jealous king accuses his wife of infidelity and exiles his newborn daughter to Bohemia, where she is raised by shepherds and ultimately falls in love with the Bohemian king's son. Audiences are sure to relish this story of love, loss, and forgiveness.

"The play is one of Shakespeare's last, and as such, is blessed with a writer who really understood how to manipulate the form to achieve new heights of storytelling," shares Eva Breneman, Director of "The Winter's Tale."

Montana Shakespeare in the Parks is a cherished cultural program that has been bringing the timeless works of William Shakespeare to communities across Montana and neighboring states for over 50 years. Renowned for its high-quality, free outdoor performances, the program aims to make the arts accessible to everyone, fostering a love for theater and literature in audiences of all ages. Each summer, the talented cast and crew travel thousands of miles, setting up stages in parks, town squares, and other public spaces, ensuring that even the most remote areas can experience the magic of Shakespeare under the open sky.

For more information and to see Montana Shakespeare in the Parks' complete touring schedule, please visit <https://shakespeareintheparks.org>.

Montana Western's School of Outreach has brought Montana Shakespeare in the Parks to the Dillon community since 1986 and is a local sponsor of the event. We would like to thank our premier local sponsor, Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan, and our additional local sponsors: McIsaac Appraisal and the UMW Foundation.

For more information, please contact School of Outreach Program Coordinator Bethanie Wharton at 406-683-7537 or bethanie.wharton@umwestern.edu.
