The Disabled American Veterans (DAV) service organization could really use several more local volunteer drivers in Dillon. Dillon drivers use two locally housed DAV vehicles to transport veterans to their medical appointments which are usually at Veterans Administration medical facilities in Butte, Fort Harrison in Helena, and Bozeman. Over the past year, though, most medical appointments have been in Butte at the new VA Clinic or at St. James Hospital. Local drivers give rides to vets not just from Dillon, but from a number of other towns in our area such as Sheridan, Ennis, Whitehall and others. Typically in the past there have been a whole handful of local volunteers to help transport area veterans, but more recently Dillon is experiencing a serious shortage of volunteer drivers.

If you've been thinking about giving back to our nation's veterans who have helped preserve our freedoms, this is an excellent opportunity. To learn more about the DAV organization, you can go to <https://www.dav.org>.

If you think you'd be interested in being a local volunteer driver or would just like more information, please call Mike, Dillon's Local Area Coordinator, at (406) 560-3591.

The Saddle Horn

Bryce Angell

Good morning, Ma'am. I see you're here to learn to ride a horse.

I've saddled up old Jefferson, a tame one for the course.

First, we need to show you, Ma'am, how to climb up on the saddle.

You gotta do it right or Heaven knows what you might straddle.

Your left-hand grabs the saddle horn. Your right-hand holds the seat.

Put your left foot in the stirrup.

Now pull up. Your mount's complete.

Well, Ma'am, you seem a might confused and you're staring at the horn. We've got all day for questions and it's barely early morn'.

I hear you askin' if this horn has ever made a squawk?

It's a piece of wood and leather, and it's plumb near hard as rock.

So this here horn is quiet; it will never make a honk.

A noise like that would scare your horse right back into a bronc!

Yes, I know there are some animals whose horns we blow for sound.

But those horns are long and hollow, and this horn is saddle-bound.

Well, go ahead and try it, but this horn won't never beep.

You're talkin' about drivin', Ma'am. It's a saddle, not a jeep!

So you think that every saddlehorn should have a honk or two?

(You're pushin' all my buttons. Could we start this day anew?)

No, I ain't especially angry; we just need to move along. No, the horn will never make a sound. (I'm tellin' you, you're wrong!)

I think we need to start again. Are we finished with the horn?

(This day could be a long one. I'm already feelin' worn.)

You say your neighbor has a horn he put on his new saddle?

And you say he blows it every day to call in all his cattle?

Ma'am, I've never seen a saddle with a horn that makes a noise.

So, lady, blow your horn. (Gotta tell this to the boys!)

I'll be danged! I hear it honkin'! (I'm pretendin' just for you!

I love to hear my saddle horn play, "Feel'n' Mighty Blue.")

So hop up on your saddle. Honk your horn and play a tune.

We're gonna get this movin'. (Hope this day will end real soon.)

And tomorrow when we start again, the horn won't have a name.

I'll just say it's where you hold on tight.

I'm done with that horn game.

Local Dillon Firefighting Forces Band Together to Stop Highway Fire During High Fire Danger.

On July 13 at around 5 pm, what investigators believe was a trailer dragging a leveling jack, sparked a 63-acre wildfire off MT Highway 324, approximately 3 miles east of the town of Grant. Firefighters from the Dillon, Grasshopper, Grant, and Lima volunteer fire departments, alongside crews from the Montana DNRC and Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest, successfully stopped forward progress by utilizing fire engines and strategic water placement by Forest Service and DNRC helicopters. Crews will continue to monitor the burn area and extinguish any residual heat.

Firefighters across the state have been dealing with an uptick in human-caused wildfires, exacerbated by recent trends of high temperatures, low relative humidities, and increased wind speeds. Fire managers are asking our public to help them protect lives, property, and our beautiful natural resources by being extremely cautious with their activities.

"It only takes one spark to do a lot of damage during periods of high fire danger," said BJ Klose, Incident Commander, and Chief of the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department. "We ask that folks take extra caution and double-check what they are hauling and secure anything that can drag on the pavement and send sparks into receptive vegetation."

On average, 75% of wildfires in Montana are human caused. Residents and visitors can reduce fire risk through a few simple actions to protect themselves, their families, and the land:

- Obey all fire restrictions.
- Visit MTFireInfo.org for information on fire restrictions in place throughout Montana.
