RITA KAY PILGRIM

Rita Kay Pilgrim, 79, of Polaris, MT, passed away on Wednesday, July 10, 2024, at Village Nursing Home in Missoula, MT.

She was born on August 20, 1944 in Portland Oregon to James R. and E. Margaret Cummings Jorgenson.

Growing up Rita lived in Oregon, North Dakota and Montana. After graduating high school in Polson, Montana she attended Kinman Business College in Spokane, Washington. It was in Spokane where she met her first husband Edward C. Liska, they were married October 24, 1964. Together they had two children LaDonna and Michael. They later divorced in 1979. After that she moved to Polson, Montana with her kids and got a job working for the County Attorney's office.

Rita met the love of her life in Polson, William C. Pilgrim (Bill). They were married in September 1983. They later moved to Missoula and operated V-1 gas on Russell St.

Over the years, Rita and Bill enjoyed dancing, bowling, camping, hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, riding 4-wheelers and their side-by-side. She also loved reading her books. After retiring from V-1, they moved to their cabin in Polaris, MT and spent many years wintering down south.

Later in life she was diagnosed with MS. She did very well with her diagnosis for a long time. The heat really got to her but she never complained about anything.

Rita is preceded in death by her parents, older brother, Darrel Jorgenson, and her twin brothers Gene and Jerry Jorgenson.

She is survived by her husband Bill; daughter, LaDonna (Gordon) Hals; son Michael Liska. Stepdaughter Linda (Dave) Huffaker; stepson, William Pilgrim. Her grandchildren Levi Shepard, Lindsey (Rand) Pritzkau, Carson Shepard, Kirah Plummer, Melyssa (Toby) Orme, Thresa (Dan) Nelson, Michelle (Jessy) Coffman, Kyle (Chessa) Holthaus, Randy Bauer and Jodi Pilgrim (Dan Brooks). Along with her newest great grandson Rhett Pritzkau who called her GG.

A private family celebration will be held at a later date.

Bannack Days

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Bannack Days July 20 & 21 at Bannack State Park located a short drive from Dillon. The ghost town streets come alive every third weekend in July as Bannack Days brings in hundreds of people to discover what it was like to live in the old west.

Those participating in Bannack Days got to view an old west shootout in front of Skinner's Saloon. After the shootout kids got to participate in the Kandy Kaper.

Demonstrations were spread throughout town. Demonstrations included candle making, rag doll making, gold panning, and wagon rides. They also had viewable demonstrations that included barber impersonations at the Skinner Saloon, spinning demo, coffee roast demo, cavalry encampment, survey and mapping, tinsmiths, and much more.

If you missed this year's Bannack Days be sure to mark your Calendars for next year.

Gathering of the Species

Bryce Angell

Summer and reunions go together hand in hand.
On every weekend you can find them scattered 'bout the land.
But reunions are just gatherings and not for everyone, when you've only been there minutes and you want to cut and run.
One year ago, my wife was driving down to get the mail.
And there she found an invite. Changed her face from pink to pale.
The so-called invitation, from extended family, was sent to all the cousins from the Bandy family tree.
My wife was thinking hard about this gathering of the species.
She never had attended, now the first time in her sixties.
We marked the calendar, and with her younger sister Anna, made the drive in one long day, way back to Yaak, Montana.
The reunion started early. I'd say about midday.
Some folks were kinda tipsy and the rest were on their way.
Uncle Joe had proudly brought his homemade alcohol.
His wife declared, "It's strong enough to strip paint off your wall."
Joe had three full mason jars. He'd laid them out with haste.
And didn't put the lids back on till all had sipped a taste.
Nasty Uncle Herman flirted with the younger gals. He was 'bout to learn his lesson. You could hear their husband's growls.
He was no lady charmer from the alcohol's effect.
His comments were embarrassing with total disrespect.
So Uncle Jack stood up and in his military voice said,
"You can leave upright or horizontal. It can be your choice."
Cathy, Terri's cousin, practicing all natural,
believed cosmetics dangerous to body and her soul.
She cleaned with soap and water but stopped using armpit spray.
She'd disposed of creams and lotions two weeks ago today.
But her noxious odor mixed with Aunt Jane's secret potluck dish, turned crossways to the senses smelling more like rotten fish.
Later on, I noticed out the corner of my eye.
An older gal would stop at tables, talk, then say goodbye.
Yet no one knew the lady then my wife's voice rang out clear. "That was our dear Aunt Bertha and she must have shaved her beard!"
Though the gathering of the species had only just begun, we loaded in a dither, got out packin' on the run.

Police Searching For Firecracker Bandits

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Saturday, July 20th police received calls of multiple gun shots. Police began looking for the cause of the noise in the vicinity around walnut and vine street. Reports came in also of people throwing fireworks out of cars and mixed reports of gunshots. The reports came in from various locations throughout town.

Police were never able to locate the vehicle but believed it was fireworks being thrown from the vehicle as it traveled throughout town and outside of city limits.

The police are looking for the individuals involved and ask the public if they have any information to please contact them.

As a reminder the fire danger is at extreme, and this could have turned into something much more serious.
