Wade Edward McCord

Wade Edward McCord passed away on July 16th from prostate/bone cancer. Wade was born in Dillon, Montana on June 15, 1953 to LaVerne and Dorothy (Seybold) McCord. He attended school in Virginia City and Whitehall, Montana. He participated in 4-H, wrestling and high school rodeos. After high school he and his best friend Terry Olind sheered sheep, worked on the railroad and participated in all the rodeos they could, riding bulls and bareback broncs.

He married Loretta Ingram in 1983 and helped raise her three daughters Robin, Justeena and Brandi and they had a son, Terry McCord.

His stepson Jack Ashcraft has this to say about him:

Wade, "Big Mac" came into my life around 1997 when he married my mom. He was an honest, hardworking, incredibly tough man, and an exceptional father. Usually going by "Big Mac", he worked at the Golden Sunlight Mine in Whitehall for many years operating machinery and training new employees. Eventually, work took him to the Black Hills in South Dakota where he worked for the Barrick Gold Corporation, then on to the Elko, Nevada area. Afterwards, he worked at the Ruby Hill mine in Eureka, Nevada and ended his mining career in Ely, Nevada when he retired. When he wasn't busy at the mine, he still enjoyed shearing sheep which he'd done for many of his younger years. He was loved and respected by many of his coworkers for his calm, caring attitude and big smile with an infectious laugh. Always in top physical form, the only time I recall him being reprimanded was for doing pushups in the cab of the shovel while waiting for haul trucks to arrive.

About the time we moved to South Dakota, missionaries from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints became good friends of ours and we embraced the church. Wade held great devotion to the church and truly lived his life the best he could to uphold their ideals. The church has been a significant part of his life ever since.

Wade loved the outdoors and physical sports. Bull riding was a major part of his personality and he continued to compete well into his 40's. He'd often say, "You just gotta keep a leg on each side and your mind in the middle to win". The loss of his best friend and bull riding buddy Terry Olind was a huge blow to him and although he no longer competed, he was more than happy to watch reruns of the PBR on cable... every night. He was incredibly supportive and was there from my first mutton busting to junior rodeo and finally to bulldogging in high school rodeo (he said anyone with common sense wouldn't get on a bull - it didn't take much convincing for me to choose other events). My brother, Ben, and I loved it when he'd bring our horses down to the elementary school in Spring Creek so we could ride home instead of me taking the bus.

Wade was an excellent wrestler and helped coach the Ruby Mountain Wrestling little kids team in Spring Creek, Nevada which both my brother and I went through. About the same size as the junior high kids at 5'2" and 130 pounds, he made a very stout opponent even in his 50's. When he was in high school, he'd often chuckle when it was time for weigh-ins, saying he was so light that he'd have to eat a full meal to be eligible to wrestle in the 95 pound weight class.

Wade was diagnosed with stage 4 prostate cancer in 2013 and the doctors gave him 6 years to live if he followed all their treatment plans. If you know any bull riders, you know their stubbornness and this information didn't slow him down at all. In fact, he had to take a year off treatment due to a horse wreck in 2015 where a horse went over backwards on him, resulting in several broken ribs, cracked vertebrae and too many broken bones to count. As soon as he was able, he was back at spurring cancer into submission.

Eventually the cancer came back worse than before, and Wade retired from the machinery operating and training work that he loved and had done for so long. His thoughts turned to the past and rekindled relationships with all his children. He moved back and forth between Montana, Arizona, and Idaho while continuing his cancer treatments and spending time with his sister, kids, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was an incredible role model and an amazing dad. He was well-loved and will be missed by anyone lucky enough to know him. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother Jim McCord, step-daughter, Brandi McCord Haas, stepson, Ben Ashcraft.

He is survived by his brother Frank McCord (Anne Smart), sisters Vernine Bertrand (Jim), Elaine Bernard and Linda Newcomer, son Terry McCord, stepdaughters Robin Ingram and Justeena Colt Mitchell, stepson Jack Ashcraft, 11 grandchildren and 3 Great-grandchildren

Grand Opening Beaverhead Pickleball Association Public Pickleball Courts

When: Monday, July 29, 2024 6:00 p.m.

Where: Chris Kraft Beaverhead County Park, 1573 Overland Road

After nearly two years of fundraising and working with various organizations, businesses, and numerous individuals, the Beaverhead Pickleball Association is pleased to announce the opening of two public pickleball courts! Beaverhead County joins over 36 million players in the United States and 130 new courts added each month as of the end of 2023.

The building of these courts was truly a community effort with over $80,000 raised in monetary donations as well as in-kind donations of materials, labor, and supplies. While there are some details yet to be completed, the courts themselves are ready for play. Soon, free lessons will be offered by Association members for those who want to learn to play this sport that continues to grow each year.

The game originated in 1965 when two families of Joel Pritchard, Congressman from Washington State and Bill Bell, a successful businessman, found their families sitting around with nothing to do. Located on Bainbridge Island, WA, the Pritchard property had an old badminton court, so Pritchard and Bell looked for some badminton equipment and could not find a full set of rackets. They improvised and started playing with table tennis paddles and a perforated plastic ball. At first they placed the net at badminton height of 60 inches and volleyed the ball over the net. As the weekend progressed, the players found that the ball bounced well on the asphalt surface and soon the net was lowered to 36 inches. The following weekend, Barney McCallum was introduced to the game at Pritchard's home. Soon, the three men created rules, relying heavily on badminton. They kept in mind the original purpose, which was to provide a game that the whole family could play together.

The game that comes to Beaverhead County is what the originators envisioned: a game for the whole family. Open hours of play are Monday through Friday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday & Thursday from 5 p.m. to dark, and Weekends and Holidays 7 a.m. to dark. If the courts are not in use at any time they are available to the general public.

Please join us for this community event on Monday, July 29th!!

Bannack State Park boardwalk replacement & upgrades
 The goal of this project is to improve accessibility to and enjoyment of Bannack State Park for everyone. When ADA improvements at Bannack State Park started to take shape in the early 1990s, a wooden boardwalk was considered the best option to provide accessibility "without intruding on the historic integrity of the site." The management plan completed in 2000 called for the boardwalk to be "expand{ed}" to run the length of the townsite, from east to west, on both the north and south sides of Bannack." The boardwalk has been expanded, but there are still some small sections that need to be completed, and there have been lateral elements added to improve interior access to buildings. Two of the most significant and prominent building in Bannack, the Hotel Meade and Methodist Church, have seven step risers, which many visitors find hard to negotiate, are now accessible because of the lateral additions to the boardwalk. Comments due Aug. 2.

Update from the Blacktail Canyon Fire
 The evacuation warning issued by Butte-Silver Bow Law Enforcement Department for Blacktail Canyon Road southeast of Homestake Road, Homestake Road east of Blacktail Canyon Road, and Passmore Canyon is still in effect.
 An aerial mapping flight puts the fire at 76 acres, including a couple spots identified and suppressed by crews today.
 Crews progressed with construction of sawline and handline around the fire perimeter. Though little smoke was visible today, there is still a tremendous amount of residual heat in the smoldering fuels, especially along the fire edge.
 Crews will continue to hold and improve the constructed lines over the next couple of days. Helicopters will provide aerial support, as needed.

Additional county in southwest Montana placed under Stage II fire restrictions
 Mineral County entered Stage II fire restriction on Saturday, July 20. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks follows the counties' lead in placing fire restrictions on its properties within each county.
 These restrictions are in place for all fishing access sites (FAS), state parks and wildlife management areas (WMAs) managed by FWP in Mineral County, including Fish Creek WMA and state parks.

AREA YOUTH BEAUTIFY SOUTHWEST MONTANA VETERANS MEMORIAL

Youth from around southwest Montana gathered in Dillon on Saturday, July 13, 2024 to clean up the Southwest Montana Veterans Memorial. The youth came from Dillon, Lima, Sheridan, Whitehall, Butte, Anaconda, and Deer Lodge and are members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. They spent their time pulling weeds, replenishing the rock near the waterfall, trimming trees and shrubs, cleaning the boulevard, sweeping the pavilion, sanding and staining the picnic tables and pavilion and scrubbing the memorials.

"I am very happy for the help," said Ronnie Lake, President of the Southwest Montana Veterans Memorial. "People have noticed how nice the waterfall area looks. The youth were responsible and worked until the job was completed."

Mike Miller, President of the Kiwanis Club of Dillon also said, "Thank you to all the folks who gave up their Saturday to help our club as we try to maintain the park as best we can. We would never be able to complete all the projects these folks did. So please know we appreciate your support and time."

The service was part of a larger day of learning and socializing to build faith, sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

"There's no better way to teach youth how to emulate Jesus Christ than through service," said Sam Stockett, a local youth leader with The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. "We're grateful to everyone involved who facilitated the opportunity for these teenagers to make a difference in their community."

Latter-day Saint youth look for ways to serve in the communities where they live as they learn how to be better disciples of Jesus Christ.
