Montana Western & Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series Present "Gutenberg! The Musical!"

The University of Montana Western's Theatre Department and Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series are excited to present "Gutenberg! The Musical!" from August 22-31, 2024.

Get ready for a hilarious evening with "Gutenberg! The Musical!" In this uproarious two-man show, aspiring playwrights Bud and Doug are on a mission to impress producers with their ambitious—and delightfully misguided—musical about Johann Gutenberg, the inventor of the printing press.

With boundless enthusiasm, they tackle every role and belt out catchy songs in their over-the-top historical spoof. Join them on this comedic journey filled with outrageous antics and unexpected twists as they strive for that coveted Broadway contract.

Don't miss your chance to laugh out loud and witness their quirky charm! Grab your tickets today and be part of this unforgettable theatrical adventure!

"Gutenberg! The Musical!" is written by Anthony King and Scott Brown, directed by Stephen Alan Seder, with music direction by Lindsey Nussbaum, and features standout performances by Hugh Butterfield and Cody Root. All cast and crew are former Virginia City Players members, a professional theatre company located in Virginia City, Montana, known for performing classic melodramas and vaudeville-style entertainment.

Shows will be held in UMW's Beier Auditorium on Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays at 7:30 p.m., with Saturday matinees at 2:30 p.m. To purchase tickets, please visit the BOC Performing Arts Series Box Office webpage (www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/box-office/). Tickets are $16 for general admission, $12 for seniors (65+), youth (18 & under), and military, $10 for UMW faculty/staff, and free for UMW students with a student ID. This show is rated PG-13 and each performance will feature a surprise cameo!

For more information on this year's BOC Performing Arts Series, visit www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/ or contact Assistant Professor of Theatre, Stephen Seder, at stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038.

Thank You

The family of Sally McEldery wish to extend our sincere thanks for the many kindnesses, and for the condolences and support that we have received. We also send our gratitude and appreciation to the staff at Beehive Homes and Hospice for their thoughtfulness and care they gave our mom during her short stay at their facility. We wish to thank Barrett Hospital and Healthcare, Dr. Hansen and staff, Beaverhead County Ambulance Service, Brundage Funeral Home, Father Pascal Kasanziki of St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Missoula, Father Gregory Lively of St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church in Dillon, St. Rose of Lima ladies for hosting the reception, The American Legion Post #20, Stephens Greenhouse, friends and family for sharing in Sally's life. A very special thank you to her exercise/coffee group for keeping her young and active!

Sincerely,
McEldery Family

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen waiving 2025 Annual Report fees, again saving Montana businesses millions

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen is once again waiving fees for Montana businesses.

Secretary Jacobsen announced that the 2025 Annual Report filing fees will be waived for all Montana businesses, resulting in millions of dollars in savings. Secretary Jacobsen previously eliminated the 2024 Annual Report filing fee and is excited to provide savings to hard-working Montana businesses once again.

"The Secretary of State's Office is proud to make it easier to do business in Montana, and we're working daily to assist businesses on their journey," said Secretary Jacobsen. "By cutting and waiving fees, increasing efficiencies, and providing excellent customer service, Montana businesses can focus more on their day-to-day tasks to provide services and products to our communities."

In addition to numerous compliments and gratitude provided by Montana businesses, the state's Legislative Audit Committee also applauded the Secretary of State's Office for continuing to support Montana businesses and finding ways to save them money.

"I would like to say, 'Thank you.' It's great when government can actually work for the people and give the people back their money, or not charge them for something," Senate President and Legislative Audit Committee Chair Jason Ellsworth said during a June meeting. "I encourage the Secretary of State to keep that going, and let's let businesses be businesses in Montana while continuing to save them money."

Since taking office in January 2021, Secretary Jacobsen has cut registration fees in half for new Montana businesses while reducing and eliminating several other fees entirely. Under the leadership of Secretary Jacobsen, Montana has experienced record growth in new business filings in each of the past three years. Nearly 60,000 new businesses registered with the Secretary of State's Office in 2023.

Last year, the Mountain States Policy Center (MSPC) honored Secretary Jacobsen for making it easier to do business in Montana. MSPC recognized Secretary Jacobsen with its Elevation Award, the highest honor of the organization, "given to individual(s) who are committed to advancing and elevating free market principles and ideas. It is presented to a top innovator, business leader, or elected official in Idaho, Montana, and Washington."

"We're grateful for the positive impact our local Montana businesses have on our state," said Secretary Jacobsen, "and the Secretary of State's Office is proud to be a partner to the Montana business community."

"Thank you for doing business in Montana," she added.

First Peoples Buffalo Jump State Park to host Annual Mammoth Hunt

Experience what it's like to throw atlatls and tomahawks and to use primitive bows and arrows at the Annual Mammoth Hunt at First Peoples Buffalo Jump State Park. The event takes place Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 10 & 11, from 10 am to 4 pm.

Montana State Parks staff and Jim Ray, who has more than 20 years' experience, will provide the opportunity to learn about and practice with the atlatl, a 10,000-year-old weapon that predates the bow and arrow.

Visitors also will have the chance to shoot primitive bows and arrows and to throw tomahawks. Billy Maxwell will be demonstrating First Peoples traditional skills. Maxwell is a former farm kid turned cultural anthropologist. George Bryce, from Helena, will be demonstrating flint knapping during the event.

For those who get hungry, Vintage Nana's Indian Taco Food Truck will be on hand selling their traditional fare.

First Peoples Buffalo Jump State Park is 3.5 miles north of Ulm, just off Interstate 15 at Exit 270. For directions or more information about First Peoples Buffalo Jump State Park visit: http://stateparks.mt.gov/first-peoples-buffalo-jump/.

For more information about the Annual Mammoth Hunt, contact Andy Keller, First Peoples Buffalo Jump State Park Ranger, at 406-866-2217 or andy.keller@mt.gov.

Attorney General Knudsen files brief in support of national TikTok ban

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen led a coalition of 21 attorneys general in asking the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia to uphold the national TikTok divest-or-ban legislation passed by Congress earlier this year.

The federal law bans TikTok in the United States if Chinese-owned ByteDance, TikTok's parent company, does not sell their stake in the platform. ByteDance and TikTok sued the federal government following the ban.

The attorneys general are asking the court in an amicus brief filed Friday to deny TikTok's petition as it is within Congress's power to act on matters of national security and foreign affairs. TikTok is a threat to national security and consumer privacy as the company collects user data that could be shared with the Chinese Communist Party, infringes on Americans' right to privacy, and promotes dangerous content to minors.

"TikTok is a Chinese Communist Party spy tool and is feeding harmful content to children. It should be banned. In Montana, we were first to recognize that and I'm glad Congress followed our lead," Attorney General Knudsen said. "The court should uphold the law that protects Americans from the CCP – a self-declared enemy of our country."

TikTok has confirmed its technology and infrastructure are ultimately controlled by the Chinese government. While TikTok claims the First Amendment protects their right to spy on Americans, the ban does not violate the company's free speech rights because it doesn't target behavior with a significant expressive element, or single out those engaged in expressive activity.

Allowing TikTok to operate in the United States without severing its ties to the Chinese Communist Party exposes Americans to the risk of the CCP accessing and exploiting their data.

"TikTok is a valuable tool for conducting corporate and international espionage, and it may allow the Chinese Communist Party to track the real-time locations of public officials, journalists, and other individuals adverse to the Chinese Communist Party's interests," the attorneys generals stated in the brief.

Montana was the first state to ban TikTok during the state's 2023 Legislative Session, an effort led by Attorney General Knudsen.

Attorneys general from Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, and Utah joined Attorney General Knudsen and Virginia Attorney General Jason Miyares in filing the brief.

Volleyball Tops Frontier Preseason Poll

The Frontier Conference released the preseason volleyball coaches' poll. The coaches from the league selected Montana Western as the preseason favorite. Montana Western received two first place votes. Providence and Montana Tech each also tallied two first place votes.

The Bulldogs enter the 2024 season as the reigning Frontier Conference tournament champions after they capped off the historic 2023 campaign with an overall 22-8 record. The Bulldogs posted their highest win percentage since the 1996 season and made their first ever appearance in the NAIA Women's Volleyball National Tournament and went 1-2 overall.

UMW will be returning 15 players from last season's conference championship squad, including all-conference players Danyel Martin, Jordan Olson, Jazi Smith, and all-freshman team selection Sophie Worden. In addition, the Bulldogs return standout libero Kelsey Goddard who was third in the conference for total digs (556) and fourth in the conference for digs per set (5.20) after last season.

"We are really excited about this year. We are bringing back a lot of our core after graduating only two seniors," Head Coach Katie Lovett said. "We have a really tough schedule ahead of us, not only in the Frontier Conference, but also with our out of conference schedule as well. We are really optimistic about it and excited about going against some really tough competition early on."

Skihi St

R. E. Miller and Sons will begin our initial stage of repairing and repaving Skihi St beginning Monday August 5th. In order for us to accomplish this, Skihi St will be closed until the project is completed. We appreciate your patience during this time and we will do our best to have as little negative impact as possible until the completion of this project.

Veteran's Corner Update

By Mike Lawson

Veteran News Updates:

- The VA Caregiver Support Program's (CSP) August 2024 Resource of the Month is called "Virtual Psychotherapy Program for Caregivers." It's not always easy taking care of a loved one and the Veteran's Affairs (VA) is committed to supporting caregivers with empathy and compassion. If you are a Veteran's caregiver and are interested in one of the following: * Improving your mental health. *Want access to confidential and customized therapy. *Participating in virtual Therapy sessions from your own home, visit www.caregiver.va.gov. and /or call 1-855-260-3274 toll free.
- Celebration is in order for 80 years of the GI Bill signed by President Franklin D Roosevelt on June 22,1944. It is otherwise known as the G.I.Bill of Rights.
- The Pact Act has seen a great number of Veterans applying for and receiving healthcare benefits for toxic-exposure. If any of you veterans reading this had toxic exposure, please get checked out and get help from the VA.
- The VA has now granted 1.1 million Veterans and their survivors in fiscal year 2024, surpassing an all-time record.
- As many of you know, fishing can be therapy. Project Healing Waters Fly Fishing, https://projecthealingwaters.org, state that they "Guide Veterans in Need To Healing Through Camaraderie, Connectedness, and Fly Fishing." It would be good for any of us to check them out as we all have our moments a little Theraphy like this would be a soothing for our spirits.

I'll be back on Sunday and then off to the National Marine Corps League Convention in Rancho Mirage, California, near Palm Springs. This will be for another week and than back home until September. Stay out of the smoke and pray for rain to put the fires out.

Until next time, take care
