Jean Kathleen Heberling Stewart

November 13, 1946 — August 12, 2024

Jean Kathleen Heberling Stewart, 77, went to be home with the Lord on August 12, 2024. Jean burst through the doors of this world on November 13, 1946, in Kansas City, Missouri. She was the daughter of Charles Kenneth Heberling and Shirley May Phillips and soon became a big sister to Ken when they lived in Memphis, Tennessee. She would later speak fondly of the time she once water-skied on the Mississippi.

The family moved to Dillon, Montana, where her parents purchased and ran the Gamble's store. Jean attended Beaverhead County High School. She went on to complete her studies at Western Montana College, earning her secondary teaching degree in English. Jean married Greg Stewart in 1968. They moved to Nellis Air Force Base in Las Vegas while Greg was in the service. While he served as an airplane mechanic, Jean taught new recruits reading and writing skills, which enabled them to read and interpret schematics. After their work at the air force base, the couple moved back to Dillon, and together they built a family. Greg and his dad ran Stewart Construction, dappling the town with new homes. Greg purchased the business upon Carl's retirement and subsequent move to California. Jean supported Greg in the business and cared for their three young children, Cathy, Greg, and Chris.

On February, 3 of 1978, the family was making a trip in a motorhome to California when tragedy struck. A horrific vehicle collision took Greg's life, but Jean and all of the children were miraculously spared. Through her strong will and the love and support of the Stewart, Heberling and countless Dillonite families, Jean continued raising her children in Dillon.

Over the years, Jean mastered cooking, creating savory dishes for her family. Fried chicken, homemade noodles for chicken noodle soup, and meatloaf that children greatly looked forward to eating were some of her delectable dishes. Her grandchildren delighted in her pink cinnamon applesauce. She was not afraid to experiment in the kitchen, either, and discovered that Jell-o containing celery and onions doesn't get great reviews. Garnishing the wiggly treat with American cheese was even considered appropriate in certain circumstances.

Outside the home, Jean participated in many community on-goings. She served for many years on the elementary school board and also dabbled in substitute teaching. She coordinated the Beaverhead County Fair on-goings for a few years, as well. In the late nineties, Jean developed a subdivision, Pioneer Lookout, north of town. She also helped out with real estate appraisals at McIsaac Appraisal. Around 2010, Jean circled back to the teaching for which she attended college and moved to Miles City, where she taught English courses at Pine Hills School for Boys. In this capacity, Jean did her part to help young men to get back on the right track, improving their chances for positive well-being. After about five years, Jean retired from teaching and returned to her home in Dillon. She busied herself with gardening and attending to her faithful dog, Tippy. Her independence, spunk, occasional cantankerous moments, and the unconditional love that she offered with a full heart will be greatly missed.

Jean was preceded in death by her parents and husband, and she is survived by her three children, Cathy Stewart, Greg (Kim) Stewart, and Chris (Marisa) Stewart, as well as her brother, Ken (Margo) Heberling. She was also blessed with the extended but close family in the Harringtons, Ibeys and Scotts, along with many nieces and nephews, eleven grandchildren, and two great grandbabies.

A memorial service will be held 10:00 A.M. on Saturday, August 24, at Brundage Funeral Home, with graveside service to follow at Mountain View Cemetery.

Home School Students

As Beaverhead County's public schools move toward the first day of school, those parents who wish to home school their children are also preparing for the new school year. Parents must notify the County Superintendent of Schools (Mike Miller) that their child is (or children are) being homeschooled.

The mandatory information parents need to provide the Superintendent's office is (1) a written notice of the intent to home school and (2) the "Notification of Opportunity to Participate in Federally-funded Program" Form. These forms are available at the Superintendent's office, on the County's website, or may be requested through an email or phone call at 406.683.3737. The Superintendent's email address is mmiller@beaverheadcountymt.gov. These forms take approximately 5-6 minutes to fill out and can be completed right in the office.

Parents must file these documents as soon as possible, but certainly before 1 October 2024.

Bulldog Football Checks In At No. 11

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has announced the results of the preseason NAIA Football GoRout Top 25 Poll. Montana Western Football came in at no. 11 on the season's initial poll.

The Bulldogs finished up the 2023 season going 9-2 on the season and a perfect 7-0 in the back end of the Frontier gauntlet, earning the outright conference title for the first time since 1995 and their first championship since 2021.

The Bulldogs will play ten games this season, with a balanced slate of five home and five away games. The defending Frontier Conference champions will kick off the historic season in the newly built Bulldog Stadium on Sept. 7 against Eastern Oregon.

BENEFITS OF GROUP THERAPY FOR OLDER ADULTS

Group therapy can be a highly effective form of mental health support for older adults. It provides a unique set of benefits that can enhance emotional well-being, social connections, and overall mental health. Here are some of the key benefits of group therapy for older adults:

Social Support and Connection

One of the most significant benefits of group therapy is the opportunity to connect with others who share similar experiences. For older adults, feelings of loneliness and isolation can be common, especially if they have lost loved ones or are living alone. Group therapy provides a supportive environment where participants can form meaningful relationships, share their stories, and offer mutual support.

Reduced Feelings of Isolation

Participating in group therapy helps combat isolation by providing regular opportunities for social interaction. This can be particularly important for older adults who may have limited social opportunities due to mobility issues or living in remote areas. The sense of belonging that comes from being part of a group can significantly improve emotional well-being.

Shared Experiences and Empathy

In group therapy, members often find comfort in knowing that others have similar struggles and experiences. This shared understanding fosters empathy and compassion among group members, making it easier for individuals to open up about their feelings and challenges. Knowing that they are not alone in their experiences can be a powerful source of comfort and validation.

WE CAN HELP.

Our hospital-based outpatient program is designed to meet the unique needs of older adults experiencing depression and/or anxiety related to life changes that are often associated with aging or a chronic diagnosis. Anyone can make a referral to our program, including self-referrals, provider referrals, or community consultations.

Call us today at 406-683-3145.
