John Kenneth "Ken" Heberling

John Kenneth "Ken" Heberling, aged 75, passed away on August 21, in Billings. A service to honor Ken's life will be held at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon, on September 10th, 2024, at 10:23 (not a typo, if Ken ever scheduled a meet up time with you, this makes perfect sense). In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Beaverhead County Humane Society, a cause close to Ken's heart.

Darrell and Linda Johnson

"The family of Darrell and Linda Johnson would like to invite you to a gathering to celebrate their lives. This will be an informal time to visit with friends and family who were part of our parents' lives.

Please come to the Jaycee Park (E Reeder and S Washington Streets in Dillon, MT) Tuesday, September 10th, from 2-4 p.m. Bring a chair and stories to share. Light refreshments and snacks will be provided.

September 10th would have been their 59th wedding anniversary, we hope you can stop by and spend a little time remembering our Dad and Mom with us.

~~ Teresa and Sharon

Shirley Lee Magnus

December 15, 1935 - September 7, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Shirley Lee Magnus, who departed this life on September 7, 2024. She was 88 years young. Shirley was born on the Redfield family homestead ranch house 7 miles south of Twin Bridges. She was the 5th child born to Ralph and Clara Redfield.

She went to school at Twin Bridges School and graduated in 1954. She married her high school sweetheart, handsome Sheridan boy John Magnus. Their life time adventure began raising their 3 children and working mining camps and prospecting for gold in and around the mountains of Montana. They were married for 65 years. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandma and great-grandma who loved her family fiercely, rarely missing a sporting event and always making everyone feel special on their birthday. She loved to tell stories about her growing up years and loved to laugh. In her youth she was a skilled horse rider.

Shirley will be remembered for her kindness, thoughtfulness, generosity & steadfastness. She read her Bible everyday and loved the Lord. She had a wonderful sense of humor and loved to tease. She could plan and host big family gatherings at her home, serving wonderful meals & her legendary banana bars. Nothing brought her more joy than having all her family together for card parties and holidays. She enjoyed trips south in her camper with John to Las Vegas and Laughlin to play slots and 21 and seemed to always have a bit of the Lady Luck on her side, She could cut a rug with the best of them & spent many years clogging with the Butte Silver Bow Stompers.

She was known for her fashionable outfits and beautiful jewelry and always looked her best, often hearing she didn't look (or act) her age.

She cherished her lunches and time with childhood cousins-friends, Louise Butts Burk and Kaye Butts Guinanne. She is already deeply missed by all who knew & loved her.

Shirley is survived by her children Marilyn Walter (Tom), Michael Magnus (Susan) and John Magnus Jr. (Angie); grandchildren Gayle Lee Walter, Michael Walter (Shaleena), Shelly Higgins (Patrick), Jake (John the III) Magnus (Katie), Jonathan Walter (Yera) and Ryan Evans. Also surviving her, brother Bob (Robert) and wife, Eileen Redfield, and 14 great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents Ralph and Clara, her husband John Magnus Sr., sisters Penny (Phyllis), Pat (Ruth) and Betty, brothers Bud (Ralph Jr) and Keith, grand daughter Jennifer Magnus.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, September 12, at 1:00 pm at Taylor Hill Cemetery in Alder; Montana, with a reception following at the Alder Community Center in Alder, MT. The family extends their heartfelt thanks to the nursing Staff

Missoula Community Medical Center, for their compassionate care and support during this time. In the event of inclement weather, services will be held at the Alder Community Center In lieu of flowers. The Family requests that donations be made to the Sheridan Senior Center.

A Place for Albert

Bryce Angell

In July of 1969 we'd rounded up a crew. Our wranglers worked from dawn to dusk. They weren't no pack of fools.

You couldn't be a sissy and you better have some guts. You were asking to get injured if you had a hint of klutz.

But each year my father hired one man. Back then, called city dude. A greenhorn from the city and who didn't have a clue.

He said, "We'll take the time to teach and when this year is through. If the man has heart then maybe he will fit right in this crew."

The forman grabbed a cigarette and wrinkled his best frown. My father claimed, "I know we'll win. No man has let us down."

Well, Albert was the one he chose, a soft and pudgy fellow. His body showed no muscle tone, more like Kraft's marshmallow.

Albert was a timid man, but one who should be bold. Could Albert muster courage? He sure did not fit the mold.

He was scared to death of horses and a nervous wimpy guy. Had my father really chose him? You had to wonder why.

He caught his horse one early morning, but those times were few. Another horse snuck up on him; he whirled and hollered, "Shoo!"

My dark bay mare reached back at him and bit him on the butt. He jumped and yelled, "Has she gone mad?" Albert sounded like a nut.

The wranglers felt some pity so they saddled up his horse. Still, Albert was afraid and couldn't finish out the course.

The cowboys were a kinder breed. They helped him every morn. But kindness only goes so far. His welcome, he'd outworn.

It looked like Albert might be done. He'd be one for the book. But Hank got drunk and married. Now we didn't have a cook.

Albert's eyes were grinning when he said, "I'll cook for you. Give me a stove and frying pan. I'll feed this hungry crew."

Breakfast was at six a.m. Flapjacks a golden brown; hot syrup mixed with eggs and bacon, coffee swirling down.

One cowboy hollered, "Albert you ain't got that cowboy look. You'll never sit the saddle but you sure know how to cook."

My father's years had proved him wise. He'd gambled, then he won. And so, I learned a lesson. There's a place for everyone.

Football Celebrates Bulldog Stadium Opener with Rout of Eastern Oregon

The no. 11 ranked Montana Western football team (1-0) opened the 2024 campaign in style after taking to the turf in the brand-new Bulldog Stadium and showing dominance in a 59-21 rout of Eastern Oregon University (0-1).

The historic afternoon featured a massive offensive showing, with the Bulldog offense rattling off 49 points in the first half alone behind the arm of Bulldog quarterback Michael Palandri.

"The guys really focused on improving every week that we have been preparing for game one and it showed in our performance," Head Coach Ryan Nourse said. "We made several mistakes we can really learn from after this game, as well as did many good things. Our ability to make explosive plays was a real positive and something I think we can continue to grow."

How It Happened

The Bulldogs came out hot from the start, seeing Palandri connect with Coby Tanioka early on in the first quarter on a 62-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-0 lead.

It was Palandri who struck next, rushing in for a pair of back-to-back touchdowns to give UMW a 21-0 lead.

Despite gaining a first down and some momentum, the Mounties were stopped in their tracks when defensive back AJ Ulrichs picked off EOU quarterback Quincy Glasper.

With 11 minutes remaining in the first half, the Mounties then stopped the Bulldogs in their tracks to force the first Bulldog punt of the season. UMW's JK Shealey helped to keep the Bulldog offense on the field though after he forced a fumble to give the Bulldogs the ball at the Eastern 28-yard line.

A pass from Palandri to Dylan Shipley for a 22-yard touchdown pass on the following play added to the Bulldog lead to put UMW up 28-0.

The Mounties scored on their own pair of drives to bring the game to 28-14 with just under five minutes left in the half. The following kickoff saw Bulldog returner Tanioka take it to the house on a 100-yard kick return for a touchdown.

A quick three and out by the Bulldog defense fueled another Bulldog drive that saw Palandri rush for his third touchdown of the matchup and close out the half up 42-14.

A two minute, five play and 77-yard drive culminated in a touchdown pass from Palandri to Eli Nourse for another Bulldog score.

UMW would score once more on their following drive behind Jake Humphrey who broke out on a 43-yard touchdown rush. The Bulldogs would lead 56-14 with just under four minutes left in the third quarter.

EOU capitalized on their own two-minute drive with a touchdown to cap their score at 21 for the remainder of the game.

Bulldog kicker John Mears drilled a 49-yard field goal to close out scoring for both teams and cement the 59-21 opening victory.

Notables

Today's win marks the first victory in the newly built Bulldog Stadium and the first game to ever be played on the campus of Montana Western.

Veteran quarterback Palandri led the offensive attack, throwing for three touchdowns and rushing for another three. He threw for 320 yards of offense and rushed for another 15 yards.

The Bulldog defense held the Mounties to just 31 rushing yards in the matchup and racked up six tackles for loss in the game.

Nourse led the Bulldog receiving corps, racking up 126 yards on nine receptions in the matchup.

The Bulldog ground game worked together for a total of 243 rushing yards. Humphrey led the ground game with 73 yards rushing and a touchdown.

Shealey and James Ochs led the defense with seven tackles apiece and a tackle for loss.

Mears went a perfect eight for eight in PATs and added a 49-yard field goal to boot.

Up Next

The Bulldogs move to 1-0 this season and will move into a big week ahead to prepare for the no. 4 ranked College of Idaho Yotes. Last season, the Yotes were the Bulldogs' kryptonite and were the lone Frontier team to defeat UMW.

The last time the two team faced each other, the Yotes strung together a whopping 621 yards of offense and ended the Bulldogs' postseason run after a 49-42 final score.

The Yotes enter the sept. 14 matchup with a 2-0 record and the hopes of making it a third straight win over the Bulldogs. UMW last downed the Yotes in a home battle on Oct. 22, 2022 by a final score of 40-35.

Beavers Blow Out The Stevensville Yellowjackets In Home Opener

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Beavers opened the football season with a 55-0 blowout against the Stevensville Yellowjackets Friday night at Vigilante Field.

The Beavers started the game in dominant fashion and had the clock running with 12 seconds left in the first quarter, finishing it 35-0.

At halftime, the Beavers led 41-0. In the next two quarters, you saw the second-string and third-string players take the field. The Beavers finished the game with a 55-0 win. They will take on Columbia Falls next Friday at Vigilante Field.

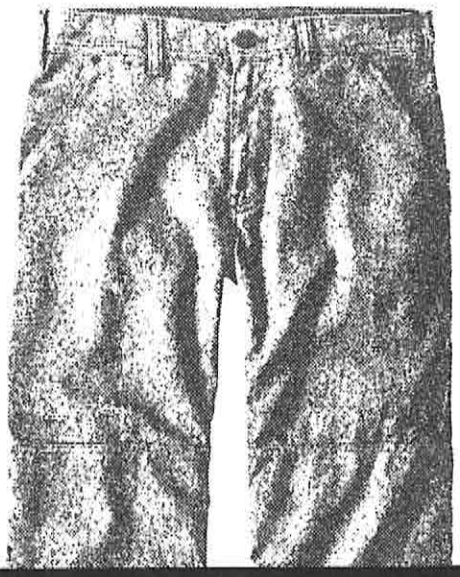
WORKWEAR



Take Hemp to Work

There's a reason why industrial hemp is the original work canvas. As a crop, it grows quickly with little to no irrigation, and can restore nutrients to topsoil. As a textile, it's durable, breathable and comfortable right off the shelf.
