Bulldog Football Jumps Into Top 10 in Latest NAIA Poll

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has announced the results of the NAIA Football GoRout Top 25 Poll No. 1. Montana Western Football came in at no. 9 in the poll.

Montana Western enters the week at 1-0 after lighting up the newly built Bulldog Stadium with a 59-21 victory over Eastern Oregon. The historic afternoon featured a massive offensive showing, with the Bulldog offense rattling off 49 points in the first half alone behind the arm of Bulldog quarterback Michael Palandri.

The veteran quarterback led the offensive attack, throwing for three touchdowns and rushing for another three. He threw for 320 yards of offense and rushed for another 15 yards.

The Bulldogs are slated with a massive top 10 matchup this week, taking on the no. 3 ranked College of Idaho Yotes for their home Frontier opener this Saturday.

FRONTIER IN THE TOP 25

- No. 3 College of Idaho Yotes
- No. 9 Montana Western Bulldogs
- No. 15 Montana Tech Orediggers
- No. 23 Southern Oregon Raiders

2 grizzly bears removed in southwestern Montana for livestock depredations

Two grizzly bears were removed last month due to cattle depredations in southwestern Montana.

One bear was killed in the Gravelly Mountains after several instances of sheep depredation. These conflicts happened despite multiple attempts to avoid them, including guard dogs, moving sheep to new areas, and hazing the bear.

The second bear was killed on private land in the Paradise Valley south of Livingston after chronic cattle depredations. The landowner moved cows twice, but conflicts continued.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Wildlife Services removed both bears on Aug. 21 in consultation with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks.

Specialists with FWP and Wildlife Services work to help landowners, producers and communities avoid bear conflicts. Promptly reporting bear conflicts can make a difference for the health of the bear and the safety of communities. Some corrective management efforts, when applied early, can be effective in discouraging bears from being close to humans and livestock and reduce future conflicts.

To report bear conflicts, contact your local bear specialist at the phone number listed on FWP's website.

Letter to the Editor

The USDA is Monetizing "Natural Processes" under the Sustains Act

The USDA is preparing a policy to implement the Sustains Act, determining who will own "environmental services" which will include the air we breathe, photosynthesis, pollination and the health benefits of open space with minimal public notification - a short 30 day comment period ending 9-16-24.

A grassroots effort shut down this January the "Natural Asset Company" scam that the Biden-Harris Administration tried to slip through with a proposed rule with the SEC.

American Stewards of Liberty reported it is resurfacing in a new form under the Sustains Act through the USDA and it is strongly associated with the 30X30 Plan and the proponents of the United Nations' sustainable development agenda as it provides the path to transfer America's real assets from private citizens to federal and international interests.

Natural processes have never been considered property before. To place a value on them is purely subjective. They are not true property rights. The value could be changed and controlled by the current administration.

The Sustains Act provides a way for private entities to contribute funds to help implement conservation programs on private land which sounds very benign but is deeply concerning because it might allow special interests to exert undue influence from private entities with specific agendas that could overrun the interests of property owners, and farmers and ranchers who are the backbone of American agriculture. Who will own the Environmental Services? Private entities should not be allowed to give money to the US government to "invest" in private land. Will we see a future of foreign governments (investor) holding the deeds and control to the majority of American farmland in exchange for carbon credits or water credits?

The current Secretary of the Department of Agriculture is to determine the ownership of the environmental services that are created on private land through the federal conservation programs. The "contributing entity" the funder, is to prescribe the terms of ownership subject to approval by the Secretary. The decision of who owns the environmental services does not include the producer or landowner and could be sold through an environmental services market. Wouldn't we be better off with a tax credit offered for conservation efforts to offset property taxes or some other avenue that better protects property owners?

Contact your legislators to voice your concerns or comment on Federal Register Docket ID NRCS-2024-0014 by September 16th.

Veteran's Corner Update

By Mike Lawson

The SW Montana Veterans Home's construction on the covered walkways/connectors, the landscaping and new road/dirt work, is finally coming to an end. Markovich Construction Superintendent John Kotka reported that the connectors have passed all inspections and the prepunch-list has been issued. The state will then inspect them before they can be used. The dirt-work behind the Southside of the cottages is being done by Hoffman Construction and is in the finishing stages. Becker Landscaping is also in the finishing stages of their work.

The DAV Vans for Butte, Anaconda and Dillon have been very busy giving veterans rides to their medical appointments this month and last. We continue to hear these veterans expressing their appreciation for the drivers doing this. This acknowledgement is the only pay our volunteer drivers get or want and know they made a difference in the well being of these veteran's lives. We become friends with our riders and when one passes away we feel a true loss. These friendships developed during our driving them are special for both them and us. My appeal goes out to any of you who would consider making a commitment to becoming a Volunteer DAV Driver, to give me a call for an application packet. 406-560-3591, DAV Van Coordinator for Butte/Anaconda/Dillon.

After the summer of activities that limit our Veteran organization's activities, meetings are getting in full swing again with veteran and community programs being planned. Getting together is enjoyable and friendships become stronger. Look into these Veteran Org meeting dates and put them on your calendar. An organization is only as strong as it's membership. With the older members becoming fewer and the need for younger members to fill their places, it's vitally important for this to happen or it will cease to exist.

End of life planning is never easy but the VA can help us plan. You can check this out by going to VA.gov/plan-ahead

I just recently went to my State Veterans Rep and got a copy of my DD215. It was effortless and worked well. The difference between my DD214 and DD215 was the updated addition of medals and ribbons that were not on the DD214.

I would encourage any veteran to request a DD215. Another way you could request this is through the milConnect website.

This week on Thursday, my wife and I will fly to St Lewis for the annual Toys For Toys training seminar and will be back on Sunday. Our Butte TFT's Campaign, covering Butte, Dillon, Ruby Valley, Whitehall and Harrison was picked the best in Region 7, which covers a dozen states. I am being presented Coordinator of the Year, which is a direct reflexion on our whole team of TFT's volunteers. Next month we'll kick off the 2024 TFT Campaign.

The Giving Tree
 The Giving Tree gang is getting overwhelmed with the magnitude of the project. We are looking for an organization or church (or an individual with time & energy & a lot of friends) that would like to take the Giving Tree and continue it into the future. We would love to work with someone this year to show them our system, and then hand over the reins! We start working on the Giving Tree November 1- so you have time to think about it, talk around, and come up with a plan.
