Allowee Heiner Briggs

July 16, 1923 — September 12, 2024

Allowee Heiner Briggs passed away in Mapleton, Utah, on September 12, 2024. Allowee was born July 16, 1923 in Morgan, Utah to Henry Heiner and Margaret Robison Heiner. Allowee is survived by her sons Scott (Betty), Cordell (Starla), and daughter, Marcene (Burke Hamilton). Allowee was preceded in death by her husband, Jack; daughter, Valaine; and her three brothers and two sisters.

Allowee and Jack were married in Manila, Utah in 1940 and later sealed in the LDS Temple in Salt Lake City, Utah. They ranched in McKinnon, Wyoming before moving to Dell, Montana in 1949 to establish a cattle ranch with Jack's father, his three brothers, and their families.

In 1979, the couple retired to Polson, Montana and started a legacy of raising and canning cherries. Allowee was a talented ceramics painter who shared her finished projects with friends and family and taught classes to many people over the years. She loved her popcorn, Diet Coke, and peanut M&Ms.

Allowee served in many capacities in the Lima Branch of the LDS Church, including Relief Society President. Allowee was a member of the Community Concert Committee in both Dillon and Polson that brought cultural and musical experiences to all residents. Jack and Allowee started to enjoy their winters in Saint George, Utah in 1998. In St. George, Allowee delighted in her service in the LDS Temple.

Allowee and Jack celebrated their 77th wedding anniversary in 2017. Allowee enjoyed 11 grandchildren, and many great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

A viewing was held on September 19, 2024 at the Berg Mortuary in Provo, Utah. Graveside services will be held on October 11, 2024 at 1:00 PM at the Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon, Montana.

Hoolihan Clayton will be signing copies of her books at The Bookstore on Saturday, September 21st from 1:00-3:00. Clayton is an indigenous author (First Nations Plains Cree). Having been adopted by a white family and raised on a cattle ranch in Wyoming, she has lived and worked with Native Americans and cowboys throughout the West. With a degree in history and inspired by her work as a research consultant, she has created a series of books that honor the Native tradition of teaching through story by way of factual narratives pertaining to the history of the American West and its consequences for American Indian peoples.

There are four books (to date) in the the Discretion Series: Commendable Discretion (A Detective Novel of the Old West), With Great Discretion (A Novel of Factual History about Heroism & the Cheyenne People), Small Light of Discretion (a novel of factual history regarding Treachery and the Expulsion of the Utes) and Discretion is Valor (A Novel of Factual and Grievous History Pertaining to the Chihenne & Mescalero Apache). Two books in the series have been finalists in the High Plains Book Awards.

Through painstaking and accurate research by the author the reader will become completely engrossed in the 19th century American West. The author brings the reader into every scene through rock solid history, cultural competence and suspense. Youth pheasant, waterfowl weekend begins Saturday

Young hunters can get a jump start this weekend on the pheasant and waterfowl seasons during the annual Youth Pheasant and Waterfowl Weekend, Sept. 21 and 22.

FWP releases pheasants that have been raised by Montana Correctional Enterprises on state-owned lands with suitable pheasant habitat. This week, in advance of the youth weekend, FWP is releasing nearly 3,000 birds at wildlife management areas (WMAs) and on suitable state land around Montana. The purpose of the pheasant release program is to give youth hunters an opportunity to experience hunting success, encouraging their future participation.

In addition to pheasants, licensed hunters, 15 and under, will be able to hunt ducks, mergansers, geese and coots statewide on these two days.

The two-day youth hunt is open to:

- legally licensed 12- to 15-year-olds who have completed hunter education and who are accompanied by a non-hunting adult at least 18 years of age;
- and properly certified and legally licensed apprentice hunters 10-15 years of age who are accompanied by a non-hunting adult "mentor" at least 21 years of age.

All regulations apply. The Canyon Ferry WMA hours differ from the regulations for youth waterfowl weekend. They will be one-half hour before sunrise to noon.

For information about the youth weekend, go to fwp.mt.gov/youth-hunt.

Sophia Wyatt

My name is Sophia Wyatt. I am a senior at Beaverhead County High School. My parents are Dan and Jill Wyatt. I have been a member of the MHSRA for 4 years. My events are pole bending, reined cowhorse, and shooting sports. I am the 3x State Champion Light Rifle shooter and have been the Montana High School rodeo queen for two years. At the 2024 National High School Finals, I placed 12th in the world light rifle and placed 8th in the Horsemanship category for the queen contest. After high school I plan to go to the Montana Western. I want to thank my amazing parents for all of their support during my rodeo career. I also want to thank Jay and Bernette Wagner for all of their help with preparing for nationals. And lastly, I would like to thank Joe Esposito for letting me practice in his arena and letting me practice reined cowhorse.

Clancy Setzer

My name is Clancy Setzer. I have been involved in rodeo for seven years. My events are breakaway and light rifle. I am also involved in FFA, 4-H, wrestling and dance. After graduation, I plan on attending MSU-Northern for welding or to study criminal justice. My favorite rodeo memories are qualifying for the state high school finals and the national high school finals in Rock Springs, WY. I would like to thank my mom and dad for driving me to rodeos, and my brother for pushing my calves and letting me ride his horse, sometimes!

Josie Robbins

My name is Josie Robbins, and I'm the daughter of J.T. and Jolene Robbins, and sister to Janci Robbins. This is my seventh year competing in Montana High School Rodeo, though I've been involved in rodeo since I was three years old. Currently, I compete in breakaway roping and goat tying, but throughout junior high and high school, I ran barrels, team roped, and did a little pole bending. Over these seven years, I've qualified for Nationals four times and earned titles as a two-time jr high State Champion Breakaway Roper and All-Around Cowgirl, along with many other accomplishments.

One of my favorite memories from my rodeo career so far is traveling to Des Moines, Iowa for Nationals during my eighth-grade year. Outside of rodeo, I also play basketball for the Lady Beavers and am a member of FCCLA. After high school, I plan to attend the University of Montana Western, where I will major in Health and Human Performance and continue my rodeo career, rodeoing for my dad.

I'm incredibly thankful for the many years of high school rodeo and the amazing people I've met along the way. I'd like to express my gratitude to everyone who has supported me in my journey as a competitor. Thank you to the Dillon community for being so welcoming and supportive throughout my time here, and to the entire Montana Western Rodeo Team for becoming like family and always pushing me to get better every day.

A special thank you goes to Janci for being my biggest cheerleader, and to my parents for all the sacrifices they've made to help me reach my goals. Your belief in me and constant encouragement through every high and low has helped shape me into the person and competitor I am today.

Lastly, I want to thank the Montana High School Rodeo Association for being such a positive influence in my life, for the lifelong friendships I've made, and for shaping me into the person I am today. I am forever grateful for the memories and moments over the last seven years.

If I could offer one piece of advice to those just starting to rodeo, it would be to enjoy every moment—both the highs and the lows—and always strive to be a positive influence on those around you!

Ryder Gaasch

My name is Ryder Gaasch, and I've been involved in the Montana High School Rodeo Association (MHSRA) for seven years, competing in steer wrestling, calf roping, and team roping. I'm a three-time Junior High Nationals qualifier and a two-time High School Nationals qualifier in steer wrestling. I'm also excited to be heading to the NRA Finals, where I'm currently leading in steer wrestling and the all-around.

Some of my favorite memories from high school rodeo are spending weekends with friends and family. Outside of rodeo, I enjoy hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, and working on the ranch.

Looking ahead, I plan to study ranch management or pursue a trade while competing in college rodeo. I also aim to pro rodeo next summer.

There are so many people I'd like to thank. First, I want to thank my mom and dad for everything they do for me, both in and out of the arena. They always have my back. I'd also like to thank my grandparents, Andy and Annabelle, for their constant support—they rarely miss a rodeo! I wouldn't be a steer wrestler without my grandma's cooking.

I'd also like to thank Jesse Peterson for providing great practices and to Bridger Chambers for coaching me over the years and letting me ride his horse, Rooster, this year. Thank you to Kenny Holland for allowing me to use his barn to run steers during the winter, and to Josh Boka for helping with practice and always reminding me to keep a positive mindset.

Finally, I want to give a huge thank you to my local sponsors here in Dillon, 18 Land Company and Lakeland Feeds—you are my biggest supporters, and I couldn't do it without you!

 The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics has announced the results of the NAIA Volleyball Coaches Top 25 Poll No. 3. Montana Western Volleyball remained in the no. 13 slot.
 The Bulldogs are currently 9-2 this season and are 1-0 in Frontier Conference play thus far after defeating the MSU-Northern Skylights last week in their home conference opener. Bulldog middle blocker Peyton Vogl tallied a career-high 22 kills with a .313 hitting percentage in the game, in addition to adding six blocks on the defensive side of the ball.

U.S. Constitution Contest for all Montana students
 Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen launched the 2024 U.S. Constitution Contest during a Constitution Day celebration at the Montana State Capitol. Constitution Day is celebrated nationwide each September 17 to honor the signing of the United States Constitution on September 17, 1787.
 This year's contest – "How does the Constitution preserve our freedom and why is that important to me?" – is open to all Montana students in grades K-12.
 "As Secretary of State, it's rewarding to meet students and share the significance of the document we're celebrating today. Every student who visits our office is offered the United States and Montana Constitution, encouraging them to learn about our founding principles," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Participants in this year's contest may submit an essay, poem, song, artwork, or any creative entry they choose. Information is available at www.civics.sosmt.gov, and I cannot wait to see the creativity of our Montana students."
 Previous participants have been invited to the State Capitol to share their submissions.

WORKWEAR

Take Hemp to Work

There's a reason why industrial hemp is the original work canvas. As a crop, it grows quickly with little to no irrigation, and can restore nutrients to topsoil. As a textile, it's durable, breathable and comfortable right off the shelf.

Come on down to the Patagonia Dillon Workwear Outpost, the largest selection of industrial hemp workwear under one roof.
