Sara (Henrie) Binam

Sara (Henrie) Binam, of Dillon MT, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family on September 19th, 2024, at the age of 82. Sara was born in Jackson, Wyoming on May 13th, 1942, to Clarence and Alice (Hanks) Henrie. She was the youngest of five children. She and her family eventually made their way to Dillon, first living in Jackson Montana for a short time. Sara attended and graduated from Beaverhead County Highschool. After graduation Sara moved to Salinas, California where she met her husband Dess Binam. She and Dess moved to Green Forest Arkansas and after Dess's passing she made her way back to Dillon. Along the way she made countless friends everywhere she lived. She lived a life filled with many friends and family.

At a young age Sara gained one of her most treasured titles, Mom, when she had her son Terry. Terry blessed her with three grandchildren, with whom she adored. Sara was especially fond of her four great grandchildren, Oliver, Boyd, Blaire and Brody. It was hard to find a recent picture of her that did not include at least one great grandchild, if not all four, in the picture.

Many people knew Sara from her career as a pharmacy tech, first working at Peterson Drug and later working and retiring from Safeway Pharmacy.

Sara is survived by her son Terry and daughter in law Kathy Ross, her grandchildren Kyle(Brianna), Sheldon(Courtney) and Rhiannon(Chad), great grandchildren, Oliver, Boyd, Blaire and Brody, sister Betty Johnson and several nieces and nephews.

Sara is preceded in death by her parents, Clarence and Alice, husband Dess, her brother Warren, her sisters Lyla Trafelet and Laverne Jackson, brothers in law Dick Johnson, Albert Trafelet and Martin Jackson, niece Karen Johnson and nephew Ray Trafelet.

Memorial services will be held at Brundage Funeral Chapel in Dillon, MT on Friday September 27th at 11am. Visitation will be at 10am. Following the memorial services interment will take place at Mountain View Cemetery with a reception at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints to follow.

Gallery of Hope Art Fundraiser

The Women's Resource Center (WRC) in Dillon, MT, is hosting the "Gallery of Hope" art exhibition and silent auction on Saturday, September 28, 2024, from 6:00 to 8:00 PM at Sweetwater Coffee, 24 S. Idaho Street. The event will feature works from local artists, live music by guitarist Bill Dwyer, wine and appetizers. Proceeds will support the WRC's mission of providing free, confidential services and emergency shelter to survivors of domestic and sexual violence in Beaverhead and Madison Counties.

The artwork will be displayed from August 28 to September 28, and the silent auction will close during the event. Donations can also be made online at www.wrcmt.org/donate.

The Night I Barked with Wapiti

Bryce Angell

I sat there in my easy chair, stretched out and feet up high, while snacking on the Oreos and a Little Debbie pie.

I polished off another diet Dr. Pepper pop.

Then Mother Nature made her call. She's got me on the hop.

And at my age, past seventy, when you feel you've got the urge.

You better make it quick, if not your bladder's gonna purge.

So, I chose to step outside, ignore the bathroom up the stairs.

There wasn't anyone around and if there was, who cares?

I glanced at our thermometer, reading seventeen degrees.

And it always feels much colder with a northern frigid breeze.

The night air had me wishing that I'd grabbed my wool lined cap.

It covers up my bald head and my ears, a pull down flap.

While taking care of business came a most familiar sound.

A herd of elk were grazing. Hooves were pounding out the ground.

I could almost see their outline, while they grazed there on the flat.

But frankly it was darker than the inside of a cat.

The old bull elk sent out a scream and as far as I could see, it must have been a warning. Scared the tar right out of me.

The old bull's harem came a running, passed me in the dark.

He prob'ly took a head count then he sounded out a bark.

I thought I'd try my luck and yelled a guttural bark at him.

I figured chance of answering me was prob'ly mighty slim.

He didn't disappoint me when he yelled an answer back.

I wondered if he thought this guy just might be talking smack?

Back and forth we bantered. We were talking, in a way.

Or was it just plain noise? It seemed he had a bunch to say.

The night can make a shadow almost thick enough to feel.

Was I seeing him approach me all too close to be for real?

I used my ears to see the bull in all his majesty.

We call him elk but he deserves his real name, "Wapiti."

I listened as they trotted off way back into the dark.

I could hear the old bull bragging how he scared me with his bark.

Bulldog Men and Women Finish Fifth at UM Invite

The Montana Western cross country teams continued their 2024 season on Friday night with the University of Montana Invite. Both teams competed in packed fields with the women's team racing to a fifth-place finish and the men's team placing fifth.

"Both teams had a strong performance with most of our women earning a PR or ran right around their season PR. Missoula is also a tough course, but I think they were able to stay mentally tough," Head Coach Taylor Grove said. "Olivia was able to be the fourth runner from our conference to finish. The men ran well also on the tough course and we had lots of good performances."

Results

The women's race saw the Bulldogs led by sophomore Olivia Steadman, running a race time of 20:00.6 and placing in 13th, with a 4th place finish of Frontier runners. Freshman Destiny Vogl followed behind, finishing in 34th with a time of 21:32.2, with sophomore Justene Santi close behind in 36th finishing with a time of 21:33.3. Freshmen Ruby Smith and Olivia Canney rounded out the scoring for the Bulldogs, with times of 22:05.8 and 22:15.4.

Sophomore Harrison Silverio led the way for the Bulldogs with a 28:02.9 and a 41st place finish. Sophomore Brody Henry was the second fastest Bulldog runner on the night, placing 47th in a 29:20.6 time. Freshman Kreg Butler and junior Carlin Onstad were the third and fourth Bulldogs to cross the line. Butler ran a time of 29:49.3 and finished in 51st with Onstad running a 30:13.2 to finish in 54th. Freshman Noah Rovente ran a 30:31.7 to close out the scoring for UMW.

Kaden Hennesey and Bridger Wheeler also competed in the race. Hennesey finished with a time of 31:36.1 and Wheeler finished with a time of 32:37.6.

Up Next

The Bulldogs cross country season keeps rolling in Billings, Mont. with the Yellowjacket/Battlin' Bears Open on Oct. 4.

Letter to the Editor

The election for Montana Supreme Court Chief Justice is critical for all that access and use our public lands and rivers. Lobbyist Chuck Denhow and spokesperson for UPOM is the campaign Manager for Cory Swanson, candidate for Montana Supreme Court Chief Justice. UPOM was party to the court case of James Cox Kennedy to overturn the Montana Stream Access Law. And Swanson is the only County Attorney to authorize a "corner crossing" prosecution in Montana.

Upcoming "On the Rocks" Presentations at Montana Western

The University of Montana Western's Environmental Sciences Department is pleased to announce the next two events in its "On the Rocks" lecture series, featuring UMW alumna Kori Mooney and UMW Assistant Professor Dr. Lorrie Carnes. These presentations, which are free and open to the public, will take place at the Lucy Carson Library on September 25 & October 23, both starting at 4:00 p.m.

Measuring Snow: New Methods & Technology

Kori Mooney, MS Hydrologist, Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS)

Wednesday, September 25, 2024

Kori Mooney, who earned her master's degree in civil engineering from the University of Wyoming in 2024 and graduated from Montana Western in 2022, is a hydrologist with the NRCS Snow Survey in Salt Lake City, UT. She will share insights into the NRCS SNOTEL network, discussing the use of Ground Penetrating Radar (GPR) to measure snow density, along with emerging technologies for snowpack measurements.

Using Surface Processes to Understand Mountain Range Evolution

Dr. Lorrie Carnes, PhD, Assistant Professor of Fluvial Geomorphology at the University of Montana Western Wednesday, October 23, 2024

Dr. Lorrie Carnes, an Assistant Professor of fluvial geomorphology at Montana Western, will explore surface process analysis in her presentation. With a B.S. in Earth and Environmental Sciences from Lehigh University and a PhD in Geological Sciences from Arizona State University, Dr. Carnes will explain how erosion rates, soil production, and channel steepness are used to uncover the evolution of the Pinaleño Mountains, a metamorphic core complex located in southeast Arizona.

These events are an excellent opportunity for students, faculty, and the public to engage with experts in earth sciences and learn more about the developments in hydrology and geomorphology. Each presentation will be preceded by a social gathering at 3:30 p.m., offering light refreshments. We look forward to seeing you!

For more information on UMW's "On the Rocks" series, please contact UMW Associate Professor of Environmental Sustainability, Dr. Arica Crootof, at arica.crootof@umwestern.edu.

2024 Voter Information Pamphlet now available to Montanans

Montana's 2024 Voter Information Pamphlet (VIP) is now available online.

The Secretary of State's Office published the 2024 VIP this week to serve as a reference for voters ahead of Election Day. The information in the publication includes the three qualified proposed changes to the Montana Constitution that will appear before voters, as well as the arguments for and against each ballot issue.

Montanans can access the online version of the VIP by visiting <https://sosmt.gov/elections/vip/>.

"Please read and learn about the ballot issues that will be presented to Montanans during the General Election," Secretary Christi Jacobsen wrote in the VIP. "Visit VoteMT.gov for additional resources, including verifying your voter registration information, tracking your absentee ballot, and finding your polling place."

County election offices will mail one physical copy of the 2024 Voter Information Pamphlet to each household containing an active, registered voter. Alternative formats of the VIP, including audio and braille versions, will be available by contacting the Secretary of State's Office.

"We're pleased to share Montana's Voter Information Pamphlet earlier than usual and before the physical copies are sent to their mailboxes," said Secretary Jacobsen. "We're continuing to ensure Montanans are vote ready ahead of Election Day."

The 2024 General Election officially began Friday for Montana's military and overseas voters. Absentee ballots will be mailed to eligible absentee voters on October 11. Election Day is Tuesday, November 5. Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

This Week in Bulldog Athletics - Sept. 23-29 VOLLEYBALL

The no. 13 ranked Montana Western Volleyball team (9-4, 1-2) will look to get back on track this week with a pair of conference matchups. The Bulldogs open the week on Thursday at home against RV Rocky Mountain College (9-6, 1-2). The Battlin' Bears enter the matchup on a three-game losing streak, with two of these matchups being against Frontier opponents.

The Bulldogs will then hit the road to take on the Montana Tech Orediggers (8-5, 2-1). The Orediggers are currently on a two-game win streak with a pair of wins against Carroll College and MSU-Northern last week.

RODEO

The Montana Western men's and women's rodeo team comes off of a weekend off from competition after traveling to Cody, Wyo. and Glendive, Mont. to kick off the fall season.

The Bulldogs return for the Montana Western Home Rodeo this week. Action begins on Friday night with the first performance at 7 p.m. Saturday morning slack will kick off at 8 a.m. The short-go will be at 7 p.m. on Saturday evening. All events will be held at Harry Andrus Arena and will be streamed on the Cowboy Channel app. More details about the rodeo will be released soon.

FOOTBALL

The no. 4 ranked Montana Western Football team (3-0) took their first road victory of the season this past weekend when they defeated NCAA DIII opponent Lewis & Clark College (Ore.) Pioneers by a final score of 56-39. Three Bulldogs earned a pair of rushing touchdowns in the game, while the Bulldogs totaled 228 yards on the ground. Prior to the matchup, Lewis & Clark averaged more than 150 rushing yards per game. UMW's defense allowed the Pioneers to -11 rushing yards across the matchup and totaled six sacks and eight tackles for loss as a team.

Western will hit the road to Oregon for the second week in a row as they will be heading to Ashland, Ore. to take on the no. 20 ranked Southern Oregon Raiders. The Raiders are 3-0 this season and care coming off of a 45-27 upset win over the no. 9 ranked College of Idaho.

The Bulldogs will be looking for their first series road win in Ashland this weekend since the series between the two teams began in 2002. The Bulldogs are 0-8 on the road against the Raiders.

WORKWEAR

Take Hemp to Work

There's a reason why industrial hemp is the original work canvas. As a crop, it grows quickly with little to no irrigation, and can restore nutrients to topsoil. As a textile, it's durable, breathable and comfortable right off the shelf.

Come on down to the Patagonia Dillon Workwear Outpost, the largest selection of industrial hemp workwear under one roof.
