Bulldogs Flip Script on Skylights,
Reverse Sweep MSU-Northern 3-2

The no. 19 ranked Montana Western women's volleyball team (12-5, 4-3) won their second straight game this week after they reverse swept the MSU-Northern Skylights this afternoon by scores of 19-25, 18-25, 25-18, 25-19, and 15-8.

Senior Jazi Smith hit a milestone in her Bulldog career, hitting 1,000 career digs after she racked up 23 digs in the game.

"One of the team's goals today was to be resilient and they definitely achieved that goal. Being down two sets is a tough way to come back but they were able to get refocused and really have some grit against a really good team," Head Coach Katie Lovett said. "Northern played lights out and made us work for each and every point."

How It Happened: The Skylights got out to an early lead in the first set, jumping out to a 12-6 lead early on. Back-to-back kills from Peyton Vogl got the Bulldogs back in the game and they were able to close the gap to just two points. MSU-N fought back for some momentum and utilized their own 7-2 run to take a lead big enough to keep them in front of the Bulldogs for the remainder of the set, winning it 25-19.

Set two mirrored the first, seeing the Skylights take a massive 17-10 lead from the start. The Bulldogs got back into it and tied the game at 17 all behind a 7-0 run that saw Taylor Petersen serve up back-to-back aces. A kill from Jordan Olson to tie the game at 18 was the last points UMW would be able to pull as the Skylight ran on a 7-0 run to win the set 25-18.

Western got the jump early in third, seeing another pair of aces from Petersen early in the set. The Bulldogs then went up 14-9 as Dani Brown banged in a pair of kills from the outside. The Skylights brought the game within four late in the set, but UMW capped off the set win at 25-18.

A 7-1 Bulldog run got Western out to another early 10-7 lead in the fourth frame. After combining for a .241 hitting

Commissioner of Securities and Insurance Announces Approval of First Innovation Waiver

Troy Downing, the Montana Commissioner of Securities and Insurance (CSI), announced that the CSI has approved its first innovation waiver. The State Auditor announced that it granted the first waiver to Montana State Fund.

Montana State Fund (MSF) applied for a waiver of certain regulatory requirements to facilitate implementing a program under which MSF would grant premium waivers of up to $10,000 for employers undergoing a premium audit for the first time. Under the program, waivers of increased premiums will be combined with employer education and training. The program is designed to prevent or limit the premium shock that sometimes occurs following premium audits. The program also seeks to increase efficiency by encouraging better management by employers of their workers' compensation obligations.

In the 2023 legislative session, HB 836, sponsored by Representative Katie Zolnikov and Senator Steve Fitzpatrick, was passed. This act authorizes the CSI to grant waivers of certain requirements of the Montana Insurance Code for eligible submissions. The law applies to property and casualty insurers.

"We were pleased to approve the innovative approach by Montana State Fund to helping their insureds," said Commissioner Downing. "Montana is open for innovation, and the CSI looks forward to approving other creative ideas that help Montana insureds and small businesses."

"Montana State Fund is constantly exploring new and better ways to meet the changing needs of our employers," Holly O'Dell, MSF President/CEO, said. "Reducing sticker shock from first-time premium audits through this waiver program is just part of how MSF continually looks to support Montana's growth."

This Week in Bulldog Athletics: Oct. 7-13 VOLLEYBALL

The no. 19 ranked Montana Western Volleyball team (12-5, 4-3) left behind a 2-0 week where they defeated both RV Carroll College and MSU-Northern. Senior Jazi Smith hit a milestone in her Bulldog career during the five-set reverse sweep over the Skylights, hitting 1,000 career digs after she racked up 23 digs in the game.

The Bulldogs have a tough slate ahead this week as they take a break from Frontier Conference action. They will be traveling to Rocky Mountain College to participate in the North Star/Frontier Crossover Tournament. They will first take on RV Valley City State on Thursday evening at 5 p.m. Following that matchup, the Bulldogs have a quick turnaround to prepare for the no. 2 ranked Jamestown (N.D.) on Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. They will then close out the tournament with a matchup against Dickinson State (N.D.) on Saturday morning at 9 a.m.

FOOTBALL

After suffering their first loss of the season on Sept. 28 against the no. 14 ranked Southern Oregon Raiders, the no. 7 ranked Montana Western Football team (3-1) had a week off to reset during their bye week. They are now preparing for another top 25 matchup this weekend against the no. 12 ranked Montana Tech Orediggers.

The Orediggers enter the matchup at 4-1 this season, with their lone loss coming after a road trip to take on the no. 15 ranked College of Idaho. The game ended in overtime after the Yotes intercepted a pass to close out the game.

The Bulldogs are 4-1 in the past five matchups with the Orediggers and have won two straight in the series.

Grizzly bear killed after encounter with hunter in Gallatin Range

Hunter not injured

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff responded to a reported encounter between a hunter and a grizzly bear on Saturday.

The hunter was in the backcountry south of Hidden Lakes in the Gallatin Range when he saw a grizzly bear and two large cubs at close range. The hunter climbed a tree to avoid the bear, but the bear charged at the hunter. The hunter shot and injured the bear from the tree. The hunter stayed in the tree while the injured bear remained nearby.

The hunter called 911 and reported his location. FWP grizzly bear specialists, game wardens and a pilot responded via helicopter. After they landed, FWP staff dispatched the injured bear and found the hunter, who was not injured.

FWP staff did not observe any cubs or cub tracks from the air or ground. The area was flown multiple times during the event. The euthanized bear was confirmed to be an adult female.

This incident is still under investigation by the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service.

Gallatin County Search and Rescue and the Custer Gallatin National Forest assisted FWP in responding to the incident.

Be bear aware

Montana is bear country. Grizzly bear populations continue to become denser and more widespread in Montana, increasing the likelihood that residents and recreationists will encounter them in more places each year.

This time of year is when bears are active for longer periods as they consume more food in preparation for hibernation. This period overlaps with hunting season and other fall recreation activities.

Avoiding conflicts with bears is far better than dealing with such conflicts. Here are some precautions to help residents, recreationists and people who work outdoors avoid negative bear encounters:

- Carry bear spray and be prepared to use it immediately.
- Make noise to alert bears to your presence and travel in groups.
- Stay away from animal carcasses, which often attract bears.
- Follow food storage orders from the applicable land management agency.
- Keep garbage, bird feeders, pet food and other attractants put away in a secure building. Keep garbage in a secure building

- until the day it is collected. Certified bear-resistant garbage containers are available in many areas.
 - Never feed wildlife. Bears that become food conditioned lose their natural foraging behavior and pose threats to human safety. It is illegal to feed bears in Montana. Some areas with dense concentrations of grizzly bears are very accessible to hunters, especially during the archery season. Keep these precautions in mind when hunting in grizzly country, which includes much of the western two-thirds of Montana:
 - Carry bear spray and be prepared to use it immediately.
 - Watch for and be extra cautious around bear sign, creeks and areas with limited visibility. Most attacks happen in surprise, close encounters.
 - Hunt with a group of people. This can help you make localized noise to alert bears to your presence, and it may also increase your chances of survival in the event of a bear attack.
 - Be aware that elk calls and cover scents can attract bears.
 - Bring the equipment and people needed to help field dress game and remove the meat from the kill site as soon as possible.
 - If you need to leave part of the meat in the field during retrieval, hang it at least 10 feet off the ground and at least 150 yards from the gut pile. Leave it where it can be observed from a distance of at least 200 yards.
 - Upon your return, observe the meat with binoculars. Make noise while approaching the meat. If it has been disturbed or if a bear is in the area, leave and call FWP.
 - Follow food storage orders from the applicable land management agency.
- Grizzly bears in the lower 48 states are listed as threatened under the Endangered Species Act. Management authority for grizzlies rests with the Fish & Wildlife Service, working closely in Montana with FWP, the Forest Service, the National Park Service, the Bureau of Land Management, the U.S. Geological Survey, Wildlife Services, and Native American tribes. This collaboration happens through the Interagency Grizzly Bear Committee.

Veteran News Updates:

By Mike Lawson

Next week on October 16, it will be our Marine Toys For Tots Butte Campaign kickoff. This will take place at the MCL "Hooch" on Garden Ave. with a luncheon program. This will be followed with a distribution of Toy and Donation boxes taken to the many businesses in Butte, Dillon, Ruby Valley, Whitehall and Harrison, who generously allow us to place them in their establishments. It's all about the kids and as the campaign season progresses more will be said about this great programs' progress in our part of SW Montana.

The American Legion Post#1 located on 3201 Wynn Ave. in Butte Mt., will have their monthly dinner with a meeting afterwards. The public is invited and the menu is different every month. This month it will be burgers and hotdogs with many different salads and desserts. The price is right at ten dollars a plate. Come and join us.

There is a new government-wide website, call center to protect Veterans from fraud and scams. VSAFE.gov and 1-833-38VSAFE(1-833-388-7233)

October is Depression Awareness Month. Do you feel like you're in a rut and you just can't get out? If your experiencing feelings of intense sadness or hopelessness, or have lost interest in activities you used to enjoy, it may be a sign of depression. The VA offers treatments and resources to help. If your feeling or some Veteran you know is feeling in a crisis, call a Veterans Crisis Line responder anytime day or night. Dial 988 then Press 1.

Time for me to bring this to a close. If it's smoky, stay inside as much as possible. Enjoy this "Indian Summer" fall weather.

Until next time, take care.

An Evening with Diane K. Boyd-
Author of A Woman Among Wolves

The Old Depot Theatre: Thursday, October 17th 7-8:30pm

Join us at The Old Depot Theatre for a short reading from the book "A Woman Among Wolves", followed by a discussion, then an open Q&A, and lastly book sales and signing with author and wildlife biologist, Diane K. Boyd.
