Medical Incident Prompts First Responder Presence In Front Of B.W. Lodge Gymnasium

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

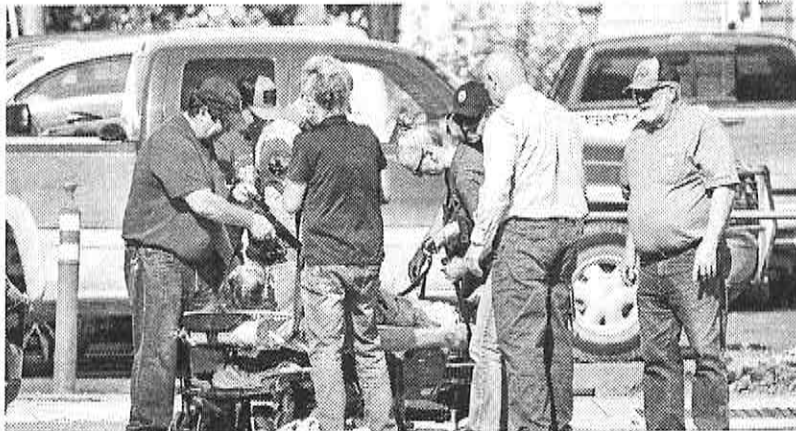

On Wednesday afternoon, a male cyclist experienced a medical incident while riding his bicycle along Thomsen Street, resulting in a crash that brought an immediate response from nearby residents and emergency services.

Witnesses reported seeing the cyclist suddenly lose control and fall to the ground. Recognizing the urgency of the situation, bystanders quickly called 911 for assistance. Their swift actions likely contributed to providing timely help to the individual.

Within minutes, multiple officers from the City of Dillon Police Department, along with personnel from the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office and an ambulance, arrived on the scene to attend to the victim. Emergency responders assessed the individual's condition and provided necessary medical care before transporting him to a local hospital for further treatment.

The quick response from both citizens and emergency services highlights the importance of community vigilance and support in times of crisis. The injured cyclist's current condition has not been disclosed.

Further updates will be provided as more information becomes available.

Football Moves Up Two Spots to No. 7 in NAIA National Polls

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has announced the results of the NAIA Football GoRout Top 25 Poll No. 5. Montana Western Football moved up two spots in the rankings to no. 7 despite the bye week.

The Bulldogs are now preparing for another top 25 matchup this weekend against the no. 12 ranked Montana Tech Orediggers.

The Orediggers enter the matchup at 4-1 this season, with their lone loss coming after a road trip to take on the no. 15 ranked College of Idaho. The game ended in overtime after the Yotes intercepted a pass to close out the game.

The Orediggers recently took down the undefeated Southern Oregon Raiders by a final score of 42-35.

The Bulldogs are 4-1 in the past five matchups with the Orediggers and have won two straight in the series.

FWP, Montana Audubon Center to host Bat-Stravaganza October 24

Free event will have bat-themed educational activities for all ages

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks and the Montana Audubon Center are hosting Bat-Stravaganza, a family-friendly event focused on learning about and celebrating bats. The free event will take place Thursday, Oct. 24, at the Montana Audubon Center (7026 S. Billings Blvd.) from 6-8 p.m. All ages are welcome.

Participants at Bat-Stravaganza will learn about benefits of and threats to bats, play educational games, explore a "bat cave," and make bat-themed crafts. Halloween costumes are encouraged. Prizes, snacks, and fun giveaways will be available.

Bats provide a variety of benefits to humans and the ecosystem, such as crop protection, insect pest control and pollination. In Montana, there are 15 different species of bats, 11 of which are considered "Species of Concern" due threats such as habitat loss and white nose syndrome. For more information on bats in Montana, visit: fwp.mt.gov/conservation/wildlife-management/bats.

Bat-Stravaganza will take place during Bat Week, an international, annual celebration held the last week of October. The goal of Bat Week is to raise awareness about bat conservation and improve public perception of these unique and important animals. For more information on Bat Week, visit: batweek.org.

There is no cost to attend this event, but donations are welcome and registration is encouraged.
