KXLF Photo Shoot for BVHD Treasure Hunt

Calling for Actresses/Actors who wish to appear in the digital ads for the Beaverhead Treasure Hunt marketing campaign!

KXLF will be in Dillon & Jackson Monday, Oct. 21st from 9am to 12 Noon to shoot B-Roll footage of folks pretending to find the little mushrooms. There will NOT be any speaking roles.

Please meet at the Chamber office (730 N. Montana St., #2) at 9 am on Monday, Oct. 21st. We will be staging the mushrooms in specific locations around Dillon and will have the actors "find" them. Then we will head to Jackson Hot Springs for some footage there.

First Responders Respond to Two-Vehicle Accident

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Emergency services were dispatched to the intersection of East Bannack and Nevada Street following a two-vehicle collision on Wednesday. The accident resulted in airbags deploying in both vehicles and sent first responders to the scene shortly after.

Fortunately, both drivers, while shaken, sustained only minor injuries, including bumps and bruises. The Dillon Fire Department arrived promptly to assist law enforcement in managing traffic around the accident site to ensure the safety of all involved.

Additionally, responders noted a liquid substance leaking from one of the vehicles. Fire department personnel conducted checks to identify the substance and ensure there were no further safety concerns for the surrounding area.

$5 Million in Additional Payments to Montana Consumers Following State Farm's Review of Certain Loss of Use

Troy Downing, the Montana Commissioner of Securities and Insurance (CSI), is pleased to report that State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. (State Farm) has reviewed an additional 18,000 claims after being fined $4 million in a CSI administrative action for unfair claims settlement practices. These reviews resulted in an additional $5.2 million paid to Montanans impacted by State Farm's improper settling of comparative negligence and loss of use claims.

In February 2024, the CSI announced the settlement, in which State Farm agreed to pay a $2 million fine and to be subject to an additional suspended fine of $2 million, which will be discharged upon State Farm satisfactorily implementing corrective actions. "I am proud of the work of our agency, which continues to hold companies accountable on behalf of Montana consumers," said Commissioner Downing.

For inquiries—Laura Shirliff, CSI Communications, at 406.444.0903 or laura.shirliff@mt.gov.

Letter to the Editor Wilderness Study Areas

Over 100 interested citizens attended the Beaverhead County Collaborative's long overdue public meeting in Lima on 9-18-2024 to reveal their proposal regarding several Wilderness Study Areas. There were many people concerned about the WSA's who definitely felt left out of the process and were upset that the group's recommendations were final and that there would be no further input. Many attendees knew nothing of the group's three year (2021) existence or their plan for public lands prior to the meeting. We understand the theory of too many cooks in the kitchen but stand by the philosophy that when we again address the remaining WSA's in Beaverhead County, let's try to do it differently:

1. Initial Public notice to request input from local area residents and other interested parties.
2. Written notification to any and all adjacent land owners or permit holders.
3. Request volunteers for committees to research options and develop a proposal to submit to the State Legislature/Congressional Delegation.
4. Provide Public transparency and education on Beaverhead County's Land Use Plan (2010) and how it connects with recommendations.
5. Avoid unbalanced representation from Federal agencies, environmental groups and "selected" landowners and strive for a very fair approach that truly reflects the desires of Beaverhead County residents that live, work and pay taxes here.
6. Protect county resident's interests from being superseded by Federal agencies connected to the current 30x30 Plan to permanently set aside public lands and or private property placed in conservation easements in perpetuity.
7. Prohibit powerful environmental groups and non-governmental organizations whose livelihoods do not depend on agriculture or other multiple use of the County's resources from ever selling the natural assets through a Natural Asset Company or a Natural Capital Account.

For those unable to attend the meeting, we thank SW Montana News for uploading the meeting to YouTube. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AS9Up12x8kE>

We have great love and respect for the beauty of this county we call home. Many of these WSA's have been studied for over 40 years. It is quite feasible to retain protections for wildlife and fish while maintaining scenic and wild places, but we also need to have protections for the utilization of the natural resources such as timber, grazing, water and natural minerals which augment the economic survival of Beaverhead County and the communities of Southwestern Montana.

Bulldogs Selected to Finish Fifth in Frontier Preseason Poll

In a preseason poll of Frontier Conference women's basketball coaches, the Montana Western women's basketball team was picked to finish fifth for the 2024-25 season.

Providence was selected as the preseason favorite to win the 2024-25 Frontier Women's Basketball conference title, the preseason coaches' poll was announced Wednesday.

Carroll and Rocky Mountain were tied for second in the preseason poll with 19 points each. Montana State-Northern placed fourth in the poll with 12 points, followed by Montana Western fifth with nine points and Montana Tech sixth with six points.

Montana Western placed one on the Frontier Preseason All-Conference Team with senior Joelnell Momberg.

Momberg, a senior guard from Box Elder, Mont., played in 28 games for the Bulldogs last season. She scored a total of 342 points, averaging 12.2 points per game, 3.4 rebounds per game, shot 79.6 percent from the free throw line and 38.4 percent from the 3-point line. She was named honorable mention all-conference honors after last season.

Black bear cubs will be placed in a zoo

Two black bear cubs that were captured in August in Butte are on their way to a zoo for permanent placement.

The two cubs were placed at the Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Wildlife Center in Helena in August following an incident in Butte where a female bear and two cubs were known to be feeding on unsecured garbage around town. The behavior had become habitual and presented a human safety concern.

FWP officials euthanized the adult bear due to its food-conditioned behavior and took the cubs to the Wildlife Center for care. Wildlife health staff observed garbage in the cubs' scat after capture, and the bears did not show fear of humans at any time during their holding period—clear indications that the young bears were comfortable around people and not good candidates for being released into the wild.

Be bear aware: Placing young bears in zoos is not always possible, and keeping wildlife wild is preferred. Fortunately, attractant-related conflicts with wildlife are preventable.

Residents, businesses and visitors should store food, garbage and other attractants securely indoors or in certified bear-resistant containers. Intentionally or negligently feeding wildlife, including bears, is illegal in Montana and can lead to fines and other penalties.
