Montana Youth Vote now available to all
Montana students in grades K-12

The 2024 Montana Youth Vote opened to all Montana students in grades K-12 announced Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen and Superintendent of Public Instruction Elsie Arntzen.

Students across Montana are encouraged to participate by voting for candidates on the official Montana ballot, including those for President, congressional races, and statewide executive offices. Older students can vote for Montana's Supreme Court races and three proposed ballot initiatives, while younger students will see additional age-appropriate questions.

"I'm thrilled for our Montana students to engage in this youth election to understand our voting processes and procedures," said Secretary Jacobsen. "It's important for students to recognize how their voices will be heard through the ballot box in the future. I'm grateful to our Montana schools and teachers for providing this exciting opportunity to their students and look forward to sharing the results."

"The Youth Vote election is an important learning opportunity for all Montana students," said Superintendent Elsie Arntzen. "During my time as Superintendent, I have revised our social studies content standards and graduation requirements to include a robust focus on civics education. I encourage all families to have an open conversation with their children about this November's election."

Information was provided to Montana schools and teachers on Monday so that students could begin voting. Schools may email sosyouthvote@mt.gov for questions or additional information.

Secretary Jacobsen and Superintendent Arntzen will share the results on Friday, November 1. In past years, students participating in the Youth Vote have correctly predicted the results of Montana's elections.

Roundup Mule Deer Management Hunt scheduled to begin early December

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks and the City of Roundup have scheduled an archery-only mule deer hunt in and around Roundup to reduce the number of urban deer. Fifty either-sex mule deer licenses for this hunt will go on sale Tuesday, Nov. 5, beginning at 5 a.m. online and at any FWP license provider and will be limited to two per person. The licenses are available for residents and non-residents. A current Conservation License and Bow & Arrow License is required for purchase.

In 2023, 90 either-sex mule deer licenses were sold for the Roundup Mule Deer Management Hunt and 6 deer—2 bucks and 4 does—were harvested. Some hunters reported the urban deer were more challenging to hunt, as they are becoming more wary of people. The Roundup Mule Deer Management Hunt has happened every year since 2014.

Roundup city officials and the Musselshell County Sheriff's Department have observed fewer aggressive deer and vehicle-deer collisions since the special hunts began. Success rates for the hunt have ranged from 7% to 18% since the management hunts began.

Humphrey Named Offensive Player of the Week

After the Bulldogs defeated Rocky Mountain College this past weekend, Montana Western runningback Jake Humphrey was voted the ERCK Hotels Frontier Conference Offensive Player of the Week.

Humphrey led the No. 6 ranked Bulldogs with a career-high 215 rushing yards in 42-24 road victory at Rocky Mountain. He rushed 20 times in the game and ran for five touchdowns. Humphrey averaged 10.8 yards per rush.

The last time a Bulldog running back rushed for over 200 yards was Reese Neville back in 2021 against Rocky.

This is Humphrey's first career Erck Hotels / Frontier Conference Player of the Week award.

Bulldogs Hold No. 6 Ranking

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has announced the results of the Football GoRout Top 25 Poll No. 7.

UMW traveled to Billings this past weekend to take on the Rocky Mountain College Battlin' Bears. UMW came out on top by a final score of 42-24 after posting 28 points in the second half. Jake Humphrey led the Bulldogs, rushing for a career high 215 rushing yards and five touchdowns. Montana Western will return to Bulldog Stadium next week for a matchup against Arizona Christian University for the 2024 UMW Homecoming game. Kickoff will be at 1 p.m.

FRONTIER IN THE TOP 25: No. 6 Montana Western Bulldogs, No. 10 Southern Oregon Raiders, No. 12 College of Idaho Yotes, No. 15 Montana Tech Orediggers. OUTSIDE THE POLL: RV Carroll College Fighting Saints

Bulldog Athletics VOLLEYBALL

The Montana Western Volleyball team (16-6, 6-3) had an impressive week, defeating a pair of ranked conference opponents. The Bulldogs first downed Montana Tech, marking the first home win over the Orediggers since 2011 when the Bulldogs pulled out a 3-2 win over Montana Tech. Jazi Smith broke her second record of the season when she broke the Montana Western career kills record in the match. The record was held by Emily Erickson from 2011-14 at 932. Smith has a career total of 943 kills and counting. UMW then remained undefeated in five-set games this season after upsetting the University of Providence on Saturday 3-2. Western is now 7-0 this season in games that have gone to a fifth set.

Montana Western will hit the road on Thursday, Oct. 24 at 7 p.m. for a conference matchup against the RV Carroll College Fighting Saints. They will then return to the Straugh on Saturday for a game against the visiting Rocky Mountain College Battlin' Bears at 6pm. The game will follow the no. 6 ranked Montana Western football game against Arizona Christian University and will be celebrating Dig Pink Night in conjunction with UMW's Homecoming Weekend.

FOOTBALL

The Montana Western Football team (5-1) traveled to Billings this past weekend to take on the Rocky Mountain College Battlin' Bears. UMW came out on top by a final score of 42-24 after posting 28 points in the second half. Jake Humphrey led the Bulldogs, rushing for a career high 215 rushing yards and five touchdowns. The last time a Bulldog runningback rushed for over 200 yards was Reese Neville back in 2021 against Rocky Mountain College.

Montana Western will return to Bulldog Stadium next week for a matchup against Arizona Christian University for the 2024 UMW Homecoming game. Kickoff will be at 1 p.m.
