MDT closes Highway 91 bridge over Big Hole River

Through traffic between Melrose and Glen can detour via I-90.

The Montana Department of Transportation (MDT) has closed the Big Hole River Bridge on Highway 91 (Hwy 91) approximately 22 miles north of Dillon. All traffic is prohibited from using the bridge. After a scheduled inspection determined the structure cannot continue to carry traffic safely or reliably, MDT immediately implemented the closure. Previously, the structure was load posted for 3 tons, and traffic was restricted to one lane.

The bridge was built in 1940 and is a steel through truss with reinforced concrete approach spans. A project to replace the bridge is included in MDT's tentative construction program with a target contract letting for Fall 2026.

Montana Bridges

Montana, like the rest of the nation, is facing a rapidly aging bridge inventory. There are more than 4,500 bridges in Montana and about 10 percent are load posted or closed, representing one of Montana's most significant infrastructure challenges. MDT owns nearly 2,500 (on-system) bridges and is responsible for inspecting and load rating state-owned as well as off-system bridges primarily owned by counties.

The State of Bridges in the U.S.

There are more than 617,000 bridges across the United States. Currently, 42 percent of all bridges are at least 50 years old, and 7.5 percent of the nation's bridges are considered structurally deficient, meaning they are in poor or worse condition. A recent estimate for the nation's backlog of bridge repair needs is $125 billion.

About MDT:

At MDT, our mission is to plan, build, operate, and maintain a safe and resilient transportation system to move Montana forward. For more information, visit www.mdt.mt.gov . For the latest road conditions, go to 511mt.net, dial 511 or download the MDT 511 Travel Info mobile app.

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen thanks Montanans for serving as poll workers

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen thanked the hundreds of Montanans who have signed up to serve as poll workers in the 2024 General Election and beyond.

This summer, Secretary Jacobsen launched new poll worker recruitment tools to make it easier for Montanans to sign up with their counties. She also unveiled a new video in the Montana Election Education Video Series, highlighting the roles and responsibilities of poll workers and election judges and the steps to apply.

In September, Secretary Jacobsen announced an exciting partnership with the nationally respected organization Vet the Vote to encourage Montana veterans and families of military members to serve as poll workers. Vet the Vote Deputy Director Lorén Westerfield said more than 500 Montana veterans and military family members had signed up through Vet the Vote following the announcement.

"I'm so grateful to the thousands of Montanans who will serve their communities during this November's General Election," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Hundreds more have signed up to serve since we launched our poll worker recruitment tools, and we're excited to see so many Montanans interested in supporting our fellow Montana voters. Montanans can be proud of our Montana elections, and the Montana Elections Team is honored to serve with the poll workers, election judges, and other volunteers to provide safe, secure, accessible, and transparent elections."

Interested Montanans can learn more about serving as poll workers by visiting Secretary Jacobsen's voter resources website, VoteMT.gov, and selecting the "Election Judge/Poll Workers" option under the "Resources" tab.

Secretary Jacobsen and the Montana Elections Team also remind voters of the resources available with two weeks until Election Day, Tuesday, November 5. Registered absentee voters can track the status of their absentee ballot by visiting VoteMT.gov and selecting the "My Ballot Info" button. Sample ballots, precinct and polling place information, and county election office contact information are also available at VoteMT.gov.

"Thousands of Montanans have already cast their ballots and ensured their voices are heard this election, and hundreds of thousands more will follow their lead between now and Election Day," said

Secretary Jacobsen. "We want to remind registered absentee voters to make a plan to return their ballot to ensure it is received by 8 p.m. on Election Night, while polling place voters can get ready to vote by knowing when and where they can mark their ballots on Election Day."

"State and local election officials are here to assist voters between now and Election Day," Secretary Jacobsen continued. "Thanks for voting, Montana!"

FWP game wardens issue citations in Big Hole River off-roading case

Game wardens with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks recently issued citations to four individuals following an off-roading incident on the Big Hole River on Sept. 28.

FWP first became aware of the incident when videos posted online showed side-by-sides driving in the Big Hole River at Salmon Fly Fishing Access Site near Melrose. The incident received lots of publicity, which led to several tips from the public that helped wardens gather information.

Four individuals were cited for violating Administrative Rules of Montana 12.12.115, which prohibits operating a vehicle off authorized routes. The citation comes with a $135 fine.

Signs are posted at Salmon Fly Fishing Access Site advising visitors that off-road travel is prohibited at the site. However, many roads and trails throughout Montana may not be signed but still subject to restrictions. Motorists should be aware that roads and trails may be closed to all or certain types of motorized travel at different times of the year. Contact the applicable land management agency to find out what restrictions may be in effect.

Staying on designated roads and trails helps protect resources from erosion, noxious weeds, soil compaction, habitat damage, and negative impacts to aquatic and terrestrial wildlife.

"We want people to go out and have fun, but make sure you know and follow the rules," said FWP game warden Regan Dean. "Please stay on open, designated roads and trails."

FWP game wardens rely on tips from the public. To report a crime against wildlife or state lands, visit tipmont.mt.gov.

'Roughly 125,000 absentee ballots received with 2 weeks until Election Day'

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen said roughly 125,000 absentee ballots have been received by election officials with two weeks remaining until Election Day. More than 500,000 absentee ballots have been submitted to voters for the 2024 General Election.

"Friends, family, and neighbors are casting their votes statewide to ensure their voices are heard in this historic election," said Secretary Jacobsen. "As Election Day approaches, we want to remind voters to fill out their ballots and return them to their county election officials."

The status of an absentee voter's status may include:

- SENT: Your county has mailed your absentee ballot packet.
- RECEIVED: Your county has received your voted absentee ballot.
- ACCEPTED: Your signature was verified and your ballot will be counted during tabulation.

Voters should contact their county if they did not receive their absentee ballot or if their ballot status is "UNDELIVERABLE" or "REJECTED."

Earlier this year, Secretary Jacobsen unveiled the Absentee Ballot Counts webpage. The interactive and user-friendly report provides Montana voters with updated information about absentee ballot counts during the election. It can be viewed on the Secretary of State's website (https://sosmt.gov/elections/absentee-ballot-count/).

According to the Absentee Ballot Counts report, with two weeks remaining, county election officials have received nearly 25 percent of absentee ballots.

Veteran's Corner Update

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to all of you who read my SW MT Veteran Update articles. We've had some beautiful Indian Summer Fall weather here in SW Montana with some of our high mountain ridges and peaks capped in snow. This, with the patches of the yellow and gold of our Quaking Aspen among the evergreens, is a picture that warms the heart. s.

On Saturday, myself and many more attended Bob Pavlovich"s funeral. As I wrote before, he was a fierce advocate for veteran's causes, especially during his 20 years as a legislator. He crossed the isle many times to work out deals for the good causes that benefited Montana and veterans. In 1984 Bob was awarded the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States Special Award for Distinguished Service. This Veteran/Tavern Owner/Family-man/Legislator/ etc., will always be known as one who served his country, community, state and most importantly his family.

In Butte on Halloween every year we have a special event for the kids called "Treat Street" at the "Mining Museum Ghost Town." The Community Businesses, Service Organizations, Veteran Organizations, etc., come together with their own tables along the Ghost Town Streets and give candy to all the kids who come through. It starts at 1:00 pm goes until about 5:00 pm.

News Updates:

- Butte's American Legion Post #1 had an American Flag retirement ceremony last week which was a very respectful event. When American Flags get worn out, mainly due to the wind and weather, they are burned as the proper disposal protocol method. It was a dignified and respectful ceremony honoring our Flag that is the representation of our great nation, the USA. The American Legion in Butte on Wynn Ave. is open to anyone who wants to discard a worn out "American Flag", as a drop off site. Some of our sister SW MT American Legion Posts are probably doing the same thing, so check them out.
- The Butte Toys For Tots Campaign had their kick-off last Wednesday and we are now putting our Toy and Donation Boxes out to the many business locations who allow us to place them there. We're grateful for their support and ask
