My Biscuits Are Burning: First Responders Called to Alley Oven Fire

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

First responders were summoned on Friday afternoon after reports of an oven fire in the alley off South Atlantic Street. The incident brought the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department to the scene.

Firefighters discovered that the wiring of the oven had ignited, producing smoke that could be seen coming from the appliance. Fortunately, the fire was contained to the oven, which was located outside, sparing the nearby appliance repair shop from any damage.

Thanks to the swift actions of the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department, the fire was quickly extinguished. Thankfully, no injuries were reported.

Hunters can thank landowners through portal on FWP website

Hunters will again have the opportunity to thank landowners who allow hunting access on their land. The "Thank a Landowner" web portal is an easy way for hunters to pass on a note of thanks and a photo to landowners who have allowed them access.

FWP collects these submissions and mails the letters and photos to all landowners who were identified. Last year, nearly 600 hunters submitted a thank you note to private landowners through the portal.

This portal is part of the "It's Up To Us" campaign to promote ethical hunting and help improve relationships between hunters and landowners. This campaign is an annual effort with FWP and several partner organizations to encourage hunters to take the initiative to promote good hunter ethics and behavior, particularly on private lands. The campaign website is fwp.mt.gov/ItsUpToUs. Here hunters can find tips on ethical hunting, links to informative video content and the "Thank a Landowner" portal.

The page also features access to the Hunter Landowner Stewardship Project and links to campaign partners.

Lonely Halloween

Bryce Angell

The leaves had turned to red and brown. They'd lost their summer's green. The night was clear but, oh, so cold. We call it Halloween.

I filled two bowls of candy for the goblins, ghosts, witches and maybe even Frankenstein, with neatly painted stitches.

I wondered if I'd recognize those young ones in disguise. Each year their costumes changed but not the excitement in their eyes.

I flopped down in my comfy chair and grabbed a Baby Ruth. Sweets weren't on my diet but that night I stretched the truth.

I grabbed a bag of Snickers and I dumped them in the bowl. Then I opened up a Hershey bar and waited for the flow.

So far there hadn't been a single trick-or-treater knock. So I gobbled down two Reese's, what the heck, then watched the clock.

Then someone knocked. I flung the door. There stood my neighbor, John. He said, "I hope you weren't asleep. Your car's dome light is on."

I really wished that he had hollered, "Trick or Treat" to me. But I asked him in and then we shared some pumpkin-spice hot tea.

'Twas almost ten before I finally heard my doorbell ring. There stood two boys from just next door. Their sacks held not a thing!

The oldest hollered, "Trick or Treat." Then said, "We started late. We were waiting for our mother. I think she's on a date.

"She called, and said to come right here. She said you'd be the one to brighten up our Halloween. You must be lots of fun."

Neither wore a costume or a coat to keep 'em warm. Thank heaven they lived close where they could go home out of harm.

The oldest brother was in charge. The younger one held back. I told the boys to step on in and open up their sack.

I dumped the bowls of candy I'd been munching on all night, into the empty grocery sacks now filled up nice and tight.

The oldest boy yelled, "Thank you!" The youngest stood wide-eyed. I watched them till they got back home, then blinked and almost cried.

The brothers and their circumstance brightened up my Halloween. Seeing the oldest watch his brother was the sweetest thing I've seen.

The story doesn't end right there. Those two kids spread the word. And now at Trick-or-Treating time, two have become a herd.

FWP and partners celebrate opening of new addition at Missouri Headwaters State Park

A 26-acre parcel that was added to Missouri Headwaters State Park earlier this year is now open for public access. The parcel was officially opened during a celebration event Friday with members of the public, partner organizations and special guests.

The Montana State Parks Foundation acquired the parcel in February using funds provided by a grant from the Montana Fish and Wildlife Conservation Trust and facilitated by Montana's Outdoor Legacy Foundation, and then donated the property to Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks in April.

Since then, FWP staff have been preparing the parcel for safe public access, including removing old farm equipment, fencing and other materials.

"The acquisition of this parcel by Missouri Headwaters State Park has been a goal of the family and park staff for many years, and we're so thankful to the family and our partners for helping make that vision a reality," said Linnaea Schroeer, regional Parks and Outdoor Recreation Program manager for FWP. "This project secures and protects the wild heart of the park for the public to enjoy forever."

"We're thrilled to see the expansion of Missouri Headwaters State Park open to the public," said Megan Buecking, Montana State Parks Foundation executive director. "This new parcel provides opportunities for the public to enjoy outstanding cultural and historic resources, enhances fisheries and wildlife habitat, and expands public access at this iconic park. We extend our deep gratitude to our partners for working with us to make this project possible. We look forward to the bright future of Missouri Headwaters."

"Montana's Outdoor Legacy Foundation is excited to have played a role in making this project a reality," said Mitch King, executive director Montana's Outdoor Legacy Foundation. "This partnership between the Montana Fish and Wildlife Conservation Trust, the Montana Parks Foundation and the family has ensured the permanent protection of this important inholding within Missouri Headwaters State Park. I can think of no better use of the Trust funding."

"Hiking, hunting and fishing are not just activities we do, it's who we are," Gov. Greg Gianforte said. "Securing public access to public lands like this addition at Missouri Headwaters State Park is critical to protecting our Montana way of life."

Additional work to restore habitat is being planned. The westernmost portion of the parcel, which includes a house and several outbuildings, will remain closed to public access until a baseline cultural survey can be done and any buildings not identified for re-use or retention for their historical significance can be removed.

Within the boundaries of Missouri Headwaters State Park, the Jefferson, Madison and Gallatin rivers merge to form the Missouri River, the longest river in the U.S. This area is significant to Native American peoples and was visited by members of the Corps of Discovery in 1805. Now a national historic landmark, the park hosts thousands of visitors each year. The park is about 5 miles northeast of Three Forks on Trident Road.

Mandela van Eeden, host of The Trail Less Traveled

Friday, November 8, 6:30pm - Please join us as Mandela van Eeden, host of The Trail Less Traveled, will take you on a journey through the middle of the world's largest non-polar ice cap. As an expedition guide on the Alsek River, Mandela navigates 160-miles of the Alsek River from its source in the Yukon Territory to the Gulf of Alaska. This 12-day glacial river expedition involves icebergs, a mandatory helicopter portage of "Turnback Canyon" and the largest density of grizzly bears in North America. Learn why the Alsek is the world's wildest and most protected river. Children of all ages are encouraged to attend.

PICKLEBALL COURTS ARE CLOSED FOR THE WINTER SEASON

The Beaverhead Pickleball Association (BPA) announces that it has "winterized" the pickleball courts located at Chris Kraft County Park. The courts are now closed until warmer weather returns sometime in early Spring 2025.

According to BPA Chair Dave Cowardin, "Our first year at the free-to-play public pickleball courts was a successful one. We offered several free classes over the summer, and the interest in playing this family-fun sport is gaining popularity in Beaverhead County.

"BPA appreciates the support that the community has shown during the construction process and during our first summer. We will continue to offer free classes throughout the spring and summer in 2025, and hope everyone will join us on the pickleball courts next year!"

Letter to the Editor

Vote NO on the mill levy to hire 2 new Sheriff Deputies. There is not a need for additional law enforcement in our County .. They say crime is up. How is that being determined? What type of crime? Is it speeding tickets from sitting on Laknar Lane in the dark with lights off trying to catch someone going to fast? Is it arrests made for "crimes" that end up not being prosecuted or being plead down to much lesser charges based upon not enough evidence? Is the claim that more Deputies are needed because it takes 5 law enforcement vehicles and at least 5 law enforcement officials to respond to arrest one person (whether in a motel room or sitting on the corner of a block with no weapons in hand)? It appears that there is a lack of oversight and misuse of resources rather than a true need for additional Deputies. Ever since the loss of Buzz Davis as Sheriff, the Department has deteriorated rapidly. We need accountability not more Deputies.

Bulldogs Smother Firestorm, Break Total Offense Record in 69-7 Win Over Arizona Christian

The no. 6 ranked Montana Western football team (6-1, 4-1) routed the Arizona Christian Firestorm this afternoon in a 69-7 homecoming victory.

The Bulldogs finished off with a whopping 740 yard of total offense, breaking the team record for total offensive yards in a game that was set in 2021 against Rocky Mountain College.

Michael Palandri threw for seven touchdowns, recorded a rushing touchdown, and totaled 431 passing yards in the game. Palandri's seven touchdowns broke the individual record for touchdown passes in a game set by three Bulldog alumni at six total.

In addition, Eli Nourse broke the single game touchdown reception record that was held by 11 Bulldog alumni at three in a game when we recorded four touchdown receptions.

How It Happened: After forcing a turnover on downs on the opening drive, Montana Western pushed down the field in just two minutes to score on a 25-yard touchdown pass to Dylan Shipley.

The following UMW drive saw a quick pass to Shipley for 51-yards, followed by a touchdown pass to Coby Tanioka from 24 yards out.

Nourse capped off the quarter by closing out a six-play 73-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown pass to take a 21-0 lead into the second quarter.

UMW would cash in on two quick scores in the beginning of the second quarter. The first on a 77-yard touchdown rush by Jake Humphrey. The second coming on a 63-yard touchdown pass to Nourse.

Nourse was the target twice more before the end of the first half. The first on a 31-yard touchdown reception and the second on a 33-yard touchdown reception to send UMW into the half up 49-0.

Palandri was the hero in the opening drive of the second half, rushing it in for a five-yard touchdown rush that capped off a seven-play 75-yard drive.

UMW's defense continued to hold down the fort and James Ochs recovered a fumble on UMW's 15-yard line to bring the offense back on the field.

Palandri once again helped UMW to find the end zone, this time on a touchdown pass to tight end Matthew Heer from five yards out.

Up 62-0, Kaden Jenks checked into the game at quarterback for the fourth quarter, tossing up an 11-yard touchdown pass to Seth Shook that capped off a seven play, 45-yard drive.

Despite ACU recording their lone score of the game, the Bulldogs would close the game out on top at 69-7.

Notables

- UMW recorded 740 yards of offense, with an impressive 457 yards through the air.
- Palandri threw for 431 passing yards and seven touchdowns. Jenks stepped in and threw a touchdown of his own with 26 passing yards.
- Nourse led the Bulldogs with nine receptions for 214 receiving yards and four touchdowns.
- Humphrey led on the ground with 134 rushing yards and a 77-yard touchdown rush.
- Nine Bulldog defenders recorded tackles for loss in the game, with Jace Fitzgerald recording 10 tackles and 1.5 sacks.

Up Next: The Bulldogs will prepare for a road trip next week to Havre, Mont. where they will face the MSU-Northern Lights on Nov. 2 at 1 p.m.

"Putting Compassion into Action: Understanding ACEs"

Wishing to invite you (all of you) to "Putting Compassion into Action: Understanding ACEs" on Saturday, November 2nd at 9am-11:30am. During this experiential workshop participants will learn how and why adversity experienced in early life can impact long term health (physical and mental) and wellbeing. Participants will also learn practical tools and skills for addressing and healing the impact of adversity, within themselves and/or within others. The workshop will be held at the Early Childhood Coalition (across from Jaycee Park, the Old Mary Innes School). It is free of charge; there will be childcare and food. And, for those needing them, CEUs will be available.
