Press Release from Dillon Elementary School District #10 Regarding Mock Drill on Wednesday, November 6th at 1:00 p.m.

The Dillon Elementary School District would like to pass along some important information pertaining to an upcoming event.

The Dillon Elementary School Crisis team, in conjunction with community agencies and partners, has organized a "mock" 'Active Shooter Response Training Drill' for the afternoon of Wednesday, November 6th. The District is required to practice various drills throughout the year. Unlike other drills, this "mock" drill will involve various community emergency personnel and agencies such as law enforcement, fire department, hospital personnel, and ambulance services. This drill is being conducted in alliance with these community partners so that we may all practice.

Students will have an early release that afternoon and will be released at 12:00 noon on Wednesday, November 6th and the "mock" drill will take place in the afternoon with staff only in attendance.

The goal of the District Crisis Team is for our students, staff, and community emergency personnel to be prepared in case of such an emergency. Practice helps accomplish that goal.

Our District Crisis Team and I would like to thank Jason Grimmis, Director of Security at the University of Montana Western; Tom Wagenknecht, Beaverhead County Disaster and Emergency Services; Mike Reid, Chancellor at the University of Montana Western, Dillon Police Chief Jeremy Alvarez, Beaverhead County Sheriff Dave Wendt, Dillon Fire Chief BJ Klose, our local EMT's and Barrett Hospital personnel as well as Beaverhead County Health Officials for their collaboration and expertise.

Sincerely, Randy Shipman
Superintendent, Dillon Elementary School District #10

General season opens with mild weather, lower-than-average hunter success in southwestern Montana

Hunters should continue to practice bear safety

Montana's general hunting season kicked off on Saturday with seasonably mild weather and mostly below-average hunter participation and success in several areas of southwestern Montana.

Wildlife biologists with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks use check stations to collect data on hunter participation and success, as well as the species, sex and age class of the animals harvested. This supplements data collected through hunter harvest phone surveys each year.

Over opening weekend on Oct. 26 and 27, biologists operated six check game check stations in the region: Alder, Canyon Ferry, Cameron, Divide, Gallatin and Silver City. They met with 2,288 hunters, who collectively harvested 137 elk, 18 mule deer and 10 white-tailed deer, among other species.

The Alder, Divide and Canyon Ferry check stations saw lower-than-average hunter numbers for opening weekend. Hunter numbers were about average at the Cameron and Gallatin check stations. Participation ranged from 544 hunters at the Silver City check station to 226 hunters at the Gallatin check station.

Hunter success was below average at the Alder, Canyon Ferry, Divide and Gallatin check stations, and within the long-term average at the Cameron check station. Hunter success ranged from 9.7 percent at the Alder check station to 3.9 percent at the Canyon Ferry check station.

Weather over the weekend was sunny and warm in most areas of the region, with snow only at the highest elevations.

Be bear aware

FWP reminds hunters that bears will remain active throughout the general season, and hunters should be prepared for bear encounters. Montana is bear country. Grizzly bear populations continue to become denser and more widespread in Montana, increasing the likelihood that residents and recreationists will encounter them in more places each year.

People who hunt in places that have or may have grizzly bears—which includes much of the western two-thirds of the state—should take special precautions:

- Carry bear spray and practice to be prepared to use it immediately.
- Look for bear sign and be cautious around creeks and areas

- with limited visibility.
- Hunt with a group of people. Making localized noise can help alert bears to your presence.
- Be aware that elk calls and cover scents can attract bears.
- Bring the equipment and people needed to help field dress game and remove the meat from the kill site as soon as possible.
- If you need to leave part of the meat in the field during retrieval, hang it at least 10 feet off the ground and at least 150 yards from the gut pile. Leave it where it can be observed from a distance of at least 200 yards.
- Upon your return, make noise and observe the meat with binoculars. If it has been disturbed or if a bear is in the area, leave and call FWP.

Smith Named NAIA Attacker of the Week

The NAIA released its week ten Women's Volleyball National Player of the Week honors on Tuesday Morning. Montana Western's Jazi Smith has been named National Attacker of the Week.

Smith is the third women's volleyball athlete in program history to earn an NAIA Player of the Week honor.

Smith had an astounding weekend after the Bulldogs went a perfect 2-0 after winning a pair of five-set matches against RV Carroll College and Rocky Mountain College. She led the 17th ranked Bulldogs to a 2-0 record after racking up 44 kills on a .350 hitting percentage. She averaged 4.4 kills per set for the week and also added five blocks, two service aces and three assists.

Smith became the first UMW in the rally scoring era to top 1,000 career kills in a career after their 3-2 victory versus Rocky Mountain.

This is also the third time in the coaching career of coach Katie Lovett to have a player achieve NAIA National Player of the Week honors.

Deadline for governor's youth hunting story contest is December 2

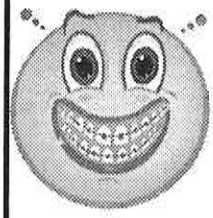

To celebrate our hunting heritage in Montana, Gov. Greg Gianforte launched the third annual Youth Hunting Story Contest in August for Montana youth and apprentice hunters ages 10 to 17. The deadline to enter the contest is Monday, Dec. 2, 2024.

To enter the contest, hunters must submit a story of no more than 500 words and a photo from their 2024 hunt. Hunters must be Montana residents and licensed hunters or apprentice hunters between the ages of 10 and 17. Eligible entries include harvesting any legal game, furbearer animals or birds in Montana.

The governor will select 10 hunters, five aged 10 to 13 and five aged 14 to 17, and announce the winners in late December. The winners will be invited to the Capitol to celebrate with the governor and receive their prizes in January of the new year.

The 2024 contest's prize partners include Sitka, Stone Glacier, Kenetrek Boots, J2 Taxidermy, the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Murdochs and the Montana Outfitters and Guides Association.

Learn more and enter at youthhunting.mt.gov.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen: 'Nearly 285,000 absentee ballots received 1 week before Election Day'

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen said nearly 285,000 absentee ballots have been received by election officials entering the final week until Election Day. County election administrators have issued more than 500,000 absentee ballots to registered absentee voters for the 2024 General Election.

"More than half of Montana's absentee ballots, 54 percent, have been voted and returned to county election offices across the state," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Thousands of our Montana friends, family, and neighbors are ensuring their voices are heard in this historic election, and the Montana Elections Team reminds all absentee voters to make a plan to return their voted ballots to their county election officials.

"Now that we are within one week of Election Day, election officials encourage absentee voters to deliver their ballots in person to ensure that they are received, signatures verified, and prepared for counting. Ballots must be voted and delivered by 8 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, November 5."

Secretary Jacobsen reminds absentee voters that they can track the status of their absentee ballot by visiting VoteMT.gov/voter-info. The status of an absentee voter's status may include:

- SENT: Your county has mailed your absentee ballot packet.
- RECEIVED: Your county has received your voted absentee ballot.
- ACCEPTED: Your signature was verified and your ballot will be counted during tabulation.

Voters should contact their county if they did not receive their absentee ballot or if their ballot status is "UNDELIVERABLE" or "REJECTED."

Earlier this year, Secretary Jacobsen unveiled the Absentee Ballot Counts webpage. The interactive and user-friendly report provides Montana voters with updated information about absentee ballot counts during the election. It can be viewed on the Secretary of State's website (https://sosmt.gov/elections/absentee-ballot-count/).

Last week, Secretary Jacobsen voted her ballot and submitted it to the Lewis and Clark County Elections Office. Using the resources available at VoteMT.gov/voter-info, she verified her ballot was received and accepted by the county election office.

"Join the hundreds of thousands of Montanans in casting your votes for offices from the President to your local government positions," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Thanks for voting, Montana!"

Veteran's Corner

By Mike Lawson

It's that time of year when Veteran's Day is fast approaching on the 11th of November. That will fall on a Monday this year.Our many communities across SW Montana that have Veteran's Organizations will be celebrating with ceremonies and events. I can report on Dillon and Butte this week as follows: 1) Dillon will have their annual "Breakfast with a Vet" at which they'll be giving out Poppy's with a request for donations as part of their Poppy Drive. As a reminder their American Legion meets on the 1st Wednesday of the month and their VFW Meets on the 2nd Wednesday of the month. Call Tom Straugh at 1-406-925-1866 for more information. 2) Butte will have a Veteran Day Ceremony in the Civic Center Annex (10:00) conducted by the Silver Bow County "United Veteran's Council Honor Guard". The American Legion Post#1 will again have the Annual Veteran's Day Race and luncheon. The VFW Post #748 will be having Poppy Drives at both Safeways, Walmart and Three Bears grocery stores. These fundraisers help veterans and their families as well as the communities they live in.

The VA housed more than 43,000 Veterans experiencing homelessness between October 2023 and August 2024. Another reason to never privatize the VA.

The VA Is accepting grant applications for a new program helping Veteran's and their spouses transition from military service. If any of your family members or friends are in this position, have them apply to GRANTS.GOV

Cardiovascular disease is the #1 cause of death in Americans. We know we are all affected by this disease. It's a good idea to get our tickers checked on a regular basis. For Veterans in the VA Health System, call for an appointment with your Primary Care Giver and get checked to be on the safe side.

I haven't heard from the hunting camp but will head out there in another day or so and hope to see some elk carcasses hanging in camp. We typically butcher on Friday and Saturday, if needed, and than go our separate ways. Our time together was another year of making great memories. After 49 years and four generations of friends and families we're ready to make it 50 years in 2025. May you all have a great week.

Until next time, take care.

Southwest Veterans Memorial - Thank you!

We would especially like to thank Klasen Septic & Portable Toilet Rental & their equipment & employees Josh Muntzer & Cheyenne Tyreg for cleaning up the south side of the Southwestern Veterans Memorial! It looked awful & really brought down the beauty of the Memorial & all the hard work & dedication Harvey, Sr. & Bootsie Lake did for years! God Bless the Lake families. Especially Ronnie who did the amazing construction of the memorial & waterfalls & upkeep & Nolan for mowing and weed eating the park & all the years of love they put into this beautiful memorial! As Veterans Day approaches us, give them an extra " thank you " if you see them out & about. Thank a Veteran for their Service to the USA

Mandela van Eeden, host of The Trail Less Traveled

Friday, November 8, 6:30pm - : Please join us at Patagonia as Mandela van Eeden, host of The Trail Less Traveled, will take you on a journey through the middle of the world's largest non-polar ice cap. As an expedition guide on the Alsek River, Mandela navigates 160-miles of the Alsek River from its source in the Yukon Territory to the Gulf of Alaska. This 12-day glacial river expedition involves icebergs, a mandatory helicopter portage of "Turnback Canyon" and the largest density of grizzly bears in North America. Learn why the Alsek is the world's wildest and most protected river. Children of all ages are encouraged to attend.

Beautiful 2.716 acre lot in Dillon's Sweetwater PUD subdivision ready for a new build!

Tucked in against the hillside, this lot offers privacy as well as bordering the East Bench Canal. Electricity to the lot and area homes are on propane. Less than 3 miles to schools, parks, and downtown for an easy commute but removed enough to enjoy the wonderful country scenery. Covenants to protect your assets and surrounded by newer construction homes.
