Isiah Thomas Leavens

Our sweet precious little boy, Isiah Thomas Leavens, was born to Joshua and Amanda Leavens on October 16th at 10:14 p.m. at Community Medical Center in Missoula, Montana.

Isiah passed peacefully shortly after in his parents loving arms and surrounded by family. Although his time here on earth was short, we will always cherish the time we were able to spend with our precious son. We know you will always be looking over us, especially your brother and sister, and will always be our guardian angel.

Fly high like an eagle sweet boy, whatever you do.

Isiah is survived by his parents, Joshua and Amanda Leavens. His siblings, Leila and Elijah Leavens. Grandparents, Annie and Michael Meek, Tina Moran, Robert Leavens and Dusty MacDonald, Great Grandma, Tina Annis and great grandpa Jim Moran (Marty). His aunts and uncles, Hollee (Ben) McCann, Cheree (Buck) Meek, and Tabitha Leavens.

He is survived by many cousins and other family. Isiah is preceded in death by many great grandparents and family.

We are so grateful for all our doctors, Dr. Kelly Smith and Dr. Bardett Fausett, our nurse Ashley Miller, and all the other nurses at Origin Health and Community Medical Center that helped support us during this time.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Ramsey Keller Foundation, March of Dimes, or Community Medical Center.

Hitched Over Turkey and Booze

Bryce Angell

The widow O'Bryan had her eye on Hank, but Hank was a bachelor confessed. His job at the Double Halo A Ranch kept him busy, more than the rest.

Hank was not flirtatious. His life was the ranch and the cows. He promised to stay a lone cowboy. And never take the vows.

Marriage seemed like shackles, he couldn't imagine the thrill. But the widow O'Bryan would have her way. To her Hank fit the bill.

She really didn't know ole Hank. No matter, just the same. 'Cuz to her he was available. Someday she'd wear his name.

Thanksgiving Day was coming. She would need to make a plan. What could she do to make this cowboy want to be her man?

She knew ole Hank wouldn't pass a meal of turkey and pumpkin pie. She would invite him over for dinner, then she'd snare this hunk of a guy.

Hank accepted her invite, reserved and cautious of course. Thanksgiving Day arrived, so he saddled up his horse.

Now Hank was a man of punctual time. Early he did arrive. He knew too well the widow's scheme yet couldn't pass pumpkin pie.

Hank attempted conversation, to the widow preoccupied. She was sending word to a preacher who'd be persuaded to take her side.

The widow O'Bryan pulled from the shelf her favorite whiskey blend. Then with confidence she asked, "Join me for a drink, my friend?"

She knew too well a festive drink with Hank would have no ebb. The cowboy was about to be in a certain widow's web.

The widow wasn't gonna let Hank's whiskey glass run dry. To get him here took all her wits. There weren't any bigger fish to fry.

Hank ate a bite of turkey . It was marvelous to taste. But the widow's booze caused him to lose and left him one big waste.

As Hank woke up and cleared his head the widow placed the band. He was a might confused about the gold ring on his hand.

Hank's head was spinning when he heard a man's voice in the room. The clergy's voice spoke out so clearly, "You may kiss the groom."

Well then he glimpsed the preacher who had promptly been dismissed. He was sneaking out the back door with a fifty in his fist.

So if you're the only bachelor at this next Thanksgiving meal. And a preacher sits beside you, I'd stand up and turn to heel!

Attorney General Knudsen shares tips to avoid scams during holiday season

As Montanans prepare for holiday shopping this Black Friday and Cyber Monday, Attorney General Austin Knudsen is sharing a reminder to stay vigilant and be aware of common scams, which usually increase this time of year.

"Scammers will be looking to take advantage of unsuspecting Montanans doing their Christmas shopping online. Please, stay vigilant and trust your gut. If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Don't let bad actors wreak havoc on your holiday season."

Attorney General Knudsen shared the following tips and reminders to avoid falling victim to an internet scam while shopping this holiday season:

- When making a purchase through social media: verify the company, ensure the website is secure before paying, check the account's public information, and be cautious when clicking links.
- Use a credit card for online shopping so you can track your purchases and dispute any charges you didn't make or don't recognize with the credit card company. Do not use wire transfers or gift cards to make a payment. Anyone who asks you to pay using one of these methods is most likely a scammer.
- Be wary of a false sense of urgency. Trust your gut. If it seems too good to be true, it probably is.
- Do not send gift cards, prepaid debit cards, or cryptocurrency to someone you do not know. Even if you think it is someone you know, verify their identity before you wire any money.

- Never cash checks that you weren't expecting.
- When purchasing gift cards, check the terms and keep the receipts. Remember, Montana law stipulates that gift cards and gift certificates do not expire unless the business is sold. Gift cards can also be redeemed for cash if they were originally for more the $5 but have less than $5 remaining.

Candlelight tours offered at Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

Tickets can be purchased online or by phone starting Dec. 2

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park will once again host candlelight tours of the entire developed cave route.

This special event allows visitors to see and enjoy the caverns by the warm, festive glow of candle lanterns—the same way the first explorers viewed them. Participants must make a reservation and purchase tickets prior to their tour.

Tours will be offered from Dec. 20-22 and Dec. 27-29. The starting times of these tours will vary, depending on park staffing for the day.

Park staff will provide tour guides, candles, lanterns and hot drinks. The cost for this unique event is $25 for visitors ages 15 and older, and $15 for visitors ages 5 to 14. All participants must be at least 5 years of age. Nonresident visitors must pay an $8-per-vehicle entrance fee as they enter the park.

Tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis and must be purchased online or by phone starting Dec. 2 at 8 a.m. Mountain Standard Time. To purchase tickets call 1-855-922-6768. No tickets will be sold at the park visitor center.

What to expect

Candlelight tours follow the entire developed cave route, with a ¾-mile uphill walk on a potentially icy and snowy path to reach the cave entrance. Visitors must complete this within 30 minutes to be eligible for the tour. Participants are encouraged to be prepared for winter conditions on roads and trails at the park.

Walking the ¾-mile underground trail involves turning, bending, duck waddling and a slide. The first half will use the cave lights, and the second half will use the glow of candle lanterns. The tour provides an intimate look at cave formations, known as speleothems. Visitors will visit Decision Rock, the Cathedral Room, the Pit, Garden of the Gods, the Brown Waterfall Room and the Paradise Room. The tour concludes with a flat, half-mile walk back to the visitor center on a potentially icy or snowy path. The total walking distance is 2 miles.

During the tour, visitors will pass near hibernating bats. White-nose syndrome, a fungus that affects bats but not people, has reached Montana. Bat mortalities from the disease have exceeded 80 percent in some areas. Managers are requiring precautions from visitors to reduce additional stressors to this fragile cave resource. Visitors cannot bring any clothing or other items that have been to another cave or mine in the past five years.

All tours are by a trained guide. No self-guided tours are available. The cave has an average temperature of 50 degrees Fahrenheit and over 90 percent humidity year-round, regardless of outside weather. Most areas are dimly lit, and some are narrow and enclosed. Visitors should consider bringing a warm jacket, good walking shoes and bottled water. Pets, strollers, backpacks and purses are not allowed.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park is about 15 miles southeast of Whitehall, along Montana Highway 2. For more information about the park call 406-287-3541.

Bookstore Featuring Butte author on Shop Small Saturday

Debbie Sorenson author of Beyond the Jumpshot will be signing copies of her book at The Bookstore during shop small Saturday November 30th starting at 1:00 pm.

Have you ever heard the name Kenny Sailors? Didn't the jump shot always exist in basketball? When Kenny Sailors was born in 1921, his dad didn't want another mouth to feed. Ed Sailors left the family. Kenny and his brother were raised by a single mother on a starvation operation farm in Wyoming. With faith in God and grit, the family preserved and overcame.If the boys had any free time on the farm, they played ball in the dirt corral in front of a wooden windmill. To score against his bigger brother, Kenny used his ingenuity, and speed, to jump and shoot. His jump shot helped him to succeed on the hardwood and propelled him into basketball leadership; in high school, college, and eventually pro ball. After leaving the pros, Kenny and his wife made their way to the interior of Alaska, where he taught high school and volunteered to coach basketball in the town of Glennallen. While in Alaska, Kenny developed the girls' basketball program in the public school system of that state. Basketball continued to be a springboard for Kenny to encourage many folks, especially young people until he died in 2016. Even if you are not a basketball fan you will enjoy this book.

Beyond the Jump Shot is a story of basketball and life that will elevate and inspire you to believe, and try something different. If you have any questions or would like to reserve a copy call The Bookstore at 683-6807

According to court record, he was not found innocent or guilty for the rapes. He received a conditional Deferred Prosecuting Agreement , in part due to the complexity of trying rape in marriage. For his abusive handling of a minor, he received one year suspended prison sentence. The important thing is, it's stopped, and the treatment is on record.

I recommend the film, 'It Ends with Us' for family of survivors of domestic violence.

Thank you to those in the justice system who worked tirelessly to procure justice. I am neither alone nor special, in that I should receive perfect justice when so many have not, and God's timing is not our own.

Thank you for your thoughts and prayers.

Dear Citizens of Dillon, Montana,

We are excited to announce the Dillon Police Department's latest community initiative: the addition of a new patrol vehicle funded through a generous grant opportunity. On July 25, 2024, we submitted a grant request to the Montana Emergency Tourism Assistance Grant Program (METAP), offered by the Department of Commerce. We are thrilled to share that we have successfully secured $76,192.27 for a fully outfitted 2025 Police Interceptor, tailored to meet the needs of our department.

This vehicle will feature a custom wrap that reflects Dillon's unique identity and promotes the incredible tourism opportunities in our area. To make this project truly representative of our community, we are inviting you, the citizens of Dillon, to help select the theme for this new patrol car's design. Options for the wrap include:

- Lewis & Clark Expedition Theme
- Rodeo Theme
- Blue Ribbon Trout Streams/Hunting
- Bannack
- University of Montana Western/Dillon Beavers
- 1889 Beaverhead County Historical Courthouse

By pursuing this grant, we aimed to minimize the financial impact on Dillon's taxpayers while enhancing our community's safety and showcasing our local pride.

To gather your input and celebrate this exciting milestone, we invite you to join us for a Meet & Greet on Wednesday, December 18, 2024, from 5:30 PM to 6:50 PM at Dillon City Hall, just before the City Council meeting. This will be a great opportunity to learn more about the project, meet our officers, and cast your vote for your favorite patrol car design.

We value your involvement and hope you'll join us in making this initiative a success. Together, let's create a patrol vehicle that not only serves but also celebrates our wonderful community.

Thank you for your continued support of the Dillon Police Department. We look forward to seeing you on December 18!

Sincerely,
Jeremy Alvarez
