HANDBLOWN GLASS ORNAMENTS

During the month of December, Tendoy Fine Art Gallery is excited to feature handblown glass ornaments made in the glass shop at U ofM - Western. Around 100 ornaments will be on display and available to purchase. In addition, Heather Reedy, a 2023 recipient of a Pilchuck Glass School scholarship, will be displaying jewelry she made by lampworking Italian glass beads. She will have a special showing of her works on December 6th at Tendoy during the Christmas Stroll. Refreshments will be available and Tendoy will be open until 8:00 pm.

Reedy, the mother of two, is a ranch woman who began making fiber art almost thirty years ago. In 2022, she began attending classes at the U of M-Western. She hopes to graduate from Western and then continue her studies to earn an MFA degree in Visual Arts. The glass program at Western has been developing over the last few years and affords a specialty that includes scientific glass blowing as well as art glass. This year four students received scholarships to attend Pilchuck, located on the Olympic Peninsula in Washington State. This premiere glass blowing and fabrication school has long been the Mecca of those wanting to learn how to manipulate glass from the current masters in the field.

Women's Resource Center Launches Its "Double Your Impact" Fundraising Campaign

As the holiday season approaches, the Women's Resource Center (WRC) extends heartfelt thanks to our partners for helping us provide another successful year of free, confidential services to survivors of domestic and sexual violence in Beaverhead and Madison Counties.

To close 2024 strong, WRC has launched the "Double Your Impact" campaign, with a goal of raising $150,000 to fund our essential services. These funds will directly support individuals in crisis—women, men, and children—helping them find safe environments and access crucial support for navigating legal, financial, and employment challenges as they move toward safer, healthier lives.

Thanks to a generous donor, the first $15,000 raised will be matched dollar-for-dollar, turning it into $30,000 toward our $150,000 goal.

Help us make a difference this holiday season. Visit givebutter.com/hXWM5b or scan the QR code below to donate. Checks can be mailed to WRC, P.O. Box 888, Dillon, MT 59725. Please indicate "Double Your Impact Campaign" in the memo. All donations are tax-deductible. For more information, call (406) 683-6106 or visit wrcmt.org.

AG Knudsen and MHP encourage
Driving Prevention Month

Attorney General Austin Knudsen and the Montana Highway Patrol (MHP) are reminding drivers to stay safe and sober on the road as December is National Impaired Driving Prevention Month. To crack down on drunk and drugged drivers during the holidays, the Highway Patrol will increase its presence on Montana's roads and highways from December 11 to January 1.

There has been an increase in fatalities and crashes on Montana roadways compared to last year. This year, there were 134 traffic deaths from January 1 through August 31 – a six percent increase from the same time last year. Alcohol has been a factor in 36 percent of fatal crashes this year, while drugs were a factor in 13 percent of fatal crashes.

"Please be responsible when you get behind the wheel this holiday season," Attorney General Knudsen said. "You can do your part in ensuring everyone makes it home safely to their families this Christmas by simply deciding not to drive under the influence of drugs or alcohol."

"We will have increased patrols on Montana roads this winter looking for impaired drivers to help everyone make it to and from their destination over the holidays," MHP Colonel Kurt Sager said. "Have fun this season, but if you plan on drinking while you're out, designate a driver or use a ridesharing service or public transportation to get home." Take the following precautions when celebrating this holiday season:

- Designate a sober driver before any event involving alcohol.
- Utilize ride-sharing services or public transportation when available.
- Host responsibly, don't overserve and ensure guests have safe options to get home if they've been drinking.

Do you own enough Christmas music?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

A large part of my collection was destroyed earlier this year, but I still have visions of the world's largest stockpile of Christmas music dancing in my head.

I cherish a handful of songs that I "must" hear each yuletide season, but my reach inevitably exceeds my grasp as I try to "have it all."

Part of that is attributable to my wife. She's no Grinch, but she detests being bombarded with a month's worth of silver bells and reindeer-trampled grandmas at home, so I must squeeze in precious moments of listening at work and in my car. In the latter venue, my divided loyalties mean the songs are interspersed with talk radio. It's amazing how smoothly "Mary, did you know?" segues into "No, because the Deep State hid it from me. From all of us!"

Christmas is special to me because it's when the old-style crooners get to shine. Imagine, singers who actually articulate! Singers who don't feed the microphone all the way down to their spleen. Singers who don't get drowned out by a teeth-rattling guitar solo that lasts longer than the quest of the Magi!

Ah, the classic song stylists. My hobby gives me the opportunity to compare and contrast umpteen renditions of perpetually popular songs. Granted, I feel disloyal when I discover a version almost as good as what Bing, Judy, Dean, Frank, Elvis, Perry, Andy or Burl produced. Sacrilege! (I'll be home for Christmas...unless the house is haunted by jealous legendary performers.)

Thanks to YouTube, I also get the chance to discover underappreciated "lost" ditties such as the 1947 "Santa Claus For President." (Perhaps the next Trump administration will declassify archived documents and finally reveal whether Pres. Harry S Truman did in fact ask, "Are you sure we don't have another A-bomb to drop on, I don't know ...the North Pole?")

Every A-list artist, rising star, has-been and never-was seemingly has at least one Christmas album buried somewhere deep inside. Some are narcissists and don't truly respect the source material. Trust me: any time a song about snowmen or angelic hosts begins with "Oh, saaaay can you seeeeeeeee," someone is showing off.

But who am I to stand in the way of other people's dreams? There's something sweet about hearing, "Ever since I was a little tyke, I always dreamed of growing up to record a Christmas song. That, and biting the head off of Ozzy Osbourne."

It's fascinating to see how many agnostics, atheists and Baal worshippers are eager to belt out spiritual Christmas songs. ("Joy to the world, the royalty check is come! Let earth receive her Almighty Dollar!")

I love to discover which songs people adore and which ones drive them crazy. I'll never forget the fellow who gets triggered by Paul McCartney incessantly warbling, "Simply having a wonderful Christmastime. Simply having a wonderful Christmastime." ("I wanna hold your throat, I wanna hold your throoooooat!")

Don't fight it. Join me in reveling in Christmas music.

The right mix of seasonal music can help you maintain tranquility during the stressful holidays. Peace on earth takes some preparation, because often you're less interested in decking the halls than in decking your know-it-all in-laws.

Now I'll put "White Christmas" on the MP3 player. Hey, this version is even better than ...

Uh oh.

Oh, I want an exorcist or two for Christmas. Only an exorcist will do...

Muzzleloader Heritage Season opens soon

Muzzleloader heritage season opens on Saturday, Dec. 14, and runs through Sunday, Dec. 22. This season is for heritage muzzleloaders only; no other means of taking game, such as archery, is allowed. Note that some areas have elk shoulder seasons through Feb. 15, where firearms and archery equipment may be allowed.

Hunters should also note that many of Montana's Block Management Areas (BMAs), even though they are open for upland bird or waterfowl through Jan. 1, are not allowing the harvest of deer or elk during the muzzleloader heritage season. Make sure to check BMA rules before you hunt.

Hunters should check the hunting regulations to make sure they are compliant with all rules and regulations for this season.

Veteran's Corner Update #285

By Mike Lawson

Veteran News Updates:

- The Marine Tots For Tots' sister campaigns in Anaconda and Deer Lodge are going strong. Our Butte Campaign, covering not only Butte but Dillon/Twin Bridges and the Ruby Valley, White Hall, Harrison and Cardwell is also going strong. We have been collecting and buying toys and are now receiving applications from the families needing toys for their children from these various locations. Filling bags with gifts for each of these kids brings overwhelming joy to our "Santa's Helpers" who perform this duty. We thank them and all of you out there who donate gifts, money and your time for the kids.

- All VA facilities are accepting walk-ins for Covid 19 Vaccinations nationwide. Check and see if a facility or VA clinic near you administers these Vaccinations. Fort Harrison does this for sure and it's worth checking to see if a VA "Community Based Out-patient Care" clinic is offering this service, near you. Its set up for all eligible Veterans, spouses and caregivers.

- It's always a pleasure to quote a few VA Statistics that continues to confirm what a world class health care system the VA is for Veterans: 1) The VA supported a record number of women Veterans: 3,218 women Veterans received compensation, representing an estimated $78,100,000 in earned benefits. Also, 233 women Veterans in Montana enrolled in VA health care. The VA has more women enrolled in it's health care system than ever before. 2) The VA interred 151 Veterans in VA's national cemeteries in Montana this year. 3) VA delivered more than 916,000 health care appointments to Montana Veterans this year, and 1,919 Montana Veterans enrolled in VA health care. 4) Nationwide, Veteran trust in VA reached 80.4% this year, an all time record and an increase of 25% since 2016. Veteran trust in VA health care also reached 92%, another record..... When I hear someone bad mouth the VA, I'm quick to defend it and these statistics are just one reason why.

Our hunting season has come to a close except for some possible late hunts which I hope I can participate in. We are very privileged to live in Montana and have a month of rifle season to hunt in. Hopefully our way of life will not be forced to change. I'll close for now and encourage you to get out and enjoy some of this month's Christmas activities.

Until next time, take care.

Lindsey Branch Named to CSC 30 Under 30 Class for 2024

Montana Western is proud to announce that Assistant Athletic Director Lindsey Branch has been named to the prestigious College Sports Communicators (CSC) 30 Under 30 Class for 2024. In just its third year, this national recognition has quickly become one of the most meaningful honors for young communications and creative professionals in college sports.

The 2024 class was selected from a record 176 nominees. To be eligible, candidates must be CSC members, 29 years old or younger on December 31, 2024, and must not have previously received the honor. Selections are based on professional success, contributions to their athletic department or conference office, and service to CSC.

"Lindsey's hard work and passion have elevated Montana Western Athletics," said Michael Feuling, Montana Western's Athletic Director. "Her selection in the CSC 30 Under 30 Class highlights not only her exceptional talent but also her dedication to our student-athletes, programs, and the entire Bulldog community. We are so fortunate to have her on our team."

Branch's recognition highlights the excellence she brings to Montana Western Athletics and reflects the institution's commitment to supporting and celebrating its talented professionals. Her achievements have made a lasting impact on Bulldog Athletics, further establishing Montana Western as a leader in collegiate sports.

About CSC 30 Under 30

The CSC 30 Under 30 honors rising stars in the world of college sports communication and creativity. It celebrates individuals who are shaping the future of the industry through their achievements and dedication.

BEST OF THE WEST PROPERTIES

Dear Community Members, Friends, and Colleagues,

We wanted to take a moment to thank you for your continued support and trust in Best of the West Properties—it truly means the world to us! We also wanted to let you know about a few changes happening here at the office.

First, we are absolutely thrilled to announce that Corinne Welborn has returned to the role of Owner/Broker. With 40 + years of experience under her belt, she has a deep knowledge of Beaverhead County and the surrounding areas, and she's seen firsthand how the local market has evolved over the years. Her expertise is unparalleled, and her ability to guide clients through even the most complex real estate transactions is something we all admire. Corinne is not only an incredible professional but also a wonderful leader who deeply cares about the community and the people she works with.

We're also proud to have Angela Macdonald as part of our team. While Angela has only been in real estate going on two years, she has quickly proven herself to be a standout agent. Her passion for helping clients find their dream homes is evident in everything she does. She takes the time to understand each client's unique needs and goes above and beyond to ensure they have a seamless and stress-free experience. Her warm, approachable demeanor and attention to detail make her an absolute pleasure to work with. Angela has already built a strong reputation for her dedication to her clients, and we have no doubt that she will continue to make a lasting impact on the community.

We're also excited to share that Cassidy Thorn will remain with us as our Executive Assistant. She has been with Best of the West for going on three years now, and her attention to detail and organizational skills are truly invaluable to the team. She helps keep everything running smoothly so we can focus on providing the best possible service to our clients.

We wish Laramie the best as she has stepped away for personal reasons and is no longer affiliated with Best of the West Properties. We are in the process of expanding our office and will update you as these changes materialize.

Our commitment to serving you with the same level of care and dedication that has defined our 35 years of real estate service in Beaverhead County and the surrounding areas remains stronger than ever! We are here for all your real estate needs, and we look forward to continuing our work together. Please feel free to stop by the office anytime—we'd love to see you! Wishing you and your family a Merry Christmas and many blessings this holiday season.
