Richard T. (Dick) Smith

Dick Smith passed away January 18, 2025 in Yuma, AZ with his wife by his side. Dick was born April 23, 1951 in Dillon, MT to Roy and Lois Smith. Dick attended school in Dillon and graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1969. He then attended 1 year of diesel mechanic school in Denver, CO. Upon returning to Dillon, Dick married his high school sweetheart, Shannon Dougherty on November 5, 1971. Dick and Shannon welcomed their only child, Trina, in 1972.

Dick worked at Pfizer, Inc until 1978 when his mother purchased Robertson Ready Mix and changed the name to L.S. Ready Mix Concrete, Inc. Dick learned the concrete, precast, sand and gravel business and worked in every area of the business for 47 years. Dick was still working during non-winter months driving his semi, bringing the cement to the plant from Helena and Missoula. It was what he loved to do and would often stop along the way to take pictures.

Dick enjoyed ranch life growing up and developed a love for the outdoors. Dick loved to golf and he and Shannon spent many years bowling. Later in life, he took a liking to photography, which became his passion. He rarely left home without a camera. He had a keen eye and could "work his magic" on any photo.

Dick was a beloved son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, colleague, friend and neighbor. He could fix anything and was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Dick and Shannon took the winter months off to enjoy the Arizona sunshine. They enjoyed side by siding, trips to Mexico with friends and occasional happy hours at their home in Yuma, AZ.

Dick was preceded in death by his parents Roy and Lois Smith,

Wrestling Hall of Famer

TJ Nelson was a 4-time Placer for Whitehall High School. A state champion in 1980 and 1981.

In 1983, TJ was a member of the North Idaho Junior College National Championship team. After leaving North Idaho, TJ wrestled for the University of Montana Grizzlies and a member of the 1987 Big Sky Championship team. After college, TJ coached at the NAIA level for Western Montana College Bulldogs for 12 years. TJ coached 45 All Americans and 9 NAIA National Champions. After his team won the 1994 national championship he was voted the NAIA National Coach of the year.

Just a couple of years ago, he was inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame for Coaching. For the past 18 years, TJ coached at Beaverhead County High School in Dillon. He has coached 10 State Champions to their goal and numerous state placers. He has also developed or mentored numerous coaches currently coaching in Montana and throughout the country.

Thank you to TJ Nelson for all the support you have given Wrestling in Montana and beyond its borders. Well done!

TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION

The property "tax relief" plans being introduced in Helena are likely unconstitutional and are certainly immoral. Voting to put higher taxes on real estate owned by those who are not residents of the state of Montana (and hence can not vote for or against this higher taxation they are singled out for) likely qualifies as "taxation without representation". Couldn't this special higher tax on real estate owned by people who don't have a vote be challenged in court? Our state 'representatives' don't have to worry about losing the votes of people who can't vote, so why not tax them more...? One of the problems with our tax system is the majority are always voting for higher taxes on the minority (or in this case those that don't have a vote at all) for the stuff they want. That is immoral.

The argument is, "well they don't pay income tax". However, any income made in the state of Montana is taxable to the state of Montana whether you are a resident or not and many out-of-staters do make money here but still don't have a vote. Those property owners that don't pay Montana income tax still contribute to our businesses and economy by spending their out-of-state money when they visit.

All of the "solutions" introduced thus far put yet another burden on Montanans. If passed, Montanans must "prove" they are tax paying residents via submitting sensitive Social Security numbers to yet another digital database for taxes on their homes which have nothing to do with "Social Security". THERE IS A SIMPLER SOLUTION: Why not just lower property taxes to levels which were certainly high enough pre-Covid and then put a cap on how much property taxes can increase each year that YOU OWN your real estate (ANY real estate). Once sold, THEN the value could be adjusted according to that property's sales price. The new owners who were able to pay THAT PRICE can likely afford the higher taxes. SIMPLE AND FAIR FOR EVERYONE! The reason this simple solution has not been introduced is likely that the politicians are simply looking for a way to get us to vote for higher taxes (on someone...anyone...) so they have more spending money instead of budgeting within our means as smart Montanan's historically have.

Sincerely,
Scott & Dawn Hagedorn

BLM seeks initial input for September 2025 oil and gas lease sale in Montana and North Dakota

The Bureau of Land Management Montana-Dakotas State Office opened a 30-day public scoping period to receive public input on 29 oil and gas parcels totaling 9,102 acres that may be included in a September 2025 lease sale in Montana and North Dakota. The comment period ends Mar. 3, 2025.

The parcels the BLM is analyzing, as well as maps and instructions on how to comment are available on the BLM's ePlanning website at: <https://eplanning.blm.gov/eplanning-ui/project/2035530/510>

Leasing is the first step in the process to develop federal oil and gas resources. Before development operations can begin, an operator must submit an application for permit to drill detailing development plans. The BLM reviews applications for permits to drill, posts them for public review, conducts an environmental analysis and coordinates with state partners and stakeholders.

All parcels that are included in a federal oil and gas lease sale include appropriate stipulations to protect important natural resources. Information on current and upcoming BLM leases is available through the National Fluid Lease Sale System.

Two Montana Tribes Receive $240,000 for Tribal Business Development

– The Montana Department of Commerce announced that two Montana tribes will share $240,000 of grant funding to support Indigenous entrepreneurship in Montana. The funding is through Commerce's Tribal Business Development Grant program.

"Through TBDG funding, tribal businesses are empowered to drive innovation, create opportunities and shape a prosperous future for their communities," said Paul Green, director of the Montana Department of Commerce.

The TBDG is a competitive grant program to connect participating tribes of Montana with the resources necessary to advance shovel-ready projects that will provide a measurable and beneficial economic impact for the community.

The following tribes will receive TBDG funding:

- The Blackfeet Tribe will receive $89,400 to enhance meat processing and product distribution associated with the Blackfeet Tribe Buffalo Program in Browning.

- The Confederated Salish & Kootenai Tribes will receive $150,600 for its meat processing office and retail modular unit in Ronan.

In 2024, the Northern Cheyenne Tribe received $160,000 of TBDG funding to renovate and update the Northern Cheyenne Cultural Arts Center, a focal point in the community for the Tribe's cultural history.

Mariah SoldierWolf, economic development planner for Northern Cheyenne Tribe, said, "The Tribe's in-kind match completed the initial demolition phase and prepped the building for new construction. The building will serve as a gift shop and visitor center along busy Highway 212. The Craft Center will allow many local artists to display and sell their work within the community, and the tourists passing through will contribute to the local economy and help build social networks. Additionally, this will allow community members to host artistic and cultural classes, such as painting, drum making and beading. The project's completion will contribute to the well-being of the Northern Cheyenne community."

Eligible applicants for TBDG funding include governing bodies of Montana's eight tribal governments or tribally owned businesses. These grants are intended to assist in deploying businesses for which planning is more or less complete, approval permits are in place and laborers can get to work once sufficient funding is secured.
