Patricia Ann (Lenahan) Stish 1929 - 2025

Patricia passed away surrounded by loving family members at her home on February 26, 2025, at the age of ninety-five. Pat as she was known to family and friends, was born August 29, 1929, in Bemidji, Minnesota to Peter and Sarah Lenahan. Pat had an older brother James (Jimmy) Joseph. Pat graduated from high school in Bemidji, Minnesota in 1947. She married Henry W. Stish on March 20, 1948. That same year, the newlyweds moved to St. Ignatius, Montana. Together they had three daughters Marcia, Mary Lou, and Peggy. The family moved to Stevensville, Montana in 1951 and then in 1961 to Grand Forks, North Dakota, finally settling down roots in 1962 in Dillon, Montana where she lived the remainder of her years.

While in Dillon, Pat was active in Soroptimist, Philanthropic Education Organization (PEO), American Legion Drum Corps, she was a Brownie Scout leader for her girl's troop, and she was a member of several bridge clubs, including Faculty Bridge. Pat also had a love of sports playing in women's bowling leagues and the Beaverhead Lady's Golf league, winning the club championship in 1979. Pat was dedicated to her daily gym workouts followed by coffee and cards with friends, especially the Pink Sensations. She was known as a devoted member of the First Presbyterian Church, where they have had a back row pew reserved just for Pat and her friends.

Starting in 1977, Pat and Carol Dickenson began managing the Beaverhead Country Club and Pro shop. After two years with Carol, Pat continued in her management of the Country Club for more than thirteen years combining a career with her love of sports, friends, and family.

Pat loved her family and could often be found playing golf, staying the weekend skiing, and ice-skating with her daughters and grandkids and she would never miss a grandkids event. She lovingly texted her family every day signing off with "love grandma Pat." In the summertime Pat could be found taking family road trips back to Minnesota to visit with relatives. Mary Lou kept the tradition going making it an annual event. Other favorite hobbies included solving puzzles, reading, and snacking while watching TV. Celebrations with friends were often and included monthly birthday girls' lunches.

Patricia was preceded in death by her parents, Peter and Sarah, her brother Jimmy, her son-in-law Dick McCracken, and her husband of sixty-five years Henry.

Patricia is survived by her children Marcia McCracken of Polaris, Mary Lou (David) Wilson of Manhattan, Peggy (Mike) Naegele of Helena. Her grandchildren Brad Naegele, Brendan Naegele, Megan (Burke) Nelson, and Ryan (Jenny) McCracken; and four great grandchildren Danika Nelson, Mckall Nelson, Liam McCracken, and Colin McCracken. She is also survived by cousins and numerous dear friends who will all miss her immensely.

The family extends their heartfelt thanks to the First Presbyterian Church Pastoral Care Team and Honeybee Hospice for their care and support. There will be a memorial service for Pat on Thursday, March 6th at 1:00pm at the First Presbyterian Church in Dillon, Montana with reception to follow at the church. In lieu of flowers, donations in her name may be made to Southwestern Montana Family YMCA, Dillon Junior Golf c/o Pioneer Federal or donors' choice.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen, national colleagues advocate for enhanced election integrity measures

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen joined colleagues nationwide urging Department of Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem to promote and enhance election integrity in Montana and the United States.

Secretary Jacobsen was one of 21 Secretaries of State urging Secretary Noem to prioritize improvements to the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) program to assist in detecting noncitizens attempting to register and/or vote in our elections.

"As President Trump has explicitly conveyed, ensuring noncitizens do not vote in our elections is crucial to protecting the integrity of elections in our respectful states," wrote the secretaries. "Disallowing interference from noncitizens in the elections process is a fundamental role we must not only assume, but champion." In their letter, Secretary Jacobsen and her colleagues suggested multiple enhancements to the SAVE program, which would allow them to better serve constituents and voters across the country.

"We appreciate Secretary Noem's assistance in ensuring that only citizens are registering and voting in our Montana elections," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Enhancing the SAVE program will bolster confidence in our elections as Montanans on every side of the aisle strongly agree and believe that only U.S. citizens should vote in our state's elections."

Montana Highway Patrol partners with The Salvation Army on voucher program to help stranded motorists

The Montana Highway Patrol (MHP) and The Salvation Army today launched a program that will provide stranded motorists in Montana with vouchers for towing or lodging.

The Montana Stranded Motorist Assistance Program was established by The Salvation Army to support Montana's traveling public in emergency situations. The partnership with MHP will allow troopers, at their discretion, to provide vouchers from participating businesses to stranded motorists for towing and/or lodging, and other emergency needs for an individual or family. The trooper on scene will identify if a motorist needs assistance and, if so, what service the motorist needs when selecting a voucher for support.

"This program embodies our values of service, integrity, and respect as it will help us further serve the traveling public in Montana," said MHP Colonel Kurt Sager. "We are grateful to The Salvation Army's generosity and look forward to working with them on this program to help Montanans and tourists when they are stranded on the side of the road."

"We're pleased to partner with the Montana Highway Patrol on this important service for motorists," Major Nesan Kistan, Divisional Commander of The Salvation Army Intermountain Division said. "Service is our prayer. A stranded motorist merits our help in whatever way we can provide."

Troopers will use their discretion when providing vouchers. An officer will be able to issue a voucher worth up to $150 for towing services and/or lodging.

The program launches in Eastern and Southwest Montana, including the Butte, Bozeman and Billings areas. Additional partners are sought to include other regions of the state. Interested businesses are encouraged to email Jim Antal, a field representative with The Salvation Army, at

Terminus Distilling Company Updates

Katrina & Derek Lewis

Building

With the concrete cured, Derek has started to frame the distillery room. First up, the bathroom. He'll work from there to add the boiler room and enclose the 'distillery room' which will house the still and other equipment, then the walk-up window room.

Business / Community

We have been working with our designer, Lindsay Jaeger, and sign maker, Ben Keneally, to create an outside menu that is weatherproof, informative, and easy to both update and maintain. We'll offer both alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks and want to be clear and inviting to anyone who walks up.

As awardees of the federal Renewable Energy for America Program (REAP) grant, we're hopeful it will still fund half of our energy efficiency improvements for our old building (adding insulation, replacing windows, etc.). Our other business related grants are at the state level and seem in good shape, which means we'll have assistance with purchasing Montana grains for our first whiskies as well as startup marketing funds.

Distillery

Our still is being readied to ship from southern Missouri to Montana. The shipment will include our 500gal hybrid pot still, two 500gal fermenters, a 500gal mash ton, and various accessory equipment.

For those of you wondering about whiskey, we put in our first order of barrels with Black Swan Cooperage in Park Rapids, Minnesota. We'll start with both 30gal and 53 gal, some with their patented honeycombed staves which increase the wood surface area and therefore whiskey to wood contact. The smaller barrels allow us to bring aged spirits to you all more quickly as well as expand our product line (ex. blended whiskeys and aging other spirits like gin). The larger barrels leverage economies of scale, as they are around the same price as the smaller options. Derek will likely pick up our first order in April.
