Jeannette Ori

On February 8, 1958 my parents and older brother celebrated my birth and I was introduced to all as Jeannette Ann Nye, the daughter of Donald and Alma Nye from San Jose, California. Just less than one year later, another baby girl was born, and I became known as the middle sister of the "Three Nye Brats" and the world was changed forever!

So many things in my life seemed of little significance at the time they happened but, then, took on a greater importance as I got older. The memories I am taking with me now are so precious!

Memories ... where do I begin?

Well, I remember mom who sewed my sister and I exquisite dresses for us when we were little. I remember dad always making sure we had a fishing pole in hand and a tent to camp in! He also played a very significant role in my life as I started my life long love of horsemanship!

Grandma Mamie's homemade rolls and playing cribbage; Grandpa Nye sheep shearing; Grandma and Grandpa Stodden taking us boating, camping, and fishing every chance they got; and Grandma Ruth & Phil producing home movies ... mostly of hummingbirds!

As a child, I walked to the old Evergreen Elementary School. Walking across the creek to the 7-Eleven to get a slurpy! My sister and I getting Chatty Kathy's for Christmas!

But, my most memorable childhood event was getting my first horse named Cinders at the age 11 and later, my horse of 32 years Zac at age 14. There were other horses to follow as well.

I remember twirling my baton to the tune of "On to Victory, Beaverhead" in High School as part of the Golden Girls!

I married the man of my dreams on June 18, 1983 and from that day on I was proud to be Mrs. Theodore Ori! Our plan was to have a couple kids and did just that when we were blessed with Johnny and then Dana. Then, along came our little sweetheart, Anne Marie! Seeing these three grow into who they were supposed to be, brought a wonderful sense of meaning to our lives!

I remember planting my beautiful flower garden, moving pipe and haying razor rides with my family, the occasional dip at Elkhorn Hot Springs, the bowling league, skiing with the kids, becoming a member of the Back Country Horseman, and hiking to the top of Baldy. In my older years, pickleball became a game that I really enjoyed ... yes, that noisy game we would hear across the way as we sat out on the patio in the desert!

Just when I thought I was too old to fall in love again, I became a grandmother, and my three grand-angels stole my heart. Judson, Ira, and Thea have enriched my life more than words can say. They're treasures that are irreplaceable and will go with me wherever my journey takes me. I've always maintained that my greatest treasure's call me Gramzy.

I've been a devoted daughter, a loving wife, a comforting mother, a true and loyal friend, and a spoiling gramzy!

I passed away on February 27, 2025, and I was preceded in death by my father, Donald Nye, father and mother-in-law Dom and Patricia Ori, and niece Marissa Ori. I am survived by my husband, Ted Ori, children Johnny (Kait), Dana (Grace), and Anne Marie (Greg). Also, my three grandchildren Judson, Ira, and Thea. I am also survived by my mother, Alma Nye, brother Danny Nye, and sister Nancy Taylor (Kevin), my brother-in-law's Keith Ori (Sue), Shawn Ori (Lynn), and sister-in-law Robyn Ori English Gohn). There are also many nieces and nephews that I will cherish forever.

There will be a celebration of life for me sometime this spring/ summer when the flowers are blooming and the butterflies are fluttering. I'll leave you with this... "Please don't cry because I am gone, instead be happy that I was here". Today, I am happy and I am riding away on my horse!

Love you all forever...

Montana Western Announces Commencement Speaker Nathan J. Boll

The University of Montana Western's 128th Annual Commencement Ceremony will feature speaker Nathan J. Boll, a NASA Space Policy Analyst and 2013 Montana Western graduate.

Nathan J. Boll is a Space Policy Analyst in the Science Mission Directorate at the headquarters of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) in Washington, D.C., where he specializes in intergovernmental affairs. He currently supports the Joint Agency Satellite Division as the lead interagency agreement manager and serves as the Executive Secretary of the NASA Advisory Council's Science Committee.

Boll previously served as a Senior Space Policy Consultant at the Aerospace Corporation, where he focused on commercial remote sensing satellite policy as an advisor to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). Prior to his federal service, Boll was a Program Executive for the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, where he led the development and launch of ASCEND, an annual technical, scientific, and engineering conference. He also served as an Associate Program Officer for the National Academy of Sciences, where he supported the drafting and publication of peer-reviewed reports that help guide U.S. space sector decision-making.

Boll earned his Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Montana Western, his Master of Science in Space Science and Engineering from the University of Michigan, and his Master of Arts in International Policy from George Washington University.

"We are honored to welcome Nathan J. Boll back to Montana Western for our 128th Annual Commencement ceremony. His work in space policy and intergovernmental affairs at NASA demonstrates the impact of a Montana Western education and the incredible paths our graduates can pursue," said Montana Western Chancellor, Michael Reid. "We look forward to his address as he shares his experiences and helps inspire our graduates to reach for new heights in their own careers."

Montana Western's Commencement ceremony will begin at 10:00 a.m. in the Bulldog Stadium on the UMW campus on May 10, 2025. For more information, please contact the Montana Western Registrar's Office by calling 406-683-7371 or visit <https://tinyurl.com/UMWComm25>.

Bulldogs' Season Ends in Heartbreaking 88-86 Loss to Rocky Mountain College

The Montana Western men's basketball team (16-13) saw its season come to an end against Rocky Mountain College (19-10) in the Frontier Conference Tournament this evening, falling 88-86.

Jalyn Stepney led the Bulldogs in scoring with 20 points.

How It Happened: Kevin Bethel and Abi Adedo got the Bulldogs off to a strong start, scoring the game's first four points. Stepney added two three-pointers to help build Western's early lead. However, Rocky responded with a 7-0 run to reclaim a 17-14 advantage.

Alan Kane, Jacob Ankeny, and Kyle Gruhler each contributed to keep the Bulldogs in a back-and-forth battle, while Jacksen Burckley knocked down a three. However, the Bears capitalized on Bulldog turnovers, scoring seven points off giveaways and shooting 53.1% from the field to take a 46-36 lead into halftime.

Rocky extended its lead to as much as 13 early in the second half, but Kane and Burckley helped keep the Bulldogs within striking distance.

With just under four minutes to play, the Bulldogs mounted a run, holding the Bears scoreless for nearly two minutes and cutting the deficit to 79-74. Rocky answered with a timely three, but Stepney responded with one of his own. After a steal, Kane scored to bring Western within three at 82-79. Stepney then drilled a deep three to tie the game at 82-82, but Rocky quickly regained the lead with a basket at the 45.8-second mark.

With a chance to tie, Kane's shot rimmed out, and Rocky capitalized at the free-throw line to go up by three. Gruhler scored with seven seconds left to make it 85-84, but Rocky converted two more free throws to extend the lead. Bethel responded with two clutch free throws to cut it to 87-86, but another Rocky free throw made it 88-86. Gruhler's potential game-winning three at the buzzer rimmed in and out, sealing the Bears' victory.

Notables:

- Kane scored 16 points, pulled down two rebounds, recorded two steals, and dished out two assists.
- Bethel finished with 11 points and five assists.
- Adedo finished the game with eight points, five rebounds, two assists, and two steals.
- Five Western players scored in double figures (Stepney, Bethel, Kane, Gruhler, and Burckley).
- The Bulldogs went 16-16 from the free-throw line.
- Rocky out-rebounded the Bulldogs 33-27.

Community Invited to Growth Policy Update Meeting on March 6th

The City of Dillon is in the process of updating its Growth Policy, a long-term plan that will shape the future of our community for the next 20 years. To ensure this plan reflects the needs and priorities of Dillon's residents, we invite you to a public meeting on Thursday, March 6th, 2025, from 6:00 to 8:00 PM at the historic Andrus Hotel in downtown Dillon. This informal, drop-in event provides an opportunity for community members to:

- Meet the Engineer & Planning Board Members – Engage with the professionals and local leaders guiding the Growth Policy update.
- Complete the Community Survey – If you haven't already shared your input, this is your chance to do so.
- Learn More About the Growth Policy – Discover how this update will impact Dillon's housing, business development, recreation, infrastructure, and overall growth for the next two decades.

The Growth Policy is a crucial document that helps shape funding opportunities, zoning decisions, and development priorities. Your feedback is essential to ensuring Dillon's future reflects the needs and vision of its residents.

Whether you have five minutes or an hour, we encourage you to stop by anytime between 6:00 and 8:00 PM to share your thoughts, ask questions, and learn how you can be part of Dillon's future.

For more information, contact Kristina Abbey at operations@dillonmt.org or 406-683-4245 or any City of Dillon Planning Board member.

We look forward to seeing you there! Dillon Hosts Reimagining Rural Program
