Dillon Elementary School District #10 Proposes $150,000 Increase to Technology Levy

Dillon Elementary School District #10 is seeking voter approval for a $200,000 technology levy to maintain and update critical educational technology. The proposed levy includes a $150,000 increase to the district's current $50,000 annual technology fund. This additional funding will support student and staff safety, purchase student learning software, update parent communication tools and digital learning platforms, and maintain and replace instructional devices.

The levy would increase property taxes by approximately $8.01 per year for a home valued at $100,000, $24.02 for a $300,000 home, and $48.03 for a $600,000 home. If approved, the levy will last for 10 years, providing stable funding for educational technology needs.

Since the coronavirus pandemic, the district has faced a surge in technology-related costs, including the need for more devices, enhanced security, and additional software licenses. Despite these growing demands, the district has not requested additional technology funding since 2002. The levy will ensure the district can keep pace with technological advancements that have become essential for modern education.

Superintendent Randy Shipman emphasized the importance of fiscal responsibility in managing the district's resources. "We are committed to ensuring that every dollar spent is used effectively to enhance our students' educational experience. This levy is a necessary step to keep pace with technological advancements and provide our students with the tools they need to succeed," Shipman stated. "We realize taxes are high, but our technology needs are about $325,000 per year and we have had a $50,000 levy since 2002. What has really changed in the last 23 years is our technological needs have jumped tremendously, especially with safety and security. Given the current challenges with taxes, we are requesting only a portion of the necessary funds and not the full amount of our technology costs. We remain committed to fiscal responsibility and will cover the remainder of the costs through the general fund."

Currently, Dillon Elementary School District spends 14.7% less per pupil compared to the Montana state average. In the 2022-2023 school year, SD #10 spent $11,388 per student, whereas the state average was $13,346. For the 2023-2024 school year, approximately 23% of the district's revenue came from local property taxes, which is significantly lower than the Montana state average of 28.32%. Dillon Elementary School District relies less on local taxpayers compared to the state average.

Principal Greg Fitzgerald highlighted the impact of technology on student engagement. "Technology has transformed the way we teach and learn. Interactive tools like smartboards and digital learning platforms have made lessons more dynamic and engaging for our students. Investing in technology is investing in their future," Fitzgerald explained. He also noted, "With everything we have been able to purchase over the last several years things are up to par, but there is a continual need to improve and maintain technology."

Chad Herman, Technology Director for the Dillon Elementary School District, underscored the increased need for cybersecurity. "Protecting student and staff data from cyber threats is crucial, and this can be a significant and ongoing expense. With the rise in cyber-attacks targeting educational institutions, it's imperative that we invest in robust cybersecurity measures to safeguard our community," Herman stated.

To answer questions regarding the levy, the district has formed a Technology Levy Task Force. This task force is composed of Superintendent Randy Shipman, Elementary Principal Greg Fitzgerald, Middle School Principal Joel Rogers, School District #10 educators Jaron Laws, Lacie Puyear, Kieryn Bleecker, Amy Petersen, Jazmin Rivera, and SD #10 Trustees Todd Rouse, Sharon Anderson, and Clarissa Sandall, as well as community members Cory Creighton, Evan Helle, Tom Welch, and Lacey Schnee. The task force has met with various groups throughout the community and will continue to meet with others to provide information and answer questions about the levy request.

Community member Cory Creighton stressed the importance of investing in children at a young age. "Supporting this levy isn't just about tech; it's about investing in our kids' future. Giving them the right tools early on helps them succeed in school and life. Good schools benefit the whole community, creating positive effects that go beyond just the classroom. Strong schools are key to vibrant, thriving communities," said Creighton.

Former Montana state legislator and Dillon community member, Tom Welch, voiced his strong support for the technology levy. "I wholeheartedly endorse the School District #10 technology levy request. This funding will ensure our students and educators have access to top-notch educational tools and maintain dependable technology security. I urge everyone to vote YES for the School District #10 technology levy," Welch stated.

The School District #10 Board of Trustees voted and approved the technology levy request at their September 2024 meeting. Your vote is crucial in ensuring Dillon K-8 students have access to the tools they need to succeed in the digital era. Make sure to participate in the upcoming vote on May 6th to have your voice heard.

For more information on the levy, visit www.dillonschools.org/page/2025-technology-levy or attend the final Elementary Technology Levy Information Meeting being held on April 10th at 7:00 pm in the District Conference Room at 22 North Cottom Drive.

BCHS Academic Olympics
Southwest Montana Academic tournament

Thank you to Tami for driving us safely! We really appreciate all our bus drivers for your dedication, which allows us to participate in great opportunities like we had today!

- Team C of: Darrell Lewis, Evelyn Tolman, Lilla Guiberson, and Greer Morstein, competed 1 player short but with a lot of heart. They faced the Sweetgrass team that went on to take 3rd. They are gaining confidence to 'trust their gut' and buzz in when they think they have the correct answer.
- The B team of: Daria Adkins, Clara Nittinger, Aven Pfleiger, Amelia Warren, and Abbi Eason found themselves to be very strong in similar areas and that made for advantages on certain questions, but disadvantages on others. They had a mixture of wins and losses, but were classy through it all.
- Our A team of: Izzy Regan, Brekken Venn, Hunter Wigen, Athan Graham, and Ean Field were a force to reckoned with and came out with a championship for the 2nd year in a row! Others teams, coaches, parents and scorers were quite impressed with their display of knowledge!

BCHS will have our name engraved on the travelling trophy for the 4th time since 2021!!

In the written competition (a 100 question Multiple Choice test) our students performed with the following results:

- Hunter Wigen - tied for top score out of all 141 students who took the test and 1st for juniors taking the test!
- Izzy Regan - tied for 2nd top score overall and took 2nd out of the

Dillon Garden Club March Workshop

The Dillon Garden Club will host a Dahlia workshop presented by Bill Grandberry on Monday, March 24th, 6:00 pm, at the Bank of Commerce Conference Room, 2nd Floor, located at 110 South Idaho Street.

Interested in learning how to grow and exhibit beautiful dahlias? Join us for an informative workshop where you can discover the secrets to successful dahlia cultivation. Are you excited to learn from an experienced dahlia grower? Grandberry's brother was an award-winning dahlia exhibitor in this very competitive enterprise in Seattle. Following his brother's passing, Bill inherited the dahlias. However, Anaconda (& Dillon) present climate challenges different from Seattle. Now with nearly 10 years of experience, Grandberry can grow these highly desired plants that only cease blooming with a hard frost.

There will be door prize drawings of dahlia tubers given away at the workshop provided by local grower Overflow Farm. Don't miss this opportunity to improve your dahlia knowledge and growing skills! The Dillon Garden Club's regular business meeting will follow at 7:00 pm. All are invited to attend.
