UMW P.A.T.H. & Women's Resource Center Hosts "Walk a Mile in Her Shoes" Event

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The phrase "Walk a Mile in My Shoes" took on a new meaning Thursday afternoon as the University of Montana Western (UMW) and the Women's Resource Center held their second annual Walk a Mile in Her Shoes event. This initiative is part of Sexual Assault Awareness Month and aims to raise awareness about sexual violence, gender-based violence, and the critical importance of supporting survivors.

Participants were encouraged to don high heels and navigate a course that began at UMW, traveled down Atlantic Street to the Catholic Church, and returned to campus. The event drew a diverse group of participants, including officers from the Dillon Police Department and firefighters from the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department, who joined in the spirit of the event by sporting flashy heels and strutting their stuff to help raise awareness.

A highlight of the event was a heartfelt speech delivered by sexual assault survivor Cherie Lewis, who shared her personal experiences and underscored the invaluable support provided by victim advocates throughout her journey. "Having this type of support is essential for survivors," Lewis expressed, reminding attendees of the importance of community involvement in raising awareness and assisting those affected by sexual violence.

UMW's Dr. Katrina Kennett Selected as 2025 MUS Teaching Scholar

The Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education has announced the selection of eight faculty members from across the state to be honored as Montana University System Teaching Scholars, including University of Montana Western Associate Professor of Education, Dr. Katrina Kennett.

Now in its fifth year, the MUS Teaching Scholars program was created to elevate excellent teaching and learning as the signature feature of an MUS education and to expand the reach of and impact of high-quality teaching. The program recognizes faculty who have made exemplary contributions to teaching and learning at their institutions and supports these faculty in leading faculty peers in further advancing excellence in teaching.

Each year, the MUS Teaching Scholars program focuses on a theme that highlights innovative approaches to teaching and aligns with MUS teaching and learning priorities. This year, the MUS Teaching Scholars program theme is "Teaching Practices & Pedagogies for All Learners." This year's Teaching Scholars faculty have developed leading edge strategies to serve non-traditional and working students as well as learners who face additional barriers in accessing education.

Teaching Scholars, whose exceptional contributions to teaching elevate what an MUS education can be," says Joseph Thiel, Deputy Commissioner for Academic, Research, and Student Affairs in the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education. "These faculty are trailblazers developing new ways of preparing our students for future careers, particularly when those students come to education later in life or with hurdles to overcome."

The MUS Teaching Scholars program extends its impact through faculty learning communities. During the fall semester, each Teaching Scholar will lead faculty on their home campus in developing innovative and effective teaching strategies. Findings, best practices, and strategies developed through the learning communities will be shared with faculty across the system as part of the MUS Seamless System Initiative.

Scholars were chosen from a highly competitive pool of faculty from across the system, from all types of institutions within the system, and all faculty tracks and ranks. Faculty are selected in a double-blind review process for demonstrated commitment to the annual theme, quality and potential impact of the proposal for a faculty learning community, and demonstrated commitment to effective and innovative pedagogy.

Stand in Solidarity on Denim Day: Wear Denim, Raise Awareness, Support Survivors

On Wednesday, April 30th, the Montana Western Humans in Performance (HIP) Club and the Women's Resource Center (WRC) invites the community to take a stand against sexual violence by participating in Denim Day, a global movement that raises awareness, supports survivors, and challenges harmful myths about sexual assault.

Denim Day began in response to a 1999 Italian Supreme Court ruling that overturned a rape conviction based on the argument that the survivor's jeans were "too tight," implying consent. Outraged by this decision, women in the Italian Parliament wore jeans in protest, sparking a worldwide movement that continues to grow each year.

By wearing denim on Denim Day, individuals send a powerful message: what someone wears is never an invitation for violence. To show solidarity, the HIP Club will be distributing denim ribbons throughout town. Community members are encouraged to wear their ribbon or denim proudly and share their participation on social media, with the hashtag, #denimdaydillon helping to spread awareness and support for survivors.

"Denim Day is about standing together, challenging misconceptions, and creating a culture that prioritizes safety, respect, and survivor support," said Megan Chilson, UMW Professor and WRC Board Member. "By wearing denim or a denim ribbon, we are showing survivors that we believe them and that they are not alone."

We encourage businesses, schools, and local groups to participate by wearing denim, hosting discussions, and sharing photos with their denim or ribbons online. Together, we can break the silence, foster change, and create a safer, more supportive community.

The Women's Resource Center provides essential support to survivors of sexual violence in Beaverhead and Madison counties. Our free and confidential services are designed to meet the unique needs of survivors, empowering them to heal on their own terms.

For more information about Denim Day and how to get involved, contact Megan Chilson at megan.chilson@umwestern.edu or the Women's Resource Center at (406) 683-6106.

Dillon Elementary School District #10

2025 Technology Levy

By the Numbers

 $150,000 Technology Fund increase to protect student and staff data, purchase student learning software, improve parent communication tools and maintain and replace instructional devices.

 10 year term for levy
If approved, the technology levy would remain in place until 2035.

 14.7% less per-pupil
Dillon Elementary School District spends 14.7% less per-pupil than Montana's per-pupil average. SD #10 spent $11,388 per pupil, in contrast to Montana's state average of $13,346, as reported in the 2022-2023 school year.

 $50,000 - $1 million
Monetary losses to school districts following a cyber incident ranged from $50,000 to $1 million according to the U.S. Government Accountability Office.

 23 years
Number of years since Dillon Elementary School District has requested technology funds, despite growing demand. Currently, the district has a $50,000 annual technology levy.

 141%
Increase in technology-related costs over the last 7 years ensuring students and the district can keep pace with technological advancements essential for modern education.

 $275,000 current shortfall
Current technology costs exceed the existing $50,000 technology levy by $275,000. A new technology levy would increase funding and allow general funds to be reallocated to support our students, teachers, staff, and community.

You're Invited to Elementary Technology Levy Information Meetings

Join us for one of three community meetings to provide information and answer questions about the upcoming levy. Each session will be simultaneously available both via in-person and virtually at the following dates and times, taking place in the District Conference Room. We encourage you to join us at one of the sessions to learn more about the 2025 elementary technology levy that will appear on the ballot this May!

2025 Technology Levy

Dillon Elementary
School District #10

Why is Dillon Elementary asking for a technology levy increase?

Dillon Elementary School District #10 is asking for voter approval of a $150,000 technology levy increase in the May 2025 election to help maintain and update critical educational technology. This additional funding will support the following:

- Protecting Student and Staff Data
- Purchasing Student Learning Software
- Improving Parent Communication Tools
- Maintaining and Replacing Instructional Devices

How much would this cost me?

Tax Increase Estimate
$8.01 per year	Estimate for a home with a market value of $100,000
$24.02 per year	Estimate for a home with a market value of $300,000
$48.03 per year	Estimate for a home with a market value of $600,000

Please visit the website below for additional tax estimates and information.

The Dillon Elementary School District technology levy will provide sustainable funding to maintain a safe learning environment, ensure reliable access to educational resources, purchase parent communication tools and digital learning platforms as well as maintain and replace instructional devices.

Protecting Student and Staff Data and Privacy:

Annual threat response and cybersecurity subscriptions are vital in protecting student and staff data and maintaining a safe learning environment. In 2023, 22% of all data breaches involved the education sector, highlighting the significant risk and need for effective data protection measures.

Purchasing Student Learning Software:

Annual software fees for student assessment and learning tools are essential to the success of our students. The variety of educational resources provides personalized learning experiences, allowing students to progress, addressing their individual needs in an effective and enjoyable way. Additionally, it offers valuable data and insights to help us track progress, identify areas for improvement and tailor instruction to better support student achievement. Technology directly impacts our students' success.

Improving Parent Communication Tools:

Effective parent communication technology is crucial for fostering a supportive school community focused on student success. These funds will enable timely updates and the purchase of tools that enhance collaboration between parents and educators, improving student outcomes. Additionally, communication technology supports both administrative functions and the diverse needs of students.

Maintaining and Replacing Instructional Devices:

Maintaining and replacing instructional devices is crucial for keeping technology up to date and supporting effective teaching. Annual IT support contracts help our small school manage technical issues, maintain a productive learning environment, and allow educators to focus on student success. We also need repairs for devices used in state-mandated assessments.

Beaverhead County High School Technology Levy 2025

Budget VS Current Technology Levy

Current Technology Levy $50,000
Annual Technology Expense $151,000
(Expenses increase 3%-5% every year)

We are currently investing over $100,000 to maintain the tools and resources that support student learning, teacher instruction, and essential programs. This gap is unsustainable. We are at risk of losing critical technology services. The levy is not just about funding equipment it's about preserving the innovative programs that make a difference in our students' education every day.

Let's Bring it Home!

Just as in a household, technology in a business or school setting has the same limitations and needs as your mobile phone:

- Annual Fees
- Cost Increases
- Constant Updates
- Maintenance and Repair
- After a few short years it is outdated and needs to be upgraded.

Failure to adapt means leaving students at a disadvantage in an increasingly digital world. Today's students must have technology training and familiarity to ensure that their education remains relevant, secure, and future ready!
