Drawing results for moose, sheep, goat and bison now available

You can now check the drawing results for moose, bighorn sheep, mountain goat and bison licenses.

There are a few ways to get your drawing results. Visit fwp.mt.gov, click on MyFWP Login in the upper righthand corner, then click on "Lookup Draw Results, Register for Lists" tab on the left-hand menu, or login to your MyFWP account. You can also sign up for an account at fwp.mt.gov/MyFWP. Applicants can also call any FWP regional office or the licensing office at 406-444-2950.

If you haven't already downloaded the MyFWP mobile app, now is a great time to do so. This app will hold your licenses and permits, as well as your E-tags which can be validated in the field if you harvest an animal. The app works with or without cell service in the field, as long as you've downloaded your E-tags to your device. To find out more about the MyFWP mobile app including a how-to video, click here.

Deadline reminders: The deadline to apply for elk B, deer B, antelope, crane and swan is June 1. All applications must be completed online or at an FWP office. Most FWP offices with license sales are open Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Bulldog Volleyball Releases Schedule for 2025 Season

University of Montana Western seventh-year head volleyball coach Katie Lovett has announced her team's schedule for the 2025 season.

The Bulldogs come off a historic season that saw the no. 16-seeded Bulldog women's volleyball team make history by upsetting top-seeded and previously unbeaten Northwestern (Iowa) during the NAIA Women's Volleyball National Championship pool play. The Bulldogs capped their season with an overall record of 25-10 and played in a whopping 21 games against teams that were either ranked or receiving votes.

This season's slate will continue to challenge the Bulldogs as they enter the season ranked no. 8 in the country. Their schedule includes a pair of preseason non-conference tournaments, including a first-time trip to Florida to play in the Vipers Sports Academy Classic hosted by Keiser University.

Following preseason play, the Bulldogs will begin conference play in the realigned Frontier Conference that will see six new teams join the conference. With the realignment, the Bulldogs will face each conference opponent twice through the regular season.

"We're really excited about this upcoming season and the new opportunities that come with a conference expansion. We are starting off with two great tournaments at Keiser University and LCSC and then dive straight into conference early September. This already tough conference just got a lot stronger, and we are excited for the new challenges," Head Coach Katie Lovett said.

The Bulldogs look to return to NAIA National Tournament Opening Round play for the third consecutive season on November 22, 2025, with the National Tournament final site kicking off December 3-9 in Sioux City, Iowa.
